SOCIETY

Fourth of July celebration was the function of the week. Mothers had to watch their children, in this small city where mothers are the constant and immediate guardians of their offspring. The heat has been intense and small porch parties, and door-yard picnics have been offered and enjoyed. The golf links absorb the energies and aspirations of a great many and those who do not play, enjoy chattering with an ever-present audience of relatives and friends of the players.

A cool, delightful balcony party was given on last Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Hays B. Tomson on the upper story of the porch at the Lindell hotel. The wide, airy floor space was decorated with rugs, divans, cushions and comfortable rattan seats and illuminated with colored lights. Laughter and the slow, gentle conversation of a summer evening floated over the heads of transient guests at the hotel and recalled them from politics and business to the amenities of social life. Mr and Mrs. Tomson's guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames George Woods, John T. Dorgan, Ross Curtice, Lewis Marshall; Misses Smith of Omaha, Norval of Seward, Oakley, Putnam, Burnham, Marshall, Cowdery, Carson, Kittle, Welch, Cowdery, Garten, Gahan, Hoover, Nance, Watkins; Messrs. Baldwin, Richards, Eames, Thatcher, Smith, Walsh, Joyce, Leonard of Omaha; Butler, Watkins, McCreery, Stoner, Holmes, Honeywell, Fitzgerald, Payne, Bartlett, Matson.

Richards and Thatcher. Mrs. Dundy and Mrs. Griffith. Misses Hoover, Hollowbush and Oakley.

The Good Times Euchre club gave a picnic to itself and a few others on the Fourth at Mr. Baldwin's place, Meadow Brook Farm. The party started at two o'clock from the L. C. Burr house, where Miss Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Morrison are keeping house for the summer. The members of the party rode in two huge bandwagons. At the Farm they lunched, played games, and in the evening set off the fireworks. The picnickers were Messrs and Mesdames W. G. Morrison, Elmer Merrill, Harry Everett, Howe, Freeman, Mullen, Dorgan, Edminston, Rector, Curtice, Lew Marshall, George Woods, Mrs. White of Omaha, Mrs. Rollins of Columbia, Missouri, Mrs. Pennybacker of Omaha, Mrs. Myron, Wheeler; Misses Garten, Putnam, Oakley, Hollowbush, Hoover, Bernham, Gahan, Carson, Norval of Seward, Smith of Omaha; Messrs. Honeywell, Paine, Walsh, Yates, Joyce, Holmes, Butler, Baldwin, Van Riper, Richards, Kennard, Thatcher.

On Thursday evening Mr. Harold Scudder gave a trolley party in the Oneta to Mr. and Mrs. Ogden, Marion Ogden and Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Raymond, Miss Raymond, Mr. Arthur Raymond and Dorothy Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. John Dorgan, Mrs. Wilson and Herbert Post, Miss Harwood and Dorance Harwood, Miss Harris and Miss Clara Harris. Mr. Harold Scudder is taking Mr. Norman Belcher's place while he is absent on his wedding tour.

Mr. Channing Craig and Master Fred Tatum are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hargreaves and of Master Harry Hargreaves. The two lads are schoolmates in the school which Master Harry has attended this year. On the Fourth, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Hargreaves, Mrs. Griffith, Mr. Craig, Harry Hargreaves, Fred Tatum, Mr. George Shedd and Mr. Leonard, enjoyed a picnic on the Funke grounds. On Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Hargreaves gave a dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Burnham, Miss Burnham, Miss Hargreaves, Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Scipio Dundy of Omaha, Mr. Burt Whedon and Mr. Eames. On Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Hargreaves gave a trolley party. The invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Wright, Buckstaff, W. C. Wilson, Irvin, Tilton, Ladd, Funke, Marshall, F. W. Brown, Edminston, Searles, Morrison, A. E. Hargreaves, Righter, Fitzgerald, Ogden, Thompson, Dorgan, Woods and Howe. Messrs. Craig, Eames, Joyce,

An enthusiastic party composed of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Schwind, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Allen, Mrs J. W. Winger, the Misses Bryan, Miss Welch, and Miss Ruth Bryan, went to Kansas City on Tuesday to attend the convention. En route Miss Helen Welch suffered a painful accident. The car door slammed shut on her finger and broke the bone.

A party of Lincoln people has planned to start today on a hunting and camping trip in Colorado and the Big Horn mountains. Among those who will go are: Major Trickey, Mr. Bert Minor, Mr. Frank Phillips, Mr. A. H. Buckstaff and Mr. E. Hunger.

Soon after sunrise yesterday morning, a party of congenial friends left Lincoln for the denuded Mtford camping grounds. Mr. and Mrs. Dorgan, Mr.
