Miss Minnie Bowen entertained the C.
C. club last Monday evening. Magic writing entertained the guests. The lawn was illuminated and furnished with seats and most of the evening was spider web and thus found their places at the table. Those present were Mr.

Mesdames Ward, Lewis, Astley; Misses Astley, Bolshaw, Flowers, Warick, Fas-

Many old residents of the county were in Raymond on Tuesday, to witness the burial of Mrs. Esther Hawkins Hermance, wife of Mr. J. S. Hermance.
The deceased was sixty-eight years of age and had been for nearly thirty years a resident of the county, presiding for a time over the affairs of the Poor Farm.
She died at five o'clock Sunday morning at her home eight miles west of Lincoln, having suffered for some time with cancer. She leaves a husband, son and daughter, Mrs. Luther Batton, now living in California. The loss of this aged member will be felt by the organizations where for many years she has borne a prominent part, the Woman's Relief Corps and the Old Settlers' Association.

Another of the old timers summoned by the last roll call is Mr. John Williams, whose death occurred at 635 South Thirteenth street, on Sunday afternoon. On Monday evening funeral services were held at Epworth M. E. church, and on Tuesday morning the remains were taken to Cedar Bluffs, where Mr. Williams resided for many years. He has also lived in Gage County and in Saunders County, afterward coming to this city where until recently he resided with his family at Twenty-sixth and Dudley. Last March he went to California for the benefit of his health, but became worse, and returned a month ago to die of Bright's disease.
Many besides the wife and two sons of Mr. Williams will mourn the loss of another of the pioneers.
