

wells from every division of the association testified the esteem felt everywhere for Mrs. Upton. Tributes from the East Lincoln union, represented by Mrs. Bentley; from the University Place organization, presided over by Mrs. Daily; from the Lancaster union, Mrs. Spangles, and the national union, Mrs. Newman, were supplemented by personal expressions of regard and tender farewell. Mrs. Guile, of the central union read a poem, "Good-bye from Lincoln Union." Mrs. Newman contributed verses, entitled "Faces," and Miss Crawford rendered two solos exceedingly appropriate for the occasion.

The Denver Republican speaks of the Lincoln colony: "Kiowa is decidedly in it this summer. The lodge has been running over full for the past month and bids fair to keep it up for another month at least. The Brown brothers have beaten the record in fishing and fun. Thursday was a gala day for the lodge three parties and a luncheon given by Mr. M. D. Welch, of Lincoln, Nebr., to twenty-five of his friends and neighbors from Lincoln now sojourning for the season at Pine Grove, Colorado. The following were of the party: Mrs. T. S. Allen, Mrs. B. F. Allen, Mrs. John L. Martin, Mrs. J. A. Baird, Miss Mammie L. Bryan, Miss Grace Bryan, Mrs. F. F. Schwind, Miss Helen Schwind, Miss Faith Schwind, Mrs. M. L. Strother, Mrs. George B. Sidener, Miss Mary Young, Mrs. Thomas Worrall, Mr. Bryan Worrall, Mr. Rockwell Worrall, Miss Blanche Rogers, Mrs. G. States, Miss Margaret States, Mrs. J. M. Stewart, Miss Helen Stewart, Miss Marcia Stewart, Mrs. W. B. Kirk, Miss Marie Kirk, and Mr. Donald Stewart. A very enjoyable time was spent, made doubly so by the fact that it was the birthday of two of the young ladies.

Mr. Isaac Raymond has returned from Sioux City, Iowa, where he played in the tri state tennis tournament. Mr. Raymond and Mr. E. E. Farnsworth of Grand Island, easily won the contest in doubles and Mr. Farnsworth won the tri state championship in singles. Neither lost a single game during the entire tournament. Mr. Farnsworth has held the Nebraska state championship and is one of the most expert players in the west. Mr. Raymond did not compete for the single championship.

Mrs. Charlotte Delaney and Miss Delaney of Santa Barbara, California, arrived in Lincoln last Saturday and visited friends for two days. Mrs. Delaney is the inventor of a hammock with side curtains and an overhead canopy. A New York firm is now manufacturing it and hopes to make large sales next year. For seven years in the mild climate of California, Mrs. Delaney has slept out of doors with the stars and the trees. She is the same cheerful, humorous companion as when eighteen years ago she lived here. Hers is a fine, brave spirit, that adversity cannot stale or intimidate. Her visit was a choice incident of the summer to those of her old friends who were in Lincoln.

Cards have been received in Lincoln announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Florence Worley of this city, to Mr. Nelson Grant Demorest of Denver. The ceremony will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton C. Cobb, of York, at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, August the twenty ninth. The "at home" announcement is after September the twentieth, at Denver. This notice will interest many people in Nebraska. Miss Worley has lived in York, Peru, Lincoln, and other cities during her career as a vocalist and teacher. She was for a time in charge of the vocal music at the State Normal school. During the past year she has been connected with the State university school of music in Lincoln, where her voice and personality made her a favorite musically and socially.

The reception given Mr. and Mrs. Irwin F. Frey on their return, Monday, from their wedding journey, was marked by unusual enthusiasm on the part of the seventy-five guests who welcomed the returning wanderers, as well as of the cordial host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Frey of 2234 Randolph street. Refreshments, music by an orchestra and general congratulations and rejoicings were the order of the evening.

Mrs. Helwig gave an informal and delightfully unique breakfast for Miss Stoddard and Mrs. Clevidence of Kansas City, at half after nine, on Thursday morning. Twelve ladies enjoyed an aesthetic menu in which cool green and white satisfied eye as well as palate, and contributed to the enjoyment of one of the pleasant events of Miss Stoddard's stay in Lincoln.
