

some white satin gown and a white picture hat with drooping plumes. Mrs. Rector was assisted by Mrs. Langdon of Omaha, Mrs. John Fitzgerald and Mrs. James Manahan.

Miss Senkar is a guest at the Lindell. She will form classes in the science of palmistry and astrology. She gives readings and entertainments for parties.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff gave a large party Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Walsh of Port Huron, Michigan. The glorious American Beauty had the honor of being the decorating flower for the gay event. The always pleasant game of six handed euchre occupied the evening hours. Mrs. John Dorgan received a handsome candlestick for her high score and Mr. W. C. Wilson a charming picture. Mrs. Wright, Miss Hoover, Miss Boyer, Mr. Burnham and Mr. Thatcher gave added pleasure to the evening by their music. A luncheon of rare things was served. The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames D. E. Thompson, Brown, Funke, Leonard, Crittenden, Macfarland, Beeson, Fitzgerald, Rector, Marshall, Watson, Grainger, W. B. Wilson, W. C. Wilson, H. H. Wilson, Ogden, Walter B. Hargreave, John Dorgan, William Dorgan, Tilton, George Woods, Burnham, Morrison, Hall, Bignell, R. H. Oakley, Macdonald, Curtice, Yates, Seacrest, Howe Green, Clark, Irvin, Wright, Fawell, Burr, Everett, Stoney, Thomas, Holmes, Mark Woods, Crancer and Cowdery. Mesdames Walsh, Thomas Griffith, Collier, Mallalieu and Mansfield Misses Sweet, Hollowbush, Burr, Hoover, Cowdery and Boyer. Messrs. Fitzgerald, Aaron Buckstaff, Frank Buckstaff and Thatcher.

Mrs. W. B. Wilson and Mrs. W. C. Wilson entertained on Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Walsh of Port Huron, Michigan. The guests were those who were friends of Mrs. Walsh when she was Miss Oakley of Lincoln. The atmosphere was so pervaded with bonhomie and informality, that it made the afternoon especially charming. A game; "A culinary courtship," of new aspect, from any Lincoln has had, caused both amusement and consternation. It at least proved that "civilized man cannot do without cooks." Refreshments with delicious entrees were served. Miss Dorrance Harwood served a punch lemonade during the afternoon. A handsome vase of Prussi ware and a Mori-Agi caudlestick were the prizes.

Mrs. Collier of Tacoma, Washington, is the guest of her brother, Mr. William Leonard.

The second student's recital of the University Conservatory of Music was given on Wednesday evening. The following program was given:

Piano solo—Sonata D minor, Op. 31 No. 2, Beethoven, allegro; Miss Myrtle Lashley.

Contralto solo—"Drink to Me Only," Old English; "To Mary," Maud Valerie White; Miss Grace Cutter.

Piano solo—Rustle of Spring, Sinding; Miss Flora Maine.

Soprano solo—"The Angel's Anthem," P. A. Schaecker; Miss Josephine Keane.

Violin solo—Scene de Ballet, De Beriot; Miss Agnes Brownell.

Soprano solo—"Vocal Gavotte," Gaston Lemaire; "A Gypsy Maiden I," Henry Parker; Miss Katharine Agnew.

Piano solo—Waltz, A flat, Op. 42, Chopin; Miss Lois Burrus.

Contralto solo—"O Mother Mine," Homer A. Norris; "A Shelter from the Storm," Robert Kahn; Miss Edith Curry.

Piano solo—Ballade in F major Op. 38, Chopin; Miss Belle Hagenow.

The Boston Ladies Symphony orchestra gave the third of the auditorium series of entertainments before a very large audience Saturday evening. The orchestra was greeted with a great deal of applause. The only vocal music was the number given by the basso, Carl Crance. He sang first the "Bandolero," by Stuart and responded also to two encores. His voice was of good quality throughout. The program was as follows:

March—From "The Ameer," V. Herbert.

Overture—Rienzi; Wagner.

Cornet solo—Grand Russian Fantasia, Levy; Miss Elizabeth M. Banks.

Tuba solo—Beezebub, Catozzi; Miss Nellie Richardson.

Overture—Raymond, Thomas.

Cello solo—Second Concerto, Goltzman; Miss Cornelia Appy.

Flute solo—Come Back to Erin, Air Varia, Armstrong; Miss Florence E. Beckett.

Selection—From "The Singing Girl," V. Herbert.

Violin solo—Ballad et Polonaise Vieuxtemps; Miss Grace A. Hastings.

Bass solo—Candolero, Stuart; Mr. Carl Crance.

Airs—From "The Burgomaster," Luderers.

In the absence of the conductor, Mr. Frank M. McKee, who is ill with typhoid fever at Lake City, Minn., the orchestra played under the baton of Mr. F. L. Weldon.

The Unity club gave an informal dancing party at Walsh hall last Wednesday evening. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames M. Friend, H. Mayer, Ackerman, Mayer; Misses Frank, Friend, Stricker, C. Stricker, Schlesinger, U. Schlesinger; Messrs. Blum, Chaim, Hancock, Janowich, Cone, K. Cone, Weil, Ach and Jacobson of Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Patrick entertained the L. A. Kensington last Monday afternoon. An enjoyable afternoon was spent. Those present were Mesdames Billmeyer, Wilkinson, Seacrest, Pitcher, C. Jones, Van Brunt, Wendling, Humphrey, Kennard, W. J. Turner, Turner, Davis, Hammond, Campbell, Rewick, Miss Rector, and Miss Clark of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

On Thursday, November 15th, Mrs. Macdonald was assisted by Mrs. Joseph Walsh, in receiving her friends.

From recent letters from Miss Clara Walsh, she will probably remain in Paris until spring. Miss Walsh is studying under the great artist, Whistler. She has taken a studio in Paris with a talented Pennsylvania girl who won the Topping prize at Philadelphia.

"Skip" Dundy, who recently moved to Buffalo, where he enjoys a concession or two at the coming exposition, has just lost all his household goods by the burning of the residence which he had rented there. The loss included all of his collection of curios, which he and Mrs. Dundy had made during their travels, and, unfortunately, there was no insurance.

The Round Table met with Mr. F. W. Hill last Monday evening. The subject for the evening was, "What Three Authors Do You Most Appreciate and Value?" There was a very interesting discussion. Mr. Bushnell led.

The marriage of Miss Rachel Aurelia Boyer of York and Mr. Frank Murray Rector will be celebrated December 12.

The active and alumnae chapters of Delta Gamma met at their chapter house last evening.

The first opening meeting of the South Side circle was held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Piper.

Miss Harriet Cook left last Saturday afternoon for New York, from which point she will sail next week for San Juan, Puerto Rico. She expects to

H. Herpolsheimer Co

MORE radical price reductions—still greater value giving are necessary to put present stocks where we want them for the holiday selling. Hence these figures.

NEW WEARING APPAREL.

There's no question about the superiority of our fur showing superior in quantity, variety and real worth to any ever presented to Lincoln people. Watch for important announcements.

Fur Scarfs upward from 97c
 Fur Collarettes from $1.25
 Misses' and children's $5.00 plaid capes, the clearing price, each. $1.97
 A sample lot of 50 fur-trimmed jackets for women, the new styles, odd sizes, to close out . . . HALF PRICE
 Women's heavy beaver jackets, velvet collar, rhadame serge lining, castor, blue and black, tight fitting, each $5.00
 New fleece lined wrappers, worth $1.35, the clearing price, each 97c
 $5.00 taffeta silk waists, each $2.97

NEW MILLINERY.

TRIMMED HATS—We're in constant touch with the fashion centers and receive something new every day.

Trimmed hats from $20.00 down to 97c
 Cloth caps and Tam O'Shanters for boys and girls, all colors, worth 25c, clearing price. . . 5c
 Broadcloth caps for boys and girls, all colors, 75c goods, each 49c
 Colored ostrich feathers, 3 in a bunch, per bunch. 49c

H. Herpolsheimer Co

LINCOLN, NEBR.

spend the winter there with her brother, who is a special deputy of the customs service for the island.

Miss Turner left on Saturday for Chicago, where she will continue her vocal studies this winter.

Mrs. Sarah F. Harris and Miss Harris have gone to Chicago to visit Mr. George B. Harris and Mr. John F. Harris.

Mrs. Bulger, who was recently a guest of Mrs. Fitzgerald in Lincoln, gave a luncheon this week in Chicago in honor of Mrs. D. E. Thompson.

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

The Beta Theta Pi fraternity gave an informal dance last Saturday evening at their chapter house.

Miss Boyer of York will visit with Mrs. Ode Rector this week.

Miss Alice Maitland of Denver is the guest of Miss Helen Welch.

Friends of Mrs. A. E. Hargreave will be pleased to hear that she is recovering from the operation performed last Monday.

Miss Barker of Portland, Oregon, is visiting Miss Houtz.

Mrs. J. W. Macdonald was assisted on Thursday, her day at home, by Mrs. Collier of Washington.

Mrs. Garton entertained informally fifty ladies at a Kensington Wednesday afternoon. Thursday Mrs. Garton gave a second Kensington.

Miss E. Hel Ames entertained a few of the young people of the high school last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. John Dorgan entertained informally last Saturday evening at cards.

Mrs. Turner, sister of Mr. Macdonald and Miss Fannie Turner, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald next week.

Mrs. Perry of New York is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dorgan entertained informally at cards last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Rose Curtis entertained the Cheese and Cracker club for Mrs. Mallalieu and Miss Sweet Thursday afternoon.

Les Bohemiennes spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald Wednesday.

Miss Burnham's host of friends will be interested to read the following charming description, taken from one of her letters, of her journey to Ober-Ammergau and of the Passion Play: "So, as long as I am on the subject of my recent trip, which was all so delightful, think I might as well continue."