KID GLOVES AND MITTENS

FOR XMAS.

NOTE—Customers wishing to purchase kid gloves for their friends for Xmas gifts and not knowing their size, can have the same exchanged and fitted after the Holidays.

It seems hardly necessary to acquaint the people of Lincoln and vicinity as to the makes of gloves we carry. Our immense business attests to the fact that we do the most successful Kid Glove business in the city. Such makes of Kid Gloves as P. & L., "Monarch," and Reynier are sufficient guarantee as to the quality, style and workmanship of same.

A fare and one third on all railroads within 150 miles of Lincoln for the Grand Opera, December 12. Here's a chance to come in and do your Xmas trading cheaply. Watch for four page circular, full of interesting items—money savers, too.

Carter, McClelland of Denver, Watkins, Garten, Webster, Harley, Cochrane, Moore, Hamilton, Belle Hamilton, Polk, Woods, Daniels, Honeywell, Margaret Honeywell, Weesner and Hunt; Messrs. Tukey, Shedd, Lau, Hays, Rainey, De White, Crandall, Smith, Walsh, Mirlan, Fitzgerald, Holt, Holmes, Johnson, Korsmeyer, Whitman, and Boyse, Wyer and Laurence of Minneapolis.

Beta Theta Pi gave a theatre party Wednesday evening, November twenty-eighth, in honor of the members of that fraternity from Minnesota. Afterwards a smoker was given at the fraternity rooms. The guests were Professors Anderson and Nicholson; Messrs Joyce, Montgomery, Tate, Carter, Josylin, Thompson, Patton, Uyer, Fee, Buckbee, Fuesen, Palmer and Burgelans of Minneapolis, Platte and Beecher of Sioux City, Rain of Fairbury, Hendry of North Platte, and Williams of Columbus.

Six members from Delta Gamma from Minnesota came down for the game and were entertained during their stay in Lincoln at the chapter house. They were: Misses Humphries, Carter, McClelland, Smith and Kinsley. Miss Haecker, an alumnae member of the Lincoln chapter was also here. A chafing dish party was given at the chapter house after the foot ball game in honor of the guests.

Sixteen members of Sigma Chi from Minnesota were entertained at the local chapter house during their stay in Lincoln. On Wednesday night, November twenty-eighth, a smoker was given and on Thanksgiving day a dinner was given for the guests from Minnesota and the alumni and active chapter. In the evening the members of Sigma Chi who played on the teams were entertained informally at the chapter house.

Mrs. John S. Finch gave a delightful card party last Saturday afternoon. The rooms were tastefully decorated with palms and flowers. Mrs. Finch was assisted by Mesdames Sharp, Bushnell and J. C. Seacrest. The guests were: Mesdames Faulkner, Hill, Perry, Wylie, Traphagen, Bruner, Ward, Wolcott, Rudge, Hubbard, Harpham, Richardson, Jaques, Scott, Rainbolt, Sharp, Spencer, Thompson, Seacrest, Casebeer, Lee, McCane, Manahan, Marple, Bryan, Taylor, Eubank, Bushnell, Kelley, Rissler, Guenzel, Wilson, George Rissler, Woods, Sanderson, Mullen, Kennard, W. Davis, Davis, Crandall, Wilkinson, Garoutte, Le Gore, Latschaw, Van Brunt, Usher, Stephens, Metcalf, Warner, Tilton, Turner, Armstrong, Barbour, Holyoke, Harpham, A. E. Holyoke, Hutchins, Folsom, England, Cook, Phillips, and Aitken; Misses Harpham, Tibbets and Rissler.

Mr. Yates was surprised by a number of his friends on Friday evening, November 30th, who came to help him celebrate his fortieth birthday. Each one told a story and was limited to the burning of a fagot. A very pleasant evening was spent. Mr. Yates was presented with a handsome rocking chair by Mr. Shively in behalf of the railway postal clerks.

Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority gave a euchre party at the home of Miss Louise Hargreaves in honor of the Misses Traek of Minnesota. The invited guests were: Misses Hays, Edmiston, Blanch Em-mons, Hammond, Anna Hammond, Dorothy Griggs, Waitland, Ratliff, Bennett, Mabel Bennett, Laura Houtz, Bess Barker, Margaret Whedon, Mabel Richards, Outcalt, Jessie Outcalt, Gahan, F. nke, Marion Cornell of Omaha, Adoloyd Whiting and Dimmick. Messrs. Kind, Hays, Shedd, Farnsworth, Payne, I. Raymond, Stein, Wehn, Ray De Putron, Johnson, Stark, Edmiston, Ricketts, Watkins, Crandall, Cowgill, Williams, Maitland and Arthur Jaynes of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairfield, of Rutland, Vt., visited Mr. Fairfield's sister, Mrs. A. W. Field, and his brothers, Messrs Ernest and John Fairfield on Wednesday. They came to attend the Fairfield-Woolworth wedding at Omaha on Tuesday and returned to the east after only one day in Lincoln. Mr. Fairfield is the editor and owner of the Rutland Evening News. He has won distinction in the newspaper world. Mr. Fairfield went from the west to the east and has created a prosperous business in a community made up of rather a rigid and old-fashioned people averse to new methods. Mr. Fairfield was a student in the University while his father was chancellor, and his many friends regret that a newspaper notice was their only intimation of his arrival and departure.

Reverend J. M. Reade gave the annual Thanksgiving banquet to the ushers of the pro-cathedral, November the twenty-ninth. Most of the ushers attended the university and the decorations were scarlet and cream with chrysanthemums, smilax and palms. A basket of chrysanthemums containing souvenir cards for each guest was sus-ended over the table. Several ladies from Minnesota and also Misses Hooper, Sutton and Mrs. Burus assisted in serving. The guests were: Messrs. Ledwith, Krouin, Barry, Fleming, Sutton, Nicholls, Gara, Gibbons, Rohman, Morrow, Riordan, Hyland, Fisher, Neville, Golden and Boetcher.

The following from the Omaha World Herald will interest Lincoln friends of the groom who is a brother of Mrs. A. W. Field and of Messrs. John M. and E. B. Fairfield: "Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Meliora C. Woolworth, daughter of Mr. J. M. Woolworth, and Mr. Edward M. Fairfield. Trinity cathedral was beautifully decorated for the occasion, palms and American Beauty roses being used in profusion. About fifty relatives and intimate friends were present, all of whom were seated in the chancel, which was screened from the body of the church by garlands of southern smilax. Bishop Williams performed the ceremony, assisted by Dean Fair. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white satin, elaborately trimmed with heavy silk hand-made lace. She wore a tulle veil and carried a large bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Emily Wakeley as maid of honor was daintily gowned in green crepe de chene. She carried a tulle muff and wore a flower hat of panne velvet. Mr. Clifford Smith acted as best man. The ushers were: Dr. Bridges, Mr. Charles Howe and Mr. Charles Hull."

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Payson Ewing and Miss Alice Cowdery gave a very pretty party on Monday evening in honor of Major and Mrs. F. J. W. Stoney of the British army in India. Palms
