Last Week's Functions.

The eighteenth anniversary of the founding of Alpha Epsilon chapter of Sigma Chi was fittingly celebrated on Friday night by a banquet at the Lincoln hotel. About forty alumni and active "Sigs" sat down to an elaborate eight-course dinner, accompanied by orchestral music. The Hon. Paul F. Clark acted as toastmaster of the evening, and gained much applause by the witty manner in which he called for the following toasts: "Alpha Epsilon," H. D. Landis; "The Western Sigs," A. A. Bischof; "The Alumni of Alpha Epsilon," Hon. J. H. Mockett; "Odds and Ends," Hon. Jacob V. Wolfe; "The Hoosier Sigs," Prof. C. R. Richards; "Duty of Alumni to Active Chapter," Dr. J. F. Stevens; "The White Cross," Hon. E. H. Hinshaw; "Sigma Chi in the Late War," Hon. George D. Meiklejohn, assistant secretary of war; "Unpublished House Documents," Hon. David H. Mercer. Those present were Hon. George D. Meiklejohn, assistant secretary of war; Hon. David H. Mercer, Hon. E. H. Hinshaw, Hon. Paul F. Clark, Hon. Jacob V. Wolfe, Hon. J. H. Mockett, jr., Prof. C. R. Richards, Dr. J. F. Stevens, Frederick Shepherd, H. C. Eddy, Henry Shannon, Joe Shannon, C. W. Mayne, C. S. Young, Charles A. Patterson, A. A. Bischof, V. P. Sheldon, L. R. Ewart, H. D. Landis, L. B. Stuhr, William P. Fitzgerald, R. D. Montgomery, R. R. Ramey, O. G. Horne, Fred Hawksworth, F. D. Stratton, D. W. Hansen, R. H. Hinshaw, J. L. Van Berg, H. P. Patterson, J. A. Kees, H. C. Arends and W. C. Saxton.

The Sans Souci club gave one of their enjoyable dancing parties on Thursday night at Walsh hall. It was an "emigrant" party and the guests all appeared in the costumes of those just arriving from other countries. The motley gathering of pretended Swedes, Germans and Russians afforded infinite amusement. The following participated in the fun: Messrs. and Meedames Jarrett, Halley, Carpenter, Mead, Ludwig, J. Stephens; Misses Ball, Barrick, Morse, Robinson, Wilson, Biltgen, Deming, Gregory, Chambers, Dalby, Donahue, Clinton, Anthony; Messrs. Ringer, Woodruff, Painter, Ewart, Morse, Anderson, Evans, Hawley, Chambers, Patterson, Swain, De Noon and Tucker.

The active and alumnae members of Kappa Alpha Theta entertained informally on Thursday night at the home of Miss Katherine Agnew in honor of the Misses Crouse. Miss Wilson was also a guest. The young ladies served a chafing dish supper and with dancing and other impromptu amusements, passed a very jolly evening.

Les Bohemiennes and husbands celebrated the birthday of Mrs. F. W. Brown. Mrs. Brown had been absent in Omaha during the week and had received no hint of the visit. A beautiful silver candelabrum was presented to Mrs. Brown as a reminder of the event. A delicious chafing dish lunch was prepared from the good things provided by the members in their picnic baskets.

The Tuesday Night club gave the first dance of the season last week at Walsh hall. Parties will now be given once in two weeks during the remainder of the winter. These will be as informal as possible. Those present Tuesday night were Misses Nance, Burruss, Bess Burruss, Chapin, Morgan, Jenkins, Wirt, Agnew, Hargreaves, Henry, Cole, Paddock, Clark, Daniels, Hammond; Messrs. Anderson, Ames, Ricketts, Marlay, Morrison, Brown, Drain, McCreery, Andrews, Norval, Raymond, Turpin, Clark, Orr and Schick.

Mr. George Hippee Rogers and Miss Anna Rogers have returned to the city after a six months' European trip. The greater part of the summer was spent among the fjords and mountains of Norway, "the land of the midnight sun." Later they saw the Passion Play at Oberammergau, made a tour through Tyrol and returned to Paris in time to see the close of the Exposition and the enthusiastic reception accorded President Kruger.

Lambda Pi chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon on Friday evening at the chapter house informally banqueted Willard Clapp, who has just returned from the biennial convention at Boston. After an elegant spread, the members listened to the following toasts, George Bartlett acting as symposiarch: "To Our Founder," Charles Stewart; "Photonoteros ek Asephas," Guy M. Cowgill; "Loyalty," W. Hugh Edmiston; "In Saseiety," George Shidler; "Violets," William P. Wallace; "Purple and Gold," H. J. Klinge; "Boston, 1900," Charles Willard Clapp.

Omaha Notes.

Two of Omaha's old families were united Thursday evening by the marriage of Miss Della Chandler and Mr. John Patrick at the residence of Miss Chandler's aunt, Mrs. J. J. Brown. Only about thirty-five guests witnessed the ceremony, no one outside the two families and their relatives being present except Mr. and Mrs. Myron Learned, Miss Laura Morse and Doctor Roy Crummer. The Rev. T. J. Mackay officiated, the ceremony being very simple and performed at seven o'clock promptly. The orchestra ushered the bridal party in to the strain of the Lohengrin march, which was changed to Schubert's Serenade during the ceremony. Miss Chandler was attended by her cousin, Miss Jeanie Brown, who wore a dotted yellow batiste cut low and made quite simply. She carried a large bouquet of violets. Mr. Robert Patrick acted as best man for his brother, the groom, and Mr. J. J. Brown gave the bride away in the place of her father, whose health would not permit of his presence. The bride in a soft white gown of crepe de chine elaborately inserted with bands of chiffon lengthwise of the skirt and around the train was a charming picture as she stood in front of the palm banked place where they received congratulations after the ceremony. She carried an armful of American Beauties and wore the veil of tulle which is so much more becoming than the most beautiful lace veil ever is. The yoke and sleeves of the bodice were
