...Perfection...

Absolute perfection is often claimed for shoes that are simply stylish. Shoes that are plenty stylish enough when new often lack durability and comfort. All our shoes are good. The higher priced ones are absolutely perfect in every detail. The cheaper ones, of course, can not be.

When you come to us you get what you pay for and you know what you get. A discount on all leather goods this week.

On Thursday evening Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Ward gave a supper in compliment to Mesdames C. C. Robertson and Geo. E. Shipman of Chicago. The company was seated at three tables the appointments of which were in exquisite taste with a different color scheme at each. One table was done in pink with roses for a centre piece; another was in yellow, daffodils being used, and the third was in green and white, the decorations being ferns and hyacinths. A dainty menu was served. Dr. and Mrs. Ward's guests were Mesdames Robertson and Shipman, Professor and Mrs. Barbour, Professor and Mrs. W. G. L. Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Bessey, Judge and Mrs. Reese, Professor and Mrs. Caldwell, Professor and Mrs. Hodgman, Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott, Professor and Mrs. Kimball, Messrs. and Mesdames A. J. Sawyer, H. H. Wilson and J. W. Winger.

Mrs. Silas A. Holcomb opened her beautiful new house for a luncheon given Wednesday at one o'clock for about forty ladies. The decorations throughout the house were pink, bridesmaids roses being used in vases in the drawing room, and on mantel and sideboard in the sitting room and dining room where the luncheon was served, and a rose was at each plate. The menu was daintily served in five courses at six round tables. Invitations were extended to Mesdames W. J. Bryan, Poynter, Charles Bryan, Reese, Welch, Stein, Witter, Hill, Richardson, Casebeer, Coffin, Garoutte, Rowick, Allen, McCreery, Winger, Miller, R. E.
