

superintendent of the industrial school at Kearney. He is a very well known and active politician. Mr. and Mrs. Mallalieu's wedding tour will be an inspection of the different reformatory institutions of Iowa. They return to Kearney about February first.

Last evening Judge and Mrs. Field gave an "Author's Carnival," it being a series of thirty-six questions each to be answered by the name of an author. On the first page of the leaflet was the following introduction:

Some authors thought in chilly weather
To hold a carnival together;
And let it not provoke a smile
Co operation was their style.
The mingled elements were good;
The preparations understood;
The work effected with great care,
The banquet was a grand affair.
By notables the board was graced,
And all was in most perfect taste;
The names of guests I will not tell
As I'm sure you know them very well.

Following is a list of the questions:

1. In what season was this carnival held?
2. Who admitted the guests?
3. What two authors were decorators?
4. The name of what historian best described the Assembly?
5. How did most of the guests look?
6. Who was the tallest guest?
7. What two were complimented upon their appearances?
8. Whose face excited sympathy?
9. What two were in excellent spirits?
10. For what ailment did a guest decline?
11. What royal personage sat at table?
12. By whom was he attended?
13. In the costume of what nation?
14. In what fashion did he dress his hair?
15. What three Church dignitaries were present?
16. In what colors were they dressed?
17. What trades were represented?
18. What prevented crowding the parlors?
19. Who had general supervision of the supper?
20. What was in evidence of the profession?
21. When these accidents occurred what exclamation summoned a trio of authors?
22. What three guests supplied the fuel?
23. What three gentlemen furnished games?
24. What three brought meat?
25. Who brought fish?
26. How was it found to be?
27. Who furnished sugar?
28. How was the coffee?
29. How was the cake served?
30. By whom were the guests quickly waited on?
31. Who sharpened the knife for carving?
32. By whom was a message sent to absent guests?
33. What did this gathering do for the hearts of those present?
34. In leaving the table what did many guests require?
35. What did the rest want to be?
36. With what do the guests look toward the next year's meeting?

After the carnival a luncheon was served. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Bessey, Bushnell, Caldwell, Paul Clark, Frost, Hodgman, W. E. Hardy, Manss, Hinman, Roscoe Pound, Stein, Snell, Ward, H. H. Wilson, W. O. Jones, Whitmore, Sawyer, Lamb, E. T. Hartley, Wharton, Auld; Misses Pound, Pound, Tremaine, Herron; Mrs. Herron and Mr. Bisop.

Pi Beta Phi gave a kensington Saturday at the chapter house. The guests were Misses Helen Dolson, May Jeary and Grace Hays. Members present were Anne Stuart, Lennie Stuart, Barber, Lansing, McGahey, Ashmun, Henry, Thomas, Andrews, Robinson, Sedgwick, McPheeley, Thorpe, Montgomery, Heacock, Morrill, Jussen, Marshall, Buruss and Bees Burruss.

A hotel banquet was given last Saturday night at the Lincoln to the football team by the athletic board, the old and new managers and the coach. Professor Caldwell was toastmaster and Rev. Manss, Messrs. Westover, Tukey and Wyler responded to toasts. The other guests were Professor Richards, Professor Emerson, Coach Booth, Melford, captain of the '98 team, manager elect Cowgill, Hewitt, Leadwith, Librarian Wyer and Westover of the athletic board and the following players: Worel, Eager, Cook, McKillip, Ryan, Johnson, Bender, Dassenbrock, Koehler, Crandall, Voss, Ringer, Cortelyou, Raymond, Nelson, Drain and Best. Four members of the team were absent, Captain Brew, Pillsbury, Montgomery and Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Morrison and Miss Barr entertained the Kishmet club last evening at the home of the latter. A two course luncheon was served after the games. The drawing room was decorated with red roses, the hall, library and dining room with pink.

Mrs. S. E. Cosford gave a kensington yesterday for the ladies of the G. T. C. C. Those present were Mesdames, Anderson, Shepherd, Smith, Church, Dye, Lloyd and Scott.

Mrs. F. W. Bartruff entertained the New Book review club on Wednesday. Mrs. Kelley reviewed David Corson and Mrs. Stonebraker gave a sketch of the author's life. Toasts on Queen Victoria's life were responded to over the teacups.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Hill gave a dinner Tuesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tibbetts of Hastings, Judge and Mrs. A. S. Tibbetts, Misses Anna Tibbetts and Nora Miller.

Delta Upsilon gave an informal dance Friday evening. Mrs. C. W. Chambers chaperoned Misses Hazlett, Harper, Henry, Howland, McHenry, Montgomery, Parks, Polk, Trickey and Miller; Messrs. Clinton, Huff, Chambers, Elliott, Benedict, Wilson, Bliss, States, Strahr, Kanzler, Brookings and Lester.

The Tuesday Night club gave its regular fortnightly dance at Courier hall. Those present were Misses Richards, Garten, Clara Hammond, Nance, Thorpe, Henry, Woodward, Agnew, Gahan, Thomas, Chapin, Haggard, Bonnell; Messrs. Anderson, Ricketts, Ames Marlay, Schick, Turpin, Cartwill, Raymond, Drain, Brown, McCreery, Orr, Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clark gave a brilliant dinner party Tuesday evening in honor of Major and Mrs. F. J. W. Stoney and Mrs. Charles Fosselman. Covers were laid for thirty. The decorations were in red roses and red carnations. The menu was served in nine courses. After the banquet Mrs. George E. Shipman of Chicago sang with perfect shading a group of songs.

Mr. Bignell has the sympathy of the very large number of his friends in Lincoln on account of the serious illness of his mother in Denver, where he has been detained by her illness.

A party of young ladies spent last evening pleasantly at a masquerade given at the home of Miss Grace Edmiston. The decorations were pink and white, carnations being the chosen flower. Light refreshments were served. Following were present: Misses Ruth Haskell, Minnie Morrill, Nellie Ingalls, Fay Anderson, Minnie Hart, Lulu Fullerton, Ada Cook, Katharine Bixby, Mary Higgins, Grace Powell, Cora McGrew, Lena Jeary, Grace Edmiston and Master Wardner Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Friend gave a card party last evening. Forty-five persons were present and six handed euchre was played. White carnations, palms and ferns were used for decorating. A luncheon was served after the games.

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

Mrs. Frank Lahr will give a kensington on Friday, February 1st, and a card party on the 2nd.

Mrs. Lowman of McCook and Mrs.

WINTER WEARING

APPAREL AT HALF.

Here's the final price reducing, the limit to which the remaining winter wear is to be cut. They can't stay here long at this rate, and at such figures it will pay you to consider future needs.

Any and all jackets in the house, women's or misses' sizes, on sale now at...HALF OFF
All the furs,—capes, jackets, scarfs and collarettes on sale now at.....HALF OFF
All the suits worth $15.00 and more on sale now at.....HALF OFF

NEW WALKING SKIRTS—An advance spring showing is here now—a vast collection of the various correct things for the coming season—many novelties. You ought to see them.

H. Herzpolsheimer & Co

LINCOLN, NEBR.

ANNE RIVETT, HAIR-DRESSING SHAMPOOING

Manicuring, Chic Ornaments for the Coiffure, Switches, Chevelures cleaned. Tonics, Powders, Hairpins Everything to make the head and face of a pretty woman prettier. : : : : : Telephone 38.

YOU WILL ALWAYS FIND

The best of everything in the grocery line at the

Good Luck Grocery.

C. M. SEITZ, 1107 O street, Telephone 628

Deutsch (born Schwab) of Horton, Kas., are visiting Mrs. Schwab and Mrs. Mitchell.

Mrs. R. O. Phillips is spending the rest of the winter with friends in Norfield, Mississippi.

Mrs. Davison (born Gates) of Denver, is visiting Mrs. A. S. Raymond

Mr. and Mrs. Royal O. Babcock are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Babcock.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Raymond gave a card party last evening.

Miss Cora Crosse of Fairbury is the guest of Miss Charlotte Whedon.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reese, on January 19th, a daughter.

The Round Table met with Mr. Wright on Monday night. Mr. Geisthardt discussed the Nicaraguan canal.

The annual promenade by the junior class of the State university will be given February 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank White of Platte-mouth are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates.

Mrs. H. E. Lewis gave a cobweb party Saturday for her two daughters, Helen and Ruth.

Mrs. W. A. Green and Gratia Green are visiting in St. Louis.

Miss Polk gave a luncheon for Mrs. Deutsch on Thursday. Her guests were alumae members of Delta Gamma.