Omaha Notes.

The reception given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Dietz for Judge and Mrs. Munger was an elaborate and very large affair, eight hundred and fifty invitations having been issued for it. No trouble was spared to make it one of the events of the season, and from eight to eleven the house was thronged from the drawing room on the first floor to the billiard room on the third, where punch was served, and smoking rooms were cosily arranged for the comfort of the men. The piazzas on two sides of the house were enclosed in canvas and turned into a promenade. A red carpet covered the entire floor of the porch, and couches, rugs and easy chairs gave it the appearance of a drawing room, while several gas radiators lent their aid toward making it comfortably warm. Inside, the rooms were gorgeously decorated with flowers, which were used in generous profusion on mantels, piano and tables, a new rose of exquisite beauty being used in the room where the host and hostess received with Judge and Mrs. Munger. The dining room was a bower of pink from the centre of the table, which was banked with pink roses, to the buffet, which was a mass of the same flowers. An orchestra played in the hall up stairs all during the evening. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Dietz were Messrs. and Mesdames Colpetzer, Holdrege, A. S. Carter, Victor White, Al Kinsler, Harry Wilkins, O. W. Dunn, Kirkendale and Miss Swobe.

Mrs. W. J. Connell gave a buffet luncheon last Saturday in honor of Mrs. Fairfield. The decorations were red and tirely carried out in carnations and ribbon. Assisting Mrs. Connell were Mesdames Rogers and A. C. Smith in the dining room, alternating with Mesdames Luther Kountze and Lyman. Assisting in the other rooms were Mesdames Barkalow, Deuel, Greene, Lehmer, Grable, Connor; Misses McKenna, Emily Wakeley, Lindsay, Moore, Brown and Doane. Those who assisted were served with luncheon before the guests arrived, an arrangement which was greatly appreciated by them.

General Manderson has been confined to his home with the grip for some days and is suffering from an attack of throat trouble.

Mrs. H. P. Whitmore returned Wednesday from Alton, Ill., where she was called by the death of her mother, Mrs. Wilhelmina Trenchery.

General Manderson of this city has a very admirable collection of china, not large, but full of interest and dainty bits gathered here and there throughout the world. One of the historical pieces and of considerable value is a plate made at the time that it was thought the national capitol might be placed at Mt. Vernon. On the face is a view of the Capitol as then designed, a plan that was never carried out, and on the reverse under the American arms appears the line, "Mt. Vernon, the seat of government of the United States." The hue and cry raised by this event, including the allegations that Washington was trying to foster a real estate boom, caused a final settlement upon ground in Maryland afterwards known as the District of Columbia.

The card party given lately by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Remington was so thoroughly enjoyable that several of the guests were moved to go and do likewise, with the result that there have been two similar affairs this week. Mrs. Remington's cosy rooms were filled with roses and narcissus and the game of six handed euchre was participated in by about thirty six guests, who were Messrs. and Mesdames Rogers, Wheeler, McCormick, Paxton, jr., Blackwell, Beeson, Sprague, Greene, Kirkendale, Lehmer, Reed, Coles, Chase, Page, Robinson, Redick; Misses Sharp and Ida Sharp. The prizes for the women were handsome cut glass vases, won by Mesdames Chase, Greene and Miss Ida Sharp, while Messrs. Beeson, Rogers and Paxton took away three very pretty beer steins.

In accordance with action taken at recent meetings of the American Bar association, it was decided to separate February 4th to celebrate the centennial anniversary of the appointment of Chief Justice John Marshall to the supreme court of the United States. The Omaha Bar association announced public commemorative exercises in the First Congregational church. An ad-
