SOCIETY

Mount Emerald, the stately Fitzgerald home was the scene of a gay party Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald entertained the young people of the smart set in honor of Miss Sweet of Buffalo. The house was decorated with American Beauties and elegant refreshments were served after cards. Miss Sweet has been in Lincoln several months as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Crittenden, and has endeared herself to the young people who will regret her departure on Saturday for her eastern home. Mrs. Fitzgerald's guests Thursday evening were: Misses Sweet, Welch, Putnam, Hollowbush, Burr, Hargreaves, Louise Hargreaves, Carson, Crouse, Tukey, Louise Tukey, Cole, Outcalt, Jessie Outcalt, Claire Funke, Regna Harod, Cochrane, Helen Woods, Marshall, Gahan, Nance, Hammond, Clara Hammond, Hays, Harwood; Messrs. Holmes, Bartlett, Raymond, Isaac Raymond, Wehn, Hanson, C. Y. Smith, Honeywell, Tukey, Stein, Gregory, Montgomery, Butler, Hays, Baldwin, Joyce, McCreery, Stewart, Walsh, Haecker, Manchester, Crandall, Buckstaff, Anderson.

Arrangements for the benefit concert to be given Miss Holmes, are being consummated. About one hundred ladies met on Wednesday afternoon in Walsh hall. Mr. Neal called the meeting together and reported that boxes had been sold to Mr. Thompson, Mr. MacDonald, Mr. Leonard and others. Nearly every woman present took tickets to sell. Miss Holmes has a wonderful voice sweet, powerful and sympathetic. The possibilities of cultivation are unlimited. Miss Holmes sang a group of songs by MacDowell and an old English song by Parker. There is no reason why Miss Holmes should not be numbered among the few great American singers. In helping Miss Holmes to the first part of a musical education, Lincoln has the honor to help develop that marvelous thing, a great human voice. The unanimity with which the sale of tickets is responded to shows that Miss Holmes' talent is already recognized.

The local chapter of Phi Kappa Psi gave the sixth annual banquet Saturday evening at the chapter house. The toasts: "Phi Kappa Psi in Swaddling Clothes," J. J. Ledwith; "A Noonday Glare," W. R. Gere; "In Bonds Close Knit," President W. G. Ayleworth, Cotner university.

Rehearsals for "The National Flower" an operetta to be given some time shortly after Easter week, have been held on the afternoons and evenings of the past week. Interest among the society ladies especially has grown with the extent of preparation and as neither expense nor time is being spared in staging the operetta, and procuring first class talent, the entertainment promises to be a very enjoyable one. The fact that Professor Hagenow has been engaged as musical director, and that Professor Adamsky will develop the orchestration is sufficient warrant that the musical part of the program will be high class and therefore pleasing to the lovers of good music in Lincoln and they are legion. Professor Richeson and Professor Clemens Movius have the direction of the dancing and singing parts, assisted by Mrs. Anderson. A number of specialties will afford a pleasing variety, and of these specialties the Delsarte march in which twelve society ladies robed a la Trilby holding bunches of lilies and led by La Svengali, promises to be a favorite number.

At the regular meeting of the Saturday Night club the dancers were: Misses Putnam, Cole, Garten, Jackson, Burruss, Hays, Burns, Hayes of Omaha, Henry, Hamilton, Macomber, Nance, Dimwick, Messrs. Anderson, Marlay, Ames, Sherran, Watkins, Matson, Crandall, Kelley of Omaha, Bartlett, Baldwin, Paine, Andrews.
