SOCIETY

One of the most delightful musicales of the season was given on Wednesday by Mrs. John M. Stuart. The house was beautifully decorated with lilacs, pink roses and white carnations. The guests were received by Mrs. Stuart and her nieces, Miss Viola Stuart and Miss Ruth Stuart of Ottumwa, Iowa. Mesdames Grupe, Axtell, Hitchcock, Munger and Miss Emily Stuart received the guests in the drawing room. Up stairs Mrs. W. F. Schwind served punch under a canopy of pale blue ribbons. Misses McFall and Moore assisted her. Mrs. Schwind herself was gowned in blue. After the musical numbers Misses Tuttle, Brown, Mickey, Scott and Burbank served sorbet. The programs were beautifully printed. On the first page this verse appeared:

"Though better than song be silence,
Yet, ah! that song could convey
To December, news of the beauty
That blooms on the hills of May."

The program:

Am Meer, Schubert-Liszt
 Miss Stuart
 A May Morning, Denza
 Miss Lulu A. Cooke
 Mazurka Caprice, Boehm
 Miss May Belle Hagenow

Cards have been received from Mr. and Mrs. John P. Maule of Denver announcing the marriage of their daughter Florence, to Mr. Frederick Curtis Cooley, on the twenty-ninth of this month at St. Mark's church, Denver, Colorado. Both Mr. Cooley and Miss Maule are very well known and much loved in Lincoln. Mr. Cooley was graduated from the State university and Miss Maule spent her childhood and early young womanhood here. Miss Florence is the younger daughter. Her older sister is a very successful newspaper writer, inheriting literary talent from her mother, who is a talented story writer. Mr. Cooley has many friends and the prospects of the young couple are bright.

The engagement is announced of Miss Helen Eddy Woods, daughter of Colonel and Mrs F. M. Woods, to Mr. Archibald Louis Haecker. The marriage will be celebrated in the First Congregational church on the third of June, and will be followed by a reception at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Woods. Mr. Haecker is a well known fraternity man and occupies a responsible position with the experiment station at the State university. Miss Woods is well known in society and university circles.

The Faculty Women's club held the last meeting of the year on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bessey. In the evening a reception to the men of the faculty was given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Edgren. The guests were received by Mrs. Bessey, Mrs. Reese,

The season of 1900-1901 of the Matinee Musicale will terminate with the reception of the president, Mrs. E. Lewis Baker, on Monday, May the thirteenth, at three P. M., at the residence of Mrs. H. M. Cooke, Thirty-sixth and Holdrege streets. No cards are issued for this function, the president depending upon verbal notices issued the club at the last meeting and to the newspapers for proper notification to members. All connected with the club, either as active, associate, student or chorus members are included in the invitation without individual notice, and the president hopes that the full membership of the club will be present. A brief business session will be held in order to receive the reports of the treasurer and of the delegates to the biennial meeting of the Federated Musical
