

letters of greeting were read from many absent members. Eighteen out of the seventy-two members of the class are now married. Miss Compton was elected class secretary.

The first reunion of the class of '91 since graduation was held at the home of Miss Anna Rodgers on Wednesday noon. The table was decorated in scarlet and cream, and the university colors were also used on the place cards. The toasts were Shakspearean quotations and were responded to by Mrs. Eleanor Williams Sisson of California, Miss Rosa Bouton, Mr. F. E. Bishop and Mr. R. O. Williams. The officers chosen are: President, Miss Anna Rodgers; secretary and treasurer, Mr. F. E. Bishop; corresponding secretary, Miss Rosa Bouton; chairman of social committee, Mr. R. O. Williams.

Sixteen members of the class of '95 were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Clark Oberlies on Wednesday. The decorations were beautiful and elaborate, and were in the class colors, gold and white. After luncheon, Miss Olivia Pound, class historian, read regrets from the members unable to be present, after which the following guests responded to toasts: Doctor C. C. Eugberg, Mrs. Harry Harley, Miss Alice C. Hunter, Mrs. Frank Teal Riley and Mr. Fred Lyons. The members of the class who were present: Misses Gere, Clark, McCrosky, Linthy, Smith and Mrs. Emory Hardy; Messrs. Woods and Holmes, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Oberlies.

Miss Gladys Henry entertained thirty members of the class of 1900 on Wednesday evening. The class was formally organized, and the following officers were elected for life: President, Mr. Fred Williams; vice president, Miss Sarah Muir; secretary and treasurer, Miss Gladys Henry, and historian, Miss Grace Rushton. A record of the class will be kept by the card system, and a meeting will be held every year. At the close of the business meeting ice cream and cake were served.

The alumni banquet was held in Grant memorial hall on Wednesday evening. Mr. Fred G. Hawxby, '99, was toastmaster. Following is the list of toasts: "The Rivals," Mrs. Elinor Williams Sisson, '91; "Boulders," Judge C. M. Skiles, '92; "Picnic," Miss Elizabeth C. Field, '93; "—" Mr. G. F. Fisher, '94; "Old Century Ideals," Miss Katharine Melick, '95; "Peculiar Prevailing Proclivities," Mr. Ralph C. Roper, '00; "The First Fruits of the Century," Miss Edith Abbott, '01.

An excellent portrait of Dean Edgren was presented to the university by the class of 1901. It is a bust view three feet long and two wide, in a broad gilt frame, and hangs north of the librarian's desk in the library building.

The active and alumnae chapter of Pi Beta Phi met on Monday morning at the home of Miss Lois Burruss to administer the pledging ceremony of the fraternity to Misses Helen Dolson and Bess Burruss of Lincoln, Blanche Meeker of Greenwood, and Katherine Heacock of Falls City. After the ceremony light refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. A. Lindly and Miss Lindly gave a large card party on Monday afternoon. The effective house decorations were roses and palms. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Harley and Misses Whedon and Brooks. Six handed euchre was the entertainment, and Mrs. Casebeer had the highest score. The guests: Meedames L. W. Garoutte, J. L. Kellogg, E. C. Folsom, A. H. Weir, F. W. Hill, H. H. Harley, Roscoe Pound, Charles Sharpe, J. W. Winger, H. M. Casebeer, C. H. Rudge, A. E. Kennard, J. C. Seacrest, B. W. Richards, R. T. Van Brunt, F. T. Harpham, E. L. Baker, George Clark, Charles Hammond, F. M. Blish, C. H. Eubank, J. S. Finch, Walter Davis, S. A. Foster, E. E. Spencer, S. F. Hutchins, E. C. Hardy, D. A. Riesser, C. I. Jones, A. A. Scott, J. E. Hayes, E. P. Ewing, E. H. Barbour, F. M. Fling, A. Nance and Parker; Misses Whedon, Margaret Whedon, Pound, Olivia Pound, Griggs, Hall-ett, Riesser, Hargreaves, Hammond, Nance, Barber and Kirker. Mrs. Lindly and Miss Lindly entertained fifty ladies at a kensington on Wednesday afternoon. Ferns and roses were the decorations, and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hammond have issued invitations to the wedding reception of their daughter, Miss Maude Hammond, to Professor Allen Clemence Fling of Nebraska City. The ceremony will take place on Thursday evening, June twentieth.

The marriage of Miss Eva Newbie Bolshaw to Doctor Alfred O. Peterson of Omaha was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, 131 North Eighteenth street, on Tuesday noon. Palms, roses and carnations formed the decorations in the drawing room; smilax, pink roses and pink candles with pink shades were used in the dining room. A mandolin orchestra played in the upper hall. The ceremony was performed beneath an arch of palms by the Reverend J. Lewis Marsh of All Souls' Unitarian church, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Miss Helen Brown played Mendelssohn's wedding march and Miss Maude Cummings of Tecumseh carried the ring in the heart of a cally lily. Following the ceremony a large reception was given from two till four o'clock. The guests were admitted by Miss Grace Bolshaw and were received in the drawing room by Mr. and Mrs. Bolshaw and Doctor and Mrs. Peterson. Miss Joy Bolshaw and Miss Martha Pierce assisted in the parlors, while Miss Gertrude Brown directed the guests to the dining room. Ices, wafers and confections were served by Misses McConniff, Maude Linder and Helen Brown, and a package of wedding cake tied with ribbon was given to each guest by Miss Gertrude Cooper. Doctor and Mrs. Peterson will be at home at 2526 Parker street, Omaha, after July fifteenth.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sawyer entertained the Pi Beta Phi sorority and its friends on Monday evening. The form of entertainment was novel and original. Cards were given to the guests on which they were requested to specify in order of preference six forms of amusement. Music and dancing proved the most attractive. Musical numbers were called for from Mr. Martin and the Misses Turner, Burruss, Dolson, Kyle, Walker, and Ashmun. Dancing followed and later in the evening dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ransom celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage with an elaborate logomachy party on Monday evening. The house was decorated with pink and white roses and carnations, and the score cards were tied with pink and white ribbons. The refreshments, which were served in two courses, carried out the color scheme; the ice cups were in dainty pink cases and the cakes and wafers were pink. The guests were admitted by Master Dolliver Armstrong and were directed to the dressing rooms by Miss Hazel Walker and Miss Grace Hall. Mrs. Ransom, assisted by her sister, Mrs. McCain, received the guests. Flowers were given instead of prizes. The guests were: Messrs. and Meedames Townsend, Sommerlad, Violet, Hotaling, Smith, Miller, Watkins, Vanderpool, Schwake, De Mange, McCain, Grimes, Constance, Boynton, Tibbetts, Coovey, Humpe and Mathews; Misses Teeter and White; Messrs. Patterson,

RUDGE & GUENZEL CO.

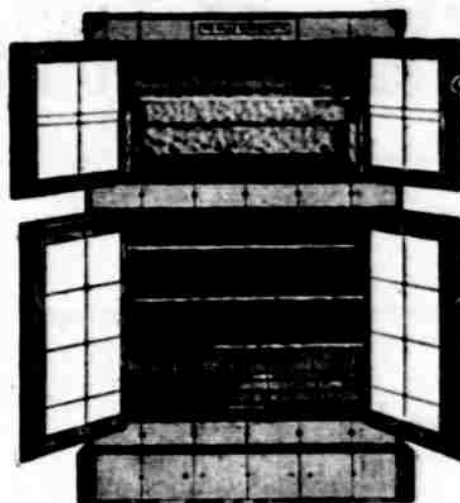

WILKE REFRIGERATORS

Full Porcelain--Porcelain Lined.

1/3 SAVING
of
ICE BILLS

System of Gold Dry Air
Circulation
Preserves purity of Foods.

Saves
Doctor's Bills

PERFECT
CLEANLINESS

PRACTICAL BEAUTY

THE ODOR . . .
and decay found in
'Ice Boxes' impossible
here.

The Wilke is endorsed by physicians, used by the U. S. government, the Armour Company, the Pullman Company and every place that requires the best.

Send for Catalogue.

Lincoln Agents for . . .

Spaulding Golf and Tennis Goods, Tribune and Featherstone Bicycles, Palmer Hammocks, Old Hickory Furniture.

Furniture, Hardware, Carpets, Queensware.

RUDGE & GUENZEL CO.

YOUR SUMMER VACATION . . .

Take a Kodak with you and you can live the old days over. WE SELL 'EM.

D. E. DePUTRON, 117 NO. 11TH ST., LINCOLN

De Putron and Doctor Paine. Mr. and Mrs. Ransom also entertained at logomachy on Wednesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Barras and Mr. Patterson. After the games a two course luncheon was served to the following guests: Messrs. and Meedames Mitchell, Cauer, Garten, Graham, Ritchey, Elwick, Barras, Wise, McCain and Mrs. John Eriemann; Misses Hull, Walker, Richey and Barras; Messrs. Patterson and E. A. Willis.

Miss Bessie Turner gave a linen shower for Miss Kate Snow Walker on Friday morning. The guests were: Mrs. George Riesser and Mrs. Lacey; Misses Lulu Wirt, Edna Carscadden, Grace Reynolds and Belle Reynolds of York; Anna Lytle of Greenwood; Kate Walker, Beth Marshall, Darlene Woodward, Gladys Henry, Jennie Barber, Anne Stuart, Lennie Stuart, Margaret Kyle, Grace Andrews, Katharine Sedgwick and Amy Robinson. Miss Turner also gave a dinner party on Wednesday evening at which the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurlbut Walker, Miss Kate Snow Walker, Mr. Ben Wayland and Misses Grace and Belle Reynolds of York.

At the recent meeting of the Delta Gamma fraternity in Lincoln, the convention voted to Kappa chapter the privilege of electing the national president. The Iowa chapter elects the treasurer for the next four years. It is the custom of Delta Gamma to allow a local chapter to elect the national presi-

- Cycle Photographs
- Athletic Photographs
- Photographs of Babies
- Photographs of Groups
- Exterior Views

Clements

THE PHOTOGRAPHER

129 South Eleventh Street.

CHOCOLATE
BON BONS
For Sale By

RECTOR.