were used in the house decorations, while a curtain of smilax in the bay window formed an effective background for the bridal party during the ceremony. Members of Pi Beta Phi, the bride's fraternity, stretched white satin ribbons through the rooms, forming an aisle for the bride and groom who were preceded by the bridesmaid, Miss Turner, gowned in white over pink, with pink roses, and the best man, Mr. Curtis T. Johnson of Toledo, brother of the groom. The bride's gown was of fine white organdie over white silk, with elaborate trimmings of Mechlin lace. Her bouquet was of bride roses. While the guests were assembling Miss Bessie Turner sang "O Fair, O Sweet and Holy" and Miss Grace Reynolds sang "Spirit of Spring;" after the ceremony Miss Turner and Miss Reynolds favored the guests with two more vocal solos, "Spring is Come" and "The Ould Plaid Shawl." Miss Stuart was accompanist and also played the wedding march from Lohengrin. Refreshments were served by members of Pi Beta Phi. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will spend the summer in the east, after which they will reside in Toledo, Ohio, were Mr. Johnson is practicing law. Mrs. Johnson is a member of the state university classes of '97 and '98. Mr. Johnson was graduated from Brown university in '93, during Chancellor Andrews' administration. One hundred guests were present at the wedding and reception, among whom were the following: Mrs. E. M. Cobb and Misses Reynolds, York; Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Green-slit, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester, Surprise; Mrs. C. L. Jones, Hastings; Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore, Valley; Mr. Welton, Fairbury; Dr. and Mrs. Beede, Mr. and Mrs. William Bunting, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Becker, David City; Mrs. Shadle, Odell; Miss Belle Hurd, Rising, Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. Tool, Miss Wirt, Murdock; Miss Olive Jones, Red Oak.

Mr. R. J. O'Hanlon, general organizer of the American humane association, was in the city Tuesday and organized a local branch of the association Tuesday evening, with the following officers: Messrs. G. M. Plumb, president; Paul F. Clark, secretary; Mrs. G. M. Plumb, corresponding secretary; Mr. A. L. Bixby, treasurer; Mr. A. J. Sawyer, prosecuting counsel; Mr. John E. Miller, first vice president; Miss Sarah B. Harris, second vice president. Board of directors: Messrs. W. E. Hardy, F. E. Shepherd, W. A. Selleck, J. H. Ager, W. O. Jones, H. V. Hoagland, P. L. Hall, H. J. Davenport, Lawrence Bruner, J. L. Fossler, W. C. Rhode, C. H. Gordon, Edward Le Fever, C. M. Parker, Doctor Prevey, Rev. F. L. Wharton, Rev. W. M. Mans, Rev. H. O. Rowlands, Rev. J. Lewis Marsh, Rev. W. M. Hindman, Rev. L. P. Ludden, Rev. Father Reade and Mrs. Rachel Hyde. Honorary members: Governor Savage, Mayor Winnett, Chancellor Andrews and all the ministers in the city. The prevention of all forms of cruelty is the aim of the society. Its especial work is to prevent cruelty to children, to criminals and defective and dependent persons, and to animals. This object is accomplished by the creation of a public humane sentiment, by the education of the young to moral sensibility toward all living beings, and by the punishment of offenders to the full extent of the law. During the past year 28,925 cases of cruelty to children and 99,850 cases of cruelty to animals were investigated by the American humane association in a territory including less than one third of the United States. A majority of these cases were settled out of court, while arrest and imprisonment were found necessary in some instances. Mr. O'Hanlon has recently organized eighteen societies in Iowa, and will continue the work in Nebraska in the following cities: Nebraska City, Crete, Beatrice, Hastings, Aurora, Grand Island, Kearney, North Platte, Lexington, Central City, Columbus, Genoa, Schuyler, Fremont, Shelby, Osceola, West Point, O'Neill, Ainsworth and Chadron.

Everything concerning Colonel Stotsenburg is of loving interest to Nebraskans. A year or two after he graduated at West Point, General Sherman enquired about him of an uncle. When told that he was out west the General said: "It is a hard life but it pays to be out there in the long run. That boy will make a fine soldier and be of use to his country if he lives and is ever called upon to do duty in war." In reporting the old General's remark to the young soldier stationed in an obscure western cantonment, his uncle added that he said to him: "Stotsenburg knew nothing but his duty and never drank." This information especially pleased the General who "was all smiles in a moment." The letter containing the words of commendation and prophecy of his future, is yellowed by time. It was among Colonel Stotsenburg's treasures and is an indication of his hopes and confidence in himself and in his own integrity and ability.

Governor Savage, his staff, several of the state officers and a party of Lincoln citizens went to Omaha on Monday evening to be the guests of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben and incidentally to attend the concert by Bellstedt's band. They were met at the train by President Fry and the board of governors of Ak-Sar-Ben, and were driven in carriages to the concert tent. After listening to a couple of musical numbers the visitors were taken to the Ak-Sar-Ben den, where with appropriate ceremonies the work of initiation was carried on. The party of visitors included Governor Savage and Mrs. Savage, General Colby, Colonel Bills, Colonel Mills, Colonel Kiefer, Colonel Harris, State Treasurer Steufer, State Auditor Weston, Attorney General Prout, Land Commissioner Follmer, Secretary of State Marsh, Deputy Auditor Anthee, Deputy Land Commissioner Eaton, Bond Clerk Matthews, Secretary Seymour, Recorder Fannon, Expert George Bennett, Chief Clerk Clancy, with these Lincoln citizens, most of whom are members of the Commercial club: Messrs.
