Miss Happy Theodora Van Wyck, only child of the late Senator Van Wyck, will make her debut in Washington next winter. Town Topics says that Miss Van Wyck is tall, superb and queenly, her copper-colored hair and exquisite complexion will make her one of the most beautiful young women in society, and she may inherit the mantle of Martha Hitchborn, whom she resembles in her attractive freedom of manner and speech. Miss Van Wyck is an heiress of a large fortune. The Van Wyck home, on the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Eighteenth street, is occupied by the George W. Fairbankes, and Mrs. and Miss Van Wyck have been occupying the Jeffreys house on Sixteenth street.

August Hagenow and his band carried off the first prize of three hundred dollars at the Woodmen band contest at St. Paul, Minnesota, last week. Not satisfied with this distinction, they also captured the first prize of twenty-five dollars for the best appearing band in a Woodman parade at Minneapolis. Citizens of both St. Paul and Minneapolis declared the Hagenow band to be best balanced musical organization ever heard in those cities. Twenty bands were in attendance, including several professional organizations; but only two cared to compete for the prize: the West Superior band of Wisconsin and the Flour City band of Minneapolis, the latter composed entirely of professionals. The fact that Mr. Hagenow's band won the first prize at Kansas City two years ago frightened the others away from the contest. The selection on which the marking was done was the difficult Von Weber overture "Oberon." This number also appeared on the program at the band concert at the auditorium on Tuesday night. It is an old saying that a prophet is without honor in his own country; but the residents of Lincoln have occasion for great pride in an organization like the Hagenow band, and during the summer months their concerts at the auditorium will be a source of great pleasure, and should receive enthusiastic support from the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Jaques, who will shortly remove to California, were given a large reception Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Watson, Poplar and Seventeenth streets, by the ladies' aid society of Trinity M. E. church. All the members of this church, with which Mr. and Mrs. Jaques have been closely identified for many years, were invited. Those in the receiving line were Rev. and Mrs. N. A. Martin and Mrs. Jaques. The decorations were roses and palms and the scene was lighted with candles. Refreshments were served up stairs by Mrs. G. G. Cook and in the dining room by Mrs. O. H. Smith, assisted by Misses Simms, Cook, Powers and Hunt. A quartette comprising Mr. and Mrs. George Sanderson, Miss Robinson and Mr. Bivens sang, Miss Elsie Fawell and Miss Robinson sang a duet and Mrs. Smith gave a recitation. Rev. N. A. Martin spoke feelingly of the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Jaques and Mrs. Jaques responded. Mr. and Mrs. Jaques expect to start for their new home at Pasadena next Tuesday.

Mrs. Ogden is spending the summer in the country on her mother's farm near Newark, Ohio. She says that there is no place like the country. The hens' cackling, little chickens peeping, birds singing, cows lowing, bees humming is an irresistible rhythm that lulls the spirit into a content and repose unknown to the residents of a city, and adds: "Let me go where-e'er I will I hear a sky-born music still."

Mr. and Mrs. John Dorgan and Mr. and Mrs. George Woods will leave tomorrow for New York, sailing June 29 for Europe on the steamship Minnehaha. They will first make a tour of Ireland, will do England thoroughly, then will go into Germany, France, Switzerland, down the Rhine, and will visit London, Paris, Brussels, Vienna and many other points of interest, returning to the United States the last of September.
