

the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Le Gore, Mrs. Harry Evans and Mrs. Warner. On Friday afternoon Mesdames Folsom gave a second card party similar to the one on Thursday. On this occasion the assistants were: Mrs. Tom Mungler, Miss Julia Lippincott and Miss Jennie Smith. The third party of the series was given on Friday evening. Mrs. Van Brunt, Mrs. Frank Hill and Miss Harpham assisted in serving luncheon, while Miss Emma Dalby served punch in the hall at each function. This afternoon sixty ladies will be entertained at a kensington. The house decorations are of red and white carnations.

Mrs. E. R. Sizer entertained at a kensington on Monday, at which the guests of honor were Mrs. Winter of Baltimore and Mrs. John Hewitt of Columbus, Ohio. The house decorations were of roses, carnations and ferns. An enjoyable feature was furnished by Mrs. Winter, who rendered several piano solos. Luncheon was served to the guests, who were: Mesdames Winter, Hewitt, Ames, Moore, Frankish, Crittenden, Harley, Piper, Evans, Inkster, Richards, Rudge, Tyler, E. W. Davis, Lewis of Normal, Usher, F. W. Brown, Guy Brown, Eason, Ewing, Guthrie, Stearns, Green, Mansfield, Thomas, Gosner of Philadelphia, Marshall, Miller, Camp, Bailey and Grainger.

The Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was delightfully entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Allen, the chapter regent. It was one of the most important and interesting meetings of the year. Five new names were proposed for membership. After the business session was over a charming program followed, consisting of violin solos beautifully rendered by Mr. Guy Woodward and a talk by the state regent, Mrs. Pound of Lincoln. Mrs. Pound charmed all by her personality and interesting remarks upon the early history of Nebraska. The program closed with a solo by Mr. Woodward and then followed an informal reception to Mrs. Pound. Light refreshments were served.—The Omaha Excelsior.

Married, on Tuesday, at the home of the bride, in Los Angeles, California, Miss Jane Cobb Macfarland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Macfarland, and Mr. Ralph Wilson Douglas, of St. Joseph, Missouri. The bride was gowned in white satin with point lace trimmings, and wore a tulle veil. The bride was attended by her sisters, Misses Jessie and Ruth Macfarland, both of whom have many friends in Lincoln, their former home. The bride is a member of the University class of '09, and of Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity, to which she was a valuable addition. Mr. Douglas is engaged in business in St. Joseph, which city will be their future home.

The alumnae, active and pledged members of Delta Delta Delta were the guests of Mrs. O. E. Rector last Saturday afternoon. After an absence of nearly six years, Reverend John Hewitt of Columbus, Ohio, is spending a few days with his friends and former parishioners in this city. He is accompanied by Mrs. Hewitt, who has been the guest of honor at many social functions during the last two weeks. Especially enjoyable was the reception given on Wednesday evening at Holy Trinity Episcopal church. The Sunday school room was elaborately decorated for the occasion; autumn foliage was used in profusion, while lamps and rugs added a home-like appearance. Ice cream and cake were served from a table decorated with red carnations and lighted with red candles, and coffee was poured by Mrs. E. R. Sizer and Mrs. Guy Brown. The charm of the evening was in its informality. At the request of the rector, Mr. Hewitt will preach at Holy Trinity on Sunday morning.

Doctor H. B. Lowry entertained the Round Table on Monday evening. Mr. G. M. Lambertson, the leader, chose for his subject "The Taxation of Railroads. Do Railroaders Pay their Just Amount of Taxation?" Those present were: Judge Field, Judge Cornish, Judge Holmes, Doctor Hindman, Doctor Rowlands, Doctor Hill, Doctor Lowry, Doctor Davenport, Messrs.
