Mrs. I. G. Chapin gave a children's party Hallowe'en for her three daughters and her little son. The three little girls attired as ghosts met their guests at the entrance to the attic where the festivities were conducted. The large attic was lighted by Japanese lanterns and carpeted with rugs. The children had more fun than any grown people can appreciate playing games, biting at strings of apples and singing songs. Miss Catherine Yates, who is an exceptional elocutionist for her tender years, gave several recitations. Mrs. Chapman was assisted by Misses Marie Talbot, Hazel Vandenberg, Edith Foster, Rose Foster, Anna Howland and Mrs. F. W. Hill. Guests present were: Lucile Foster, Mildred Morning, Phebe Folsom, Mary and Edith Robbins, Carol White, Marion Turner, Helen and Marion Hall, Catherine Yates, Agnes Bartlett, Margaret Haskell, Catherine Atwood, Cathene Holyoke, Alice Brooks, Grace Porter, Ethel, Alta and Ruth Jackson, Nim Louise Guile, Louise Rowlands, Della Usher, Pansy Folmer, Effie Powell, Irene, Helen and Isabelle Gordon, Neta Dunn, Robert Talbot, Fritz Harris, Phillip Watkins, Ralph Tipling, Stanley and Ernest Guenzel, Willard Folsom, Frank Hill, Robert Turner, Robert Holyoke, Earl Porter, William, Charles, Ralph and Hugh Hindman, Eugene Holland, Neal Dunn.

Gayety reigned supreme in the corridors of the capitol last night, where a party of young ladies formed themselves into a "state house crowd" and entertained a few of their gentlemen friends. The young men were initiated into the mysterious order of U. E's, their fortunes told and afterwards plentifully supplied with eatables. After the supper there were ghost stories and tableaux. Several rooms were very prettily decorated and there were toothsome dainties of every description for the guests. The following were present: Misses Jo Don, Howland, Adams, Taylor, Steinmetz, Cruisy, Garber, Crissinger, Dean, Galbraith, Trott, Canning, Walthers, Cruisy, Bell; Mrs. Rehlaender Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Boyse; Messrs. Boyse, Sonderland, Andresen, Bolton, Hefley, McShane, Ringler, Hawley, Howland, Kline, Kettering, Bowman, Forbes and Smith.

Master Morton Leonard gave a delightful Hallowe'en party last evening at his home, 1901 Holmes street. All sorts of games and pranks were played and the refreshments were of the most approved style for Hallowe'en. Following were present: Maude and Irene Bowen, Denver; Mabel Hunt, Hazel and Mildred Peters, Lois Fossler, Susan Angelo, Martha Struck, Grace Ensey, Maggie Ensey, Bessie Rogers, Etta Cone, Myrtle Bueford, Josephine Eggleston, Roy Crooks, Walter Pilou, Paul Rivette, Hugh Stevenson, Sheldon and Forest Perkins, Howard and Charlie Cone and Fred Allen.

Delta Delta Delta initiated new members on Hallowe'en evening at the home of Miss Poynter. The new members are Misses Ethelyn Bignell, Clara Powers, Edith Whittier, Louise Walker and Agnes Casebeer. The ceremonies took place in the attic which was decorated with autumn leaves, evergreens, ears of corn and jack-o'-lanterns. The tri-elita pin done in the colors, silver, gold and blue, was suspended from the ceiling. A sumptuous spread was enjoyed. Many gifts of confectionery and flowers added to the happiness of the young ladies.

Mrs. C. G. Crittenden gave a beautiful yellow luncheon today for Miss Hollowbush. The table was adorned with yellow roses, ribbons attached to the flowers extended to the plates and they were secured as favors after the repast. The menu was served in eight courses, the yellow tint being carried out. The place cards were heart-shaped and were daintily decorated by Mrs. Rector. Yellow chrysanthemums adorned the drawing room. Covers were laid for Misses Hollowbush, Honeywell, Honeywell, Rinehart, Carson, Hoover; Mesdames Marshall, John Dorgan, George Woods, Rector, Morrison and Crittenden.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Root, of Chillicothe, Ill., and Mr. Arthur J. Hudson, of Aurora, Neb., was celebrated Wednesday evening. Rev. L. P. Ludden performed the ceremony at his residence. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hudson of Aurora, parents of the groom, Congressman and Mrs. W. L. Stark, of Aurora, and Mr. Phillip Hudson of Lincoln. Mr. Hudson is employed by the Lincoln Traction company and he and his bride will reside at 913 C street.

Chancellor Andrews left Tuesday morning on an extended eastern tour. Among other places he will visit Brown university, where his services as chancellor are held in grateful remembrance. Elaborate preparations for his reception are being made by faculty and students.

The Lotus club met with Mrs. W. B. Ogden on Thursday afternoon. A lecture was given by Dr. Ross.

Mrs. O. E. Rector entertained at a six course dinner in honor of Miss Hollowbush on Monday. American Beauty roses were used for decoration.

Mrs. C. M. Kincaide entertained the southeast circle of the First Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon. Officers were elected and plans were made for the year. The circle will meet once each month and arrangements will be made for some entertainment, either music, a paper or a talk upon some subject of interest. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Kincaide assisted by Mrs. Burruss served refreshments sufficiently elaborate for a party instead of a church circle.

A merry Hallowe'en party was given Wednesday evening at their chapter house by the members of Kappa Alpha Theta, who by the way are always ideal hostesses. About thirty-five young people were present and danced and sang and enjoyed old-fashioned refreshments. The house was decorated with ears of corn and lighted with jack-o'-lanterns. A feature of the entertainment was a gypsy tent in which Miss McMillan foretold the futures of the guests.

Wednesday at high noon at the home of the bride's parents in Los Angeles, Cal., occurred the marriage of Miss Minnie Kisslingbury and Mr. J. H. Allen of Lincoln. The bride is a sister of Mrs. J. G. Lane of this city and has spent the last year at her home. The groom is city freight agent for the Missouri Pacific railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Allen will arrive in Lincoln tomorrow and will reside at 520 South Fourteenth street.

About fifty guests were entertained by the Browning society of the high school last Saturday evening. An auction and a pie supper were the features of the evening. Miss Nellie Ludden, associate editor of the Advocate, acted as toastmistress, calling for the following responses: "Our Mascot," Ellery Davis; "Chestnuts," Charles Mathewson; "Our Future," Dorothy Green.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. D. Shilling will entertain friends next Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred White of Omaha, are over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cornell will give a card party the evening of November 8.

Mason Wheeler is confined to the house by illness, the result of an accident while playing football last week Thursday.

Mrs. C. G. Crittenden will give a yellow luncheon today in honor of Miss Hollowbush. Eight courses will be served to the twelve guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, of Plattsmouth, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates and will remain until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright entertained Les Bohemiennes and their husbands informally last evening in honor of Mrs. Robert Robinson of Chicago.

Mrs. Robert Robinson is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John B. Wright. Mrs. Robinson resides at the Chicago Beach hotel in Chicago.

Mrs. M. H. Everett spent a few days of this week in Omaha and when she returned she brought with her Madame Everett, the doctor's mother, from Illinois, who will be her guest for a time.

Miss Anne Stuart left on Thursday for a month's visit in Kansas City and St. Joseph, after which she will go to Chicago, where she will spend the winter studying music.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Rector gave a handsome dinner Monday evening for Miss Hollowbush. The table was adorned with American beauties. The place cards bore wish bones, tied with lover's knots done in India ink.

A number of young people spent Hallowe'en very pleasantly as guests of Master Phillip Baker. Games and Hallowe'en jollity were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Robert, Louise and Richard Guthrie, Walter and Florence Stephenson, Flora Houghton, Bruce Johnson, Vance Chaplain.

The Four-Leafed Clover.
(By Rizzpah Norwood.)
Old Atlas wearies of his load,
With constant bending over;
Yet he has learned to lighten toil—
He picks a four-leafed clover.

When Mercury, the winged god,
A thousand leagues must cover,
Upon his sandal-speed to gain—
He binds a four-leafed clover.

Minerva rarely has the blues,
Yet storm-clouds sometimes hover;
She rages—weeps a bit—frowns—smiles—
Then hunts a four-leafed clover.

A strategem doth Cupid use,
To cheer the hapless lover,
He bids him seek a talisman—
The lucky four-leafed clover!

Jaggles—He thought his money would get him into society, but it didn't.
Waggles—No, he hadn't enough of it.
