Conceit is the only passion that does not decrease with years.—Town Topics.

Blibson—How was Jones yesterday?
Glibson—He seemed to be laboring under a delusion.
Blibson—Indeed! I thought he was playing golf.
Glibson—So did Jones.

Old Beau—How innocent and sweet you look this evening! And I am sure your mind is as pure as your gown.
Debutante—Goodness! Don't talk so loud. Do you want me to be a wall-flower?—Town Topics.

"Never will I give my consent," said Mr. Fairchild, firmly. "He only wants to marry you so that he can pay his bills."
"Pshaw! Papa," pouted his daughter, "Charlie never thinks of paying his bills."—Town Topics.

Knick—There is a question that has been puzzling me for some time.
Knock—What's that?
Knick—Why do you suppose they call hired girls help?—Town Topics.

THE DOCTORS EXTEND THEIR TIME.

Owing to the large number who have been unable to see the British Doctors these eminent gentlemen have extended the time for giving their services free to all who call before Dec. 6th.

Owing to the large number of invalids who have called upon the British Doctors at their office, corner 15th and N streets, Sheldon block, and who have been unable to see them, these eminent gentlemen have, by request, consented to continue giving their services entirely free for three months (medicines excepted) to all invalids who call upon them for treatment between now and December 6th.

These services consist not only of consultation, examination and advice, but also of all minor surgical operations.

The object in pursuing this course is to become rapidly and personally acquainted with the sick and afflicted, and under no conditions will any charge whatever be made for any services rendered for three months to all who call before December 6th.

The doctors treat all forms of disease and deformities and guarantee a cure in every case they undertake. At the first interview a thorough examination is made, and if incurable, you are frankly and kindly told so; also advised against spending your money for useless treatment.

Male and female weakness, catarrh and catarrhal deafness, also rupture, goitre, cancer, all skin diseases, and all diseases of the rectum, are positively cured by their new treatment.

The chief associate surgeon of the Institute is in personal charge.

Office hours from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sunday hours from 9 to 12 a. m.

SPECIAL NOTICE—If you cannot call, send stamp for question blank for home treatment.
