CLUB NOTES

THE WEEK'S REVIEW

The Lincoln clubs are taking a vacation this week. The next meeting of the Woman's club, which will be on January 6, will be in charge of the French department, and may take the form of a reception.

All club members will be interested in the meeting of the Nebraska State Teachers' Association which will be held in this city on January 1, 2 and 3. In addition to the regular programs a series of laboratory demonstrations will be provided by the University on Wednesday forenoon. All meetings are free to the public excepting the evening lectures at the auditorium, at which admission will be by ticket.

Of especial interest to club members will be the meeting of the Child Study Association, to be held on Wednesday, 2 p. m., in the high school auditorium. Following is the program:

1. The Physiological Changes in Adolescence, Dr. R. H. Wolcott, Lincoln.
2. The Psychic Changes in Adolescence, Dr. J. F. Stevens, Lincoln.
3. Conscience Cases, Anna Tibbets, Lincoln.
4. The Teacher's Work in Imparting Right Knowledge of Generation and Birth, Prof. W. R. Hart, Peru.
5. Is There Sufficient Difference in the Methods in Elementary and Secondary Education to Require a Difference in the Preparation of the Teachers for the One Field or the Other? Prof. G. W. A. Luckey, Lincoln.

General Discussion.

6. Election of officers.

The kindergarten section will be particularly interesting to members of the home department. This meeting will be held on Thursday at 2 p. m., in University hall. The program:

1. The Kindergarten from the Standpoint of the Mothers, Mrs. Geo. H. Payne, Omaha.
2. The Kindergarten and Its Workings in the Primary School, Miss Eva Mixer, Fremont Normal School.
3. The Kindergarten as a Social Factor in the Community, Prof. W. G. Langworthy Taylor, State University, Lincoln.

Part II.—The Modern Trend in Kindergarten Work. Six Minute Papers or Talks.

1. What I Consider It to Be in Its Effect Upon the Morning Circle, Miss Ella Stonebreaker, Red Cloud.
2. How Does It Affect My Work With the Gifts, and Is It Better? Miss Ida Johnson, Lincoln, Neb.
3. What I Think of the Occupation Work, Old and New, Miss Cora White, Nebraska City.
4. My Present Attitude Towards the Kindergarten Games, Mrs. Orietta Shields Chittenden, Supervisor Omaha Public Kindergarten.
5. Is There a Real Difference in Purpose Between the Old and the New? Helen M. Drake, Omaha.

Members of the art department should not fail to hear the paper on Friday afternoon entitled "By What Means May the Knowledge and Appreciation of Art be Best Promoted in Our Western Institutions?" This paper will be given by W. F. Dann, of the State University, at 2 p. m., in room 307, Physics hall.

The annual W. C. T. U. conference will be held on Wednesday, at 2 p. m., in University hall. The following program will be given:

- "The Responsibility of Parents," Mrs. M. D. Russell, Lincoln.
- Discussion.
- "Know Thyself," Anna Smith Batten, Wymore.
- Discussion.
- "Temperance in Our Schools," Ida K. Bosserman, Superior.

A meeting of more than usual interest will be held on Wednesday afternoon in Palladian hall, University of Nebraska, when the Nebraska Library association will hold its annual session. The following program will be rendered, beginning at 2 o'clock:

Progress in Nebraska for the year—President J. I. Wyer, Lincoln.

The Program of the State Library Commission—Miss Edna Bullock, secretary.

Paper on some topic of general interest to small libraries.

The Question Box, conducted by Miss Edith Tobitt, of the Omaha Public Library.

Election of officers.

Mrs. Belle M. Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth, librarian of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs, is expected to be present at this meeting.

***

The Fairbury Woman's Club met last week Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Le Roy. The program was in charge of Mrs. Leet, assisted by Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Letton, Mrs. Sarbach and Mrs. Ed Allen. The club will hold their annual reception on New Year's day, when all friends will be welcomed.

***

A meeting of the executive board and chairmen of standing committees of the Nebraska federation will be held on December 31, at 10:30 a. m., in the parlors of the Lincoln hotel. The object of the meeting is to consider plans for the year's work and the year book, which will be issued early in January.

***

The Fremont Woman's club has set apart January 25 as visitors' day. Mrs. Bushnell, of Lincoln, will address the club on this occasion.

***

Since the last state year book was issued two years ago several new clubs have been added to the Federation, and in many of the others there has been a change in the list of officers.
