

MISS HORAN, of St. Louis, who will be the guest for some weeks of Mrs. C. F. Harpham.

The marriage of Miss Josephine Cable, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cable of Davenport, Iowa, to Mr. Dan Wing of West Newton, Massachusetts, was celebrated Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cable. The pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Davenport read the service. He was assisted by Rev. Mr. Wylie. A mantel in the drawing room was banked with calla lilies and smilax and above this decoration a row of candles burned, and in front of this effective setting the groom and his best man, Mr. Tom Wing, met the bride and her attendants. Precisely at 8 o'clock to the music of the Lohengrin march the procession entered. First came the two bridesmaids, Misses Decker and Putnam, wearing gowns of pink crepe de chine, and carrying bridesmaid roses, then the maid of honor, Miss Alice Wing, sister of the groom, in white and last the bride with her father. Miss Cable's wedding gown was of heavy white satin made entrain with a flounce and capuchon of point lace. She wore a veil caught with a diamond brooch, and a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom. The floral decorations throughout the house were profuse, bridesmaid roses being the principal flowers. The dining room was in green and white. White roses formed the center-piece on the table and satin ribbons crossed the linen, terminating in bows at the corners. A luncheon was served in two courses. The bride received many handsome gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Wing left Wednesday evening for Chicago. They will go from there to New Orleans, then to Florida before going to their home in West Newton. Professor and Mrs. Brace, Mrs. H. E. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham went from Lincoln to attend the wedding. Mr. C. G. Dawes of Evanston was also present.

Mrs. John B. Wright gave a dear little children's party Thursday to celebrate the fifth birthday of her son John Charles. Fourteen small men and maidens were present. Fan and Helen Berger, remarkably talented children, by the way, played violin music, and dancing marionettes put the children in a perfect glee. At five o'clock all were seated at the rose trimmed dining table for a supper. Pink candles lighted the room, and tiny ones in rose holders burned on the birthday cake. Covers were laid for Misses Cornelia Crittenden, Sarah Ladd, Helen Berger, Helen Mitchell, May Louise Richards, Sarah Risdon, Ruth Fitzgerald, Helen Curtice; Masters Norman Curtice, Howard Wilson, Frank Watson, Fan Berger, Hume Richards, Oakley Maxwell and John Charles Wright.

The north side circle of St. Paul's church held its annual meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. A. Graham, Twelfth and R streets. Mrs. L. C. Richards was elected president, Mrs. Graham, vice president, and Mrs. H. J. Winnett and Mrs. H. T. Dobbins were re-elected treasurer and secretary respectively. The year just closed has been a very successful one financially as more than one hundred dollars enriched the treasury at the close, and the social features have not been neglected. Miss Horan charmed the ladies with a number of pretty songs. Light refreshments were served. A large number of ladies were present. The next meeting of the circle will occur in two weeks at the home of Mrs. E. O. Miller.

Mrs. Paul Norton gave a crokinole party last Friday evening for her sons, Monta and Clarence. Prizes were won by Mr. Lawrence Greenland and Mr. Clarence Morton. Miss Morton and Miss Hobson played piano music. Refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Sadie Hobson, Callie Rodgers, Helma Greenland, Ruth Mann, Louise Bagnell, Bertha Moser, Ethel Fulton, Bessie Waite, Mary Kalf, Julia Ruesch, Frances Borgelt; Messieurs Lawrence Greenland, Kenneth Cotten, Alec Seemark, Fred Moser, Walter Mann, Robert and Willie Porter, Fred and Willie Voigt.

The woman's alliance and the social committee of All Souls' church gave a largely attended reception Wednesday evening in honor of Reverend and Mrs. J. Lewis Marsh. The parlors were beautifully decorated and furnished with rugs, lamps and cushions, and in the smaller one refreshments were served. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. F. W. Hill, president, and Mrs. Grummann, treasurer of the alliance. Miss Tibbetts and Miss Gertrude Aitken presided at the refreshment table. A mandolin club stationed in the study played during the evening.

Miss Gail Gettler was surprised by a number of friends Saturday afternoon in honor of her thirteenth birthday. Music, games, and refreshments were enjoyed. Those present were Misses Polly Berkson, Dolly Benson, Helen McClennan, Mabel Spler, May Marriner, Bessie Holcomb, Rebecca Poska, Lillian McElwain, Isabelle Armstrong, Pearl Witte, Messrs. George Spelser, Fred Hagey, Percy Marriner and Harry Hainey.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hitchcock, who have recently moved from East to South Lincoln, were surprised last Friday evening by a number of their friends who wished to welcome them to their new locality. Those present were Messieurs and Mesdames D. F. Sutherland, D. W. Rowlands, Mesdames Sarah M. Reed, Flora S. Hitchcock; Misses Pearl Hitchcock and Mamie Rowlands, and Mr. Harry Sunderland.

The pan-American carnival given by the city improvement society will begin Tuesday evening at the auditorium and continue all week. A different program of war dances, sleigh-bell dances, instrumental music, songs and other attractive features, will be given each evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton R. Lee gave a six-handed euchre Tuesday evening in honor of their guest, Mrs. Bowen. Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Folsom won the royal prizes, and Mrs. C. H. Warner the consolation. There were thirty players. A two course luncheon was served.

Miss Wakefield, of Omaha, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. C. W. Branch.

MRS. BERTRAM CLAYTON

BERTRAM CLAYTON, U.S.A.

In the course of a few days Captain Bertram Tracy Clayton, U. S. A., whose services in the Philippines have been of a distinguished character, will learn definitely of the success of his divorce suit. The suit arose from the findings of private detectives employed by Clayton to watch his wife while he was away fighting in the Philippines. The wife did not oppose the suit, being anxious to marry again immediately. Clayton is a West Point graduate, an ex-congressman, and commanded troop C in the Spanish-American war.
