FLORENCE,
Four months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Flick

LELAND EDWARD,
Ten months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Keefer.

GRACE LUCILE,
Four months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Keefer.

The ladies of Plymouth Congregational church gave a reception Monday evening in the church parlors in honor of Reverend and Mrs. John Doane who left this week for their new home in Fremont. Reverend and Mrs. Doane and Reverend and Mrs. Gregory received the guests. A mandolin club played during the evening. Plymouth church was never so pretty. A profusion of Easter lilies and other flowers were used for decorating. The dining room was effectively decorated in yellow and white tulips forming a centerpiece on the table. Mrs. H. C. M. Burgess and Mrs. Lawrence Bruner presided at the refreshment table and were assisted in serving by a number of young ladies gowned in white. More than three hundred persons were present to express regret at the parting and to wish Mr. and Mrs. Doane success in their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Doane during their nine years' residence in this city, had endeared themselves to a large circle of friends outside Plymouth circles who as well as the church people regret their going.

A large audience gathered at Memorial hall Thursday evening to listen to the recital for graduation given by Miss Alleyne Archibald, one of the most talented students in the university school of music. She played the following program:

- Bach-Liszt—Fantasi and Fugue G minor.
- Schubert-Liszt—"Hark, Hark the Lark."
- Schutt—Improvisation on "Prize Song," Wagner.
- Joseffy—Pizzicati from "Sylvia," Debibes.
- Chopin—Impromptu F sharp Op. 36, Etude E Major Op. 10 No. 3, Ballade G minor Op. 23.
- Strauss, Richard—Burleske D minor, for piano and orchestra.
- Orchestral parts on second piano by Mr. Eames.

Mrs. Charles M. Keefer, in honor of her little daughter, gave a baby party Saturday afternoon. Fourteen babies received the following invitation:

"Dear Little—
"My Mamma wants to know if your Mamma will let you come to my Easter party next Saturday afternoon.
"I guess you'd better bring your Mamma with you.
"GRACE LUCILE KEEFER.
"Please let my Mamma know."

An Easter luncheon was served to the proud mammas while the dimpled darlings cooed in the downy nests arranged for them in the drawing room. Mrs. Keefer was assisted by her sister, Miss Grace Lucile Ashton. The following infants and their mothers were present: Kathryn Lorain Young, Florence Flick, Arnett Ricketts Folsom, Donald Harlow Wilson, Catherine Adriance Rudd, James Henry Stevens, Jr., Leland Edward Keefer, Ellis Duane Alley, Anna Lucile Ayres, Richard Hockett, Phillip Everett Sommerlad, Chas. Edgar Kettering, Eunice Tuttle.

A pretty Easter event was a christening party which occurred at four o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Clark, Thirty-third and O streets, when two smiling babies, Dorothea Miller Clark, grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark, and John Lyttleton Lyon, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, and son of Professor and Mrs. T. Lyttleton Lyon, were christened. Reverend B. M. Long, D. D., of the Second Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. Miss Miller of Omaha, sister of Mrs. Will Clark, sang the hymn "Savior, Who Thy Flock Art Feeding," which was set to music for the occasion by Mr. Oscar Gareissen. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Rome Miller, parents of Mrs. Will Clark, from Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Eli Plummer, Miss Miller, Miss Spurck, Mr. Miller and Mr. Aleck Sheldon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gingery, who have recently moved into a new home at Tenth and J streets were surprised last Friday evening by a number of friends who were principally members of General Custer circle Ladies of the G.
