THE BACHELOR'S SOLILOQUY.
To wed, or not to wed—
That is the question;
Whether 'tis better to remain single,
And disappoint several women
For a time,
Or to marry
And disappoint one woman
For—life!

A woman's first advice is good. Her second is modified by her heart and is bad.

ANNUAL REUNION OF THE ROCKEY FAMILY

THE OLD ILLINOIS HOME.

Descendants of Mrs. Margaret Dautin Rockey will meet August 16th in Rock Grove, Illinois, to hold the fifth annual reunion of the Rockey family upon the 129th anniversary of her birth. H. F. Rockey, editor of the Post, of this city, a grandson, is secretary of the reunion association formed five years ago, and has charge of the arrangements for the celebration.

Mrs. Rockey died at the age of 103. At the inauguration of George Washington she was three years of age, and was dressed in a costume to represent a flower girl. Of the latter there was one for each state in the new union and she was assigned to Maryland.

The site of the Rockey home and the log house in which Mrs. Rockey lived at Rock Grove, Illinois, is shown in the accompanying picture.

Family reunions are no longer a novelty in the eastern states. Associations are organized and once each year there is a gathering. Every relative is urged to come and contribute something to the dinner. A photographer is generally present and a group picture taken.
