

SOCIETY NOTES
LIFE'S MAZY WHIRL

This was sorority week not only at the university but in Lincoln, and all other events sunk into insignificance compared with the importance of rushing parties. No one knows how many of them there were, but everyone knows that all of them were successful, that is they were all nice parties, but of course some failed in the object for which they were given as no girl can belong to more than one fraternity and many were courted by several. It is fortunate that these festivities do not last all year, else books might as well be banished.

One of the prettiest parties of the week was the dance given by Kappa Alpha Theta at Walsh hall last evening. The reception room and dancing hall were decorated with the sorority colors, gold and black. Yellow chrysanthemums appeared in profusion and many pennants were used. Delicious cosey corners variously arranged tempted the dancers to rest. The programs were bits of art done with pen and ink, with the letters K. A. T., in gold.

The scarlet and cream of the university adorned the refreshment room. Red roses and ferns were on the table. Mrs. C. F. Ladd served ice cream. The chaperones were Miss Anne Barr, Miss Clara Walsh, Doctor and Mrs. C. F. Ladd, Mrs. Nellie Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Clements, Reverend and Mrs. F. W. Eason. The dancers were Misses Janie Douglas, Ella Harper, Margery Loomis, Agnew, Sallie Agnew, Nelore Wilson, Laura Woodford, new, Nelore Wilson, Laura Woodford, Jeannette Post, Alice Towne, Lida Millar, Georgie Patterson, Edith Patterson, Lila Edminston, Viola Stewart, Ida Robbins, Charlotte Clarke, Jean Tuttle, Harriett Paul; Messieurs Bert Robbins, Diedrich Lau, George Douglas, Ned Loomis, Herman Lehmer, James Bell, Bailey, Fred Gould, Ray Gould, Hutchins, Ralph White, Van Burg, Walsh, Wilson, Sheldon, Adams, Broady, Caldwell, Roth, Buckley, Dumont, Wirt of Council Bluffs, Lewis, Pollard, Shiedler, Kennard, Brown, Dewese, Hill, Hanson, Farney, Harris.

The music pupils of Mrs. Frank Smith have organized a club which they call the Musical Progress club. The president of the club is Miss Elsie Ackermann; vice president, Master Alfred Mayer; treasurer, Miss Babette Well; secretary, Miss Beulah Albright. Meetings are held fortnightly at the homes of the members and all members are expected to take part in the programs. An open meeting to which the parents of the pupils and a few friends were invited, was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. G. Chapin, when the following numbers were creditably rendered:

- "Grandpa's Fiddle"—Alletter.
- "Slumber Song"—Gurlitt, Helen Chapin.
- "Little Friends' Polka"—Streabbog, Lillian Chapin.
- Two duets by Joseph Low, Mrs. Smith and Alfred Mayer.
- "Madchenstraum"—Carl Heins, Babette Well.
- "The Whistling Boy"—L. E. Orth, Jeanette Mayer.
- "Spinning Wheel"—Elmenreich, Julius Harpham.
- "Gavotte"—Bohm, Beulah Albright.

- "Low" duets, Sydney Slesinger and Jessie Newmark.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Virgil Whiting have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, May Cynthia, to Mr. Hans Theodore Westermann, to be celebrated Wednesday evening, October the first, at eight o'clock at the First Baptist church. A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whiting will follow. At the reception will be the bridal party, the guests from Fairbury, which was the former home of the Whittings, the local chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and a few young people. The bride will have no attendant except her sister, Miss Adelloyd Whiting, who will be her maid of honor. The ushers will be Messieurs Max and Fritz Westermann, Fred Williams of Seward, Melville Flinn of Evanston, Illinois. The wedding will be a simple one. Mr. Westermann and his bride will reside in St. Louis and will be at home to their friends after November first.

Little Olive Graham Meeds celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary with a charming party this afternoon from 3

A symphony in brown might be secured in the same way, or one of lead color, for kitchen ware is made in both colors, but it were perhaps better to reserve the brown for the study, and the lead for the clouds outside, for clouds sometimes gather in the kitchen anyway, and showers of tears fall when things go wrong.

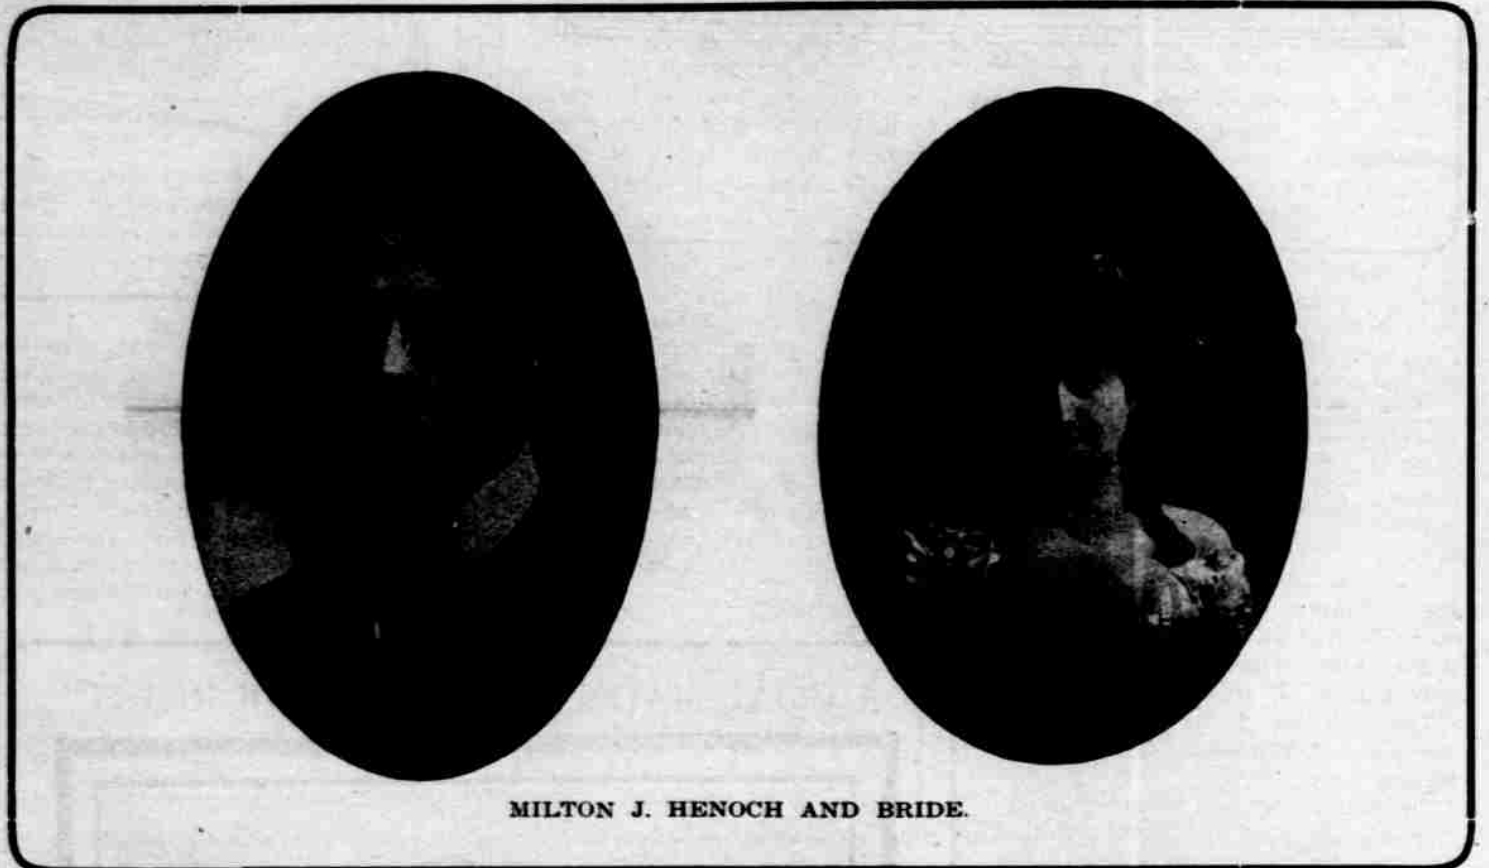

Kappa Alpha Theta gave a breakfast Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. W. E. Hardy. The guests were seated at two large round tables, twelve sitting at one table, ten at the other. Yellow daisies were used for decorating and the tables glittered with cut glass and silver. The initials of this fraternity spell the word KAT, and when in a playful mood the friends of the girls sometimes call them cats. Considering this the place cards were very characteristic and were certainly very cunning, with the heads of black cats decorated with yellow ribbons. The menu was served in five courses. As a diversion, the guests were asked to outline cats with black tape on yellow cambric and the one who was most skillful received as a reward a black wool cat with a yellow ribbon tied round its neck.

Delta Delta Delta gave a dancing party last evening at Fraternity hall. Good music, an ideal floor and handsome costumes all contributed to the pleasure of the dancers. Punch was served all evening. Mr. and Mrs. O.

fast given by Miss Hargreaves and Miss Louise Hargreaves for Kappa Kappa Gamma, yesterday morning. Three tall vases filled with meteor roses were on the table, and many of the same brilliant blooms were scattered over the linen. The name cards were round and bore cunning little Dutch girls in water colors. Covers were laid for Misses Hargreaves, Emmons of Denver, Tuttle, Louise Hargreaves, Fawell, Wilson, Funke, Shedd, Mabel Bennett, Stephen, Gladys Hargreaves.

On Saturday a surprise was perpetrated on Mr. Perry Buckle by his mother in honor of his twelfth birthday. The boys of Dr. Carr's Sunday school class, of which he is a member, were the guests and a right merry time they had. A birthday cake, a large melon and a basket of fruit were disposed of by the boys. Misses Maude Buckle and Ina Greisel assisted in serving. Guests were Alden Bumstead, Floyd Perkins, John and James Becketl, Lawrence Briggs, Harold Noble, Ted Bothwell, Claude Mitchell, Claude Flansburg, Roy Hodge, R. Hillton.

At the First Presbyterian church Monday evening a reception was given by the Christian Endeavors of that church and the First Congregational, in honor of Doctor and Mrs. F. F. Tucker, who will sail on October 15th for Northern China, where they go as medical missionaries. Both Mr. and to 6 o'clock. A fish pond and a grab bag amused the small men and maidens who were present and a lovely supper was served by Mrs. Meeds, assisted by Miss Catherine Lee. The guests were Misses Mildred Morning, Harriett Chapin, Margery Green, Helen Dayton, Helen Curtice, Halley Curry, Ethel Wright, Katherine Manahan, Katherine Evans, Alice Brooks, Mary Freeman, Katherine Holyoke, Louise Rowlands, Florence Mockett, Ruth Stevens, Ruth Gillian, Gratia Green, Margery Kimball, Regina Steckley, Mary Tucker, Charlotte Ward, Mary Stuart, Mary Guthrie, Harriett Coffin, Helen Marie Walsh; Masters Glen Everts, Irving Chapin, Frederick Everts, Albert Munson, Norman Curtice, Charles Latshaw, Everett Turner, Howard Freeman, William Aitken, Walter Gardner, Eugene Goldsmith, Byron Stevenson, Frederick Wells, Ernest Guensel, Fritz Harris.

A few years ago a bride in furnishing her new domicile considered herself fortunate if she could carry out a color scheme in her drawing room or sleeping apartments, but the brides of today carry the color scheme plan into their kitchens. One who recently furnished her house, had the walls of her kitchen made a light blue and the appointments were of graniteware of the same hue. The effect was really very pretty, with the frying pans, mixing spoons, basins, stew pans, all of the dainty blue ware with white linings.

E. Rector, Mr. and Mrs. James Manahan, and Mrs. Chadwick chaperoned the party. The young people present were Misses Dovey, Ames, Norval, Butler, Bunt, Whittier, Kimball, Moore, Allen, Crow, Faulkner, Perkins, McGahan, Bonnell, Bignell, Cady, Casebeer, Chadwick, Reynolds, Losch, Murray, Du Tell, Auld, Poynter, Gund, Salls, Moore, Whitcomb, Palmer, Whittier; Messieurs Clark, Campbell, Hupp, Farney, Phillips, Hess, Huse, Peterson, Horn, Matson, Stevens, Sweeley, Mansfield, Brown, Hertz, Steckelburg, Harvey, Mudge, Bentley, Bell, Kimball, Carpenter, Eager, Walton, Rehlaender, Faulkner, Baumgardner, Pollard, Wilson, Chambers, Righter.

At four o'clock Monday the marriage of Miss Winona Mildred Douglas and Mr. Frank E. Melick was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Douglas, 1345 South Eleventh street. Reverend N. A. Martin of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church performed the ceremony. Only relatives and intimate friends witnessed the marriage. Light refreshments were served after which Mr. and Mrs. Melick went to their new home at 721 North Fifteenth street. They will receive their friends after October 5th.

Rushing week this year has been characterized by many beautiful parties. One among them which deserves special mention was the break-

Mrs. Tucker were students in the state university, and Mr. Tucker has been a teacher in the Lincoln high school, and their friends in large numbers gathered to wish them bon voyage. The church was decorated with Endeavor banners, bunting and cut flowers.

Mrs. Lewis Marshall gave a beautiful luncheon Tuesday noon for Kappa Kappa Gamma. Thue guests were seated at small tables adorned with maiden hair ferns. Daylight was excluded and the dining room was illumined with lamps and candles. Guests were Mrs. E. C. Hardy, Misses Butler, Dorothy Griggs, Joyce Broody, Olive States, Grace Bennett, Castle, Kimball, Outcalt, Shideler, Reding, Fawell, Louise and Gladys Hargreaves, Jessie Outcalt, Stephen, Shedd, Lillian Fitzgerald, Helen Wilson, Graham, Mabel Bennett.

Delta Gamma gave a peanut stab Tuesday evening at the chapter house. The royal prize, a box of peanut candy, was awarded to Miss Ruth Prentice and the consolation, a peanut doll, was won by Miss Robbins. Peanut salad and peanut sandwiches were a part of the delicious menu which was served. Those present besides members of the sorority were Misses Ruth Prentice, Robbins, Dorrance Harwood, Lillian Fitzgerald, Elsie Fawell, Helen Wilson, Butler, Faulkner and Ethel Ames.
