

cleverness with tricks of legerdemain. After the music a delicate three-course luncheon was served. The guests were Les Bohemiennes, the Strollers, and their husbands. Mr. and Mrs. Curtice will entertain again in about two weeks.

Mrs. C. E. Steele entertained the W. T. M. charmingly Thursday afternoon. After the transaction of business quotations from Nebraska poets were given. Plans for a Hallowe'en party, to be given next Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. He's, were discussed. An elaborate luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Leitch and Mrs. Sherdeman. Those present were Mesdames Edleman, Evans, Gentzler, Hess, Hood, Harlan, Kaufman, Lasch, Leitch, Lane, Morse, Raymond, Sherdeman, Steel, Switzer. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. B. Ed'eman, 1645 Washington street. Quotations from Benjamin Franklin.

A large number of the Patriarchs gathered Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates for a business meeting followed by a social time. The hours spent together at the home of Mrs. Yates, who has been president of the club for two years, were full of pleasure. Dainty refreshments were served. Officers elected for the year are: President, Mrs. C. G. Crittenden; vice president, Mrs. F. M. Hall; secretary, Mrs. W. F. Kelley; treasurer, Mr. F. D. Levering; members of executive board, Mrs. S. H. Burnham and Mrs. F. M. Fling.

The Cotillion club opens its season with a party at Fraternity hall this evening. Pretty favors have been secured for the occasion and Mr. Leonard will sit at the favor table. Coffee and sandwiches will be served. Mr. W. A. Green will lead in the dance, and will hereafter alternate with Doctor Ladd, who with Mrs. Ladd has returned to the club membership this year. New members are Mr. and Mrs. William M. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Rector and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Lau. There are twenty couples in the club. In electing new members congeniality is sought after, thus assuring enjoyable functions.

Society is awakening just a little to its responsibilities. The Daughters of the American Revolution combined pleasure with business on Wednesday and pronounced Mrs. Pound's luncheon a success. The De Witt house-warming and the Curtice musicale on Thursday evening were pleasant affairs, and the Hellwig-Aitken parties yesterday had the spice of novelty which was scarcely needed, as parties in that charming home are always enjoyed by the fortunate guests.

The southeast circle of the First Presbyterian church was pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. M. W. Folsom and Mrs. L. J. Dunn. The officers elected for next year are: Chairman, Mrs. L. J. Dunn; assistant chairman, Mrs. C. S. Jones; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Frank Evert. The circle will meet once each month at the homes of the members; refreshments will be restricted to two articles and the ladies will pay five cents a week each, from the first of October to the first of June.

At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, in Havelock, on Monday evening, was celebrated the marriage of Miss Mae Boynton and Mr. Floyd Swearingen, Reverend R. Washington Burton officiating. Roses smilax and ferns were effectively placed in the decorations. The bride's gown was of white batiste trimmed with point lace, and her bouquet was of carnations and bride roses. Refreshments were served in the dining room after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. George Woods, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Rector and Mrs. Langdon of Omaha, constituted a box party at the Wizard of Oz performance Monday night. Mrs. Langdon, by the way, is here to spend the winter with Mrs. Rector, who is her sister.

Mrs. Fred L. DeWitt will give a Kensington Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Brown entertained Les Bohemiennes Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. S. A. Drabo of Holdrege was a guest of Mrs. John M. Stewart this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Ackerman will entertain the Unity club Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Aitken will entertain at euchre next Friday afternoon and evening.

The young ladies at the university school of music are planning for a Hallowe'en party.

The Sans Souci club gave a dancing party, the first of the season, at Walsh hall Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Albinus Nance announce the engagement of their daughter Helen to Mr. Walter L. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Harris gave a card party Thursday evening at their home, 1126 South Eighth street. Guests were Messieurs and Mesdames R. A. Jenks, F. A. Hall, and Mr. C. O. Harris. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hall will be at home informally to a few friends Monday evening at eight o'clock. A chafing-dish supper will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marshall will give a small dinner tomorrow for Mr. and Mrs. Beeson, and Miss Mae Burr will entertain in their honor tomorrow evening.

Mrs. E. E. Brown and Mrs. R. E. Moore have cards out for a buffet luncheon to be given Tuesday, November fourth, from twelve to two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Stewart entertained a few friends informally Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. N. S. Baird of Mason City, Iowa. Mrs. Baird left for her home on Friday.

Mrs. W. L. Brown, of Des Moines, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Hellwig, for a few days. She is en route to Denver and stopped off here to attend the Hellwig-Aitken parties.

Good things in anticipation are Mrs. Hall's reception to the Woman's club Monday, Mrs. and Miss Cochran's reception Thursday and the card party to be given by Miss Dewese and Mrs. Menzendorf on Friday.

plan of serving dinner at half after six o'clock, commenced last season, will be followed this year. La Veta will meet Tuesday evening with Doctor and Mrs. J. J. Davis, 1426 E street.

The Bachelor Girls' club is occasionally heard from, although, despite the name, it is an unobtrusive organization and courts neither bachelor men, nor attentions of any kind, only occasional good times when called together by the president or some other member. A cake made by the united efforts of the members is constantly on hand, and by its delicious quality disproves the old saying that "too many cooks spoil the broth."

Mr. S. R. Boyd entertained his class of young married people of the Second Presbyterian Sunday school Tuesday evening. Selections from the writings of American humorists were read. Miss Helen Easterday sang some of Eugene Field's songs and Mrs. Calanan played two piano numbers. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Boyd assisted by her sister Miss Frantz of Monmouth, Illinois. Fifty-five persons were present.

An Emergency:
She was Equal to It

The average Lincoln girl can be depended upon to prove herself equal to an emergency. A young man and his girl friend were standing at the corner of Thirteenth and O streets one evening last week. They had attended the theatre and were waiting for a car. The young man appeared nervous and the girl ventured to ask him why it was.

"Really—er—" he began, "I don't believe I have any change."

The car was coming and the girl was determined she would not walk, so she grabbed him by the arm and said:

"Come on, trust me, the conductor can't any more than put us off." "But listen," he pleaded, "think how embarrassing it—"

But they were on the car, and the conductor had begun to collect fares. It was very crowded and the girl looked in vain for a familiar face.

A young man sat opposite her. She had passed him on the street several times, and he had made himself very obnoxious by raising his hat and trying to attract her attention. Here was a chance to get even. Her escort was getting red in the face and squirming considerably. The masher gave the conductor a quarter and quick as a flash she raised her hand. "Three fares, please," and the conductor returned a dime to the smart guy, who couldn't or wouldn't say a word, but got up, and moved to the rear of the car, where he stood and softly whistled "In the good old summer time." The other fellow thinks the girl who could surmount a difficulty like that is ace high.

KATHERINE COFFIN.

Two years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Coffin, of 1845 C street.

Miss Rose Carson has as her guest for the winter her cousin, Miss Jennie Carson of McConnellsburg, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. R. H. Oakley, who has been visiting her son, Ensign Owen Oakley, in New York, arrived in Lincoln today and is the guest of Mrs. C. E. Yates.

Miss Lena Dewese and Mrs. C. G. Menzendorf will give a card party next Saturday afternoon at the Dewese home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Le Gore and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Folsom will entertain the M. M. card club at a Hallowe'en party.

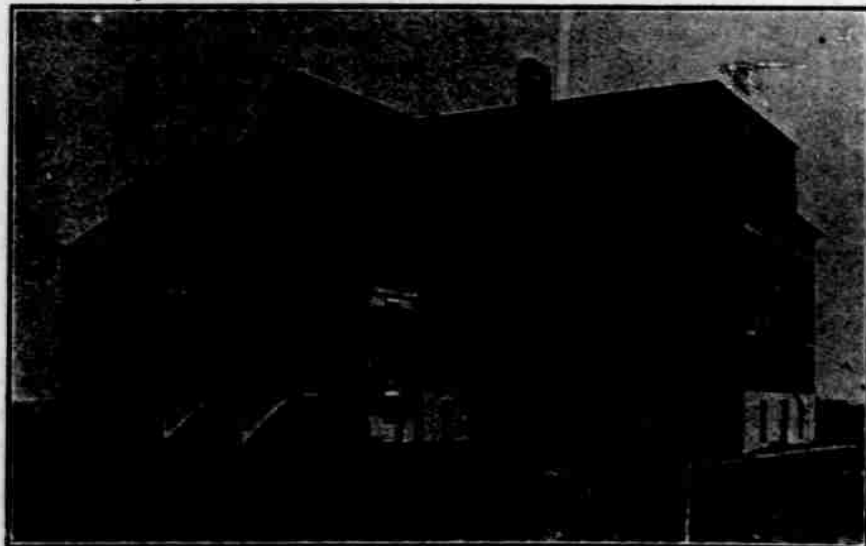

Miss Florence Fiske's name was accidentally omitted from the list of young ladies invited into Pi Beta Phi Saturday afternoon.

Professor and Mrs. G. E. Barber will entertain the university faculty and the students of the Latin department Monday evening at Fraternity hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beeson, of Omaha, are in town to attend the Cotillion club party tonight, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Leonard. They are accompanied by Mrs. Beeson's mother, Mrs. Miller, of Lafayette, Indiana.

La Veta whist club is the oldest social club in the city. Its seventeenth season began with a meeting at the home of Judge and Mrs. A. W. Field Monday evening, the thirteenth. The

GREEN GABLES.

The Dr. Benj. F. Bailey Sanatorium

Is not a hospital, not a hotel, but a home. The building is situated on a slightly hill at Normal, and is reached by the cars of the Lincoln street railway, being only 25 minutes' ride from the business center of the city. It is thoroughly equipped and beautifully furnished. Every electric current useful in the treatment of the sick is used, and ideal Turkish, Russian, and Medicated Baths are given. In conditions where the kidneys and liver are affected, and in cases of rheumatism, our Hot Air treatment has been remarkably successful. For full information address The B. F. Bailey Sanatorium, Lincoln, Neb.