BOOKS RECEIVED

An Inaugural Ode. By Alexander Blair Thaw. The Monadnock Press, Nelson, N. Y. Price 50 cents.

Taber Lights is the name of the second edition of "Why Love Grows Cold." By Ellen Burns Sherman. The Gordon Flagg Company, Springfield, Mass. Price $1.00, postage 10 cents. Two copies at 75 cents each.

Practical Suggestions for Common People. By Elder J. H. Oliphant, Crawfordsville, Ind. The D. H. Goble phia. Price 25 cents. Printing Co., Greenfield, Ind.

The Plum Tree. By David Graham in Schools. By W. H. Harvey. Her-

Phillips. The Bobbs-Merrill Company, Publishers, Indianapolis, Ind.

Ready Money. By George H. Knox, President Personal Help Publishing Company, Founder Personal Help School of Achievement. Personal Help Publishing Company, Des Moines, Ia. Price $1.68, net.

Jack Brainard. A Romance of the Cherokee Hills. By John W. Yoes. upon the proper limits of governmental Eastern Publishing Company, Boston, Mass. Price $1.50.

Human Submission. By Morrison I. Swift. The Liberty Press, Philadel-

Character Building. A book for use or $6.00 per hundred.

ald Publishing Company, Monte Ne,

The Exodus from Death. Sermons "Concerning Those Who Have Fallen Asleep." By Rev. James Hamilton Hall, D. D. Press of Marshall & Bruce Co., Nashville, Tenn.

Arbitrary Price-Making Through the Forms of Law. A few points bearing supervision or interference in railroad transportation. (Pamphlet). By Henry Wood. Lee and Shepard, Publishers, Boston, Mass. Single copies 10 cents; 3 copies 25 cents; 15 copies for $1.00;

Seven Days in Spirit Garb or With

68-Page Book and Trial Free

Uric Acid Diseases---Kidneys, Bladder, Rheumatism

Free Treatment Proves the Cure; Free II-lustrated Book Tells All About It--Send For Them Both Today.

To Readers of the Commoner: If you or any one you know of is suffering from a disease of the kidneys, the bladder or any form of rheuma tism, you are urgently invited to send name and address to get a free trial treatment of a won-derfulnon-alcoholicd covery by the celebrated

French-American specialist, Dr. Edwin Turnock, by which you can cure yourself of any Uric Acid disease in a short time in your own home and save the necessity of an operation and the expense of doctors and druggists. It is not a cure-all but a specific cure for urle acid diseases, so send for it if you have a uric acid affliction like Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, gravel, weak back, stone in the bladder, enlarged prostrate, frequent desire to urinate, pains in the back, legs, sides and over the kidneys, swelling of the feet and ankles, retention of urine, wetting the bed, or such rheumatic affection as chronic, muscular or inflammatory rheu-matism, sciatica, rheumatic neuralgia, humbago, gout, etc. It will promptly remove every trace of pric acid poison and its complications stop all rheumatic aches, pains and swellings, strengthen the kidneys and the bladderso that they will become normal again, and so revita-lize and build up the entire constitution as to make you feel as healthy and strong as in your

It did this for legions of others, among them such well-known persons as Mrs. L. Clark, Chandler, Texas; G. G. Rector, Marshall, N. C.; Mrs. your name and address promptly for these free offerings. Do so today sure, for you cannot justly say you are incurable until you have tried this really remarkable treatment and as neithermoney nor even stamps are asked for, you should certainly make a free test of it at the Seen and the Unseen. By W. H. Dunseth, Oakwood, Ill., with an introduction by Thomas J. Burrill, Ph. D., LL. D., Vice President of the University of Illinois.

Socialism in Brief. (Pamphlet.) By William L. Garver, William F. Garver, Publishers, Chillicothe, Mo. Price 10 cents prepaid.

The Drink Problem in Modern Life. By Bishop Henry C. Potter. Thomas Y. Crowell & Co., 426-428 West Broadway, New York. By mail, 35 cents.

The Personality of God. By Lyman Abbott, D.D. Thomas Y. Crowell & Co., 426-428 West Broadway, New York. By mail, 35 cents.

Happiness. Essays on the Meaning of Life. By Carl Hilty, professor of Constitutional Law, University of Berne. Translated by Francis G. Peabody, Professor of Christian Morals in Harvard University. The Macmillan Co., 66 Fifth avenue, New York. Price, $1.25, net.

A JOB IN SIGHT

New York physicians have discorcied a man who is absolutely without brains; but he need not be cast down, es he can find a demand for his services as a dummy director of New Jersey trust corporations.-Denver News.

The Primary Pledge=-Organize Now.

From The Commoner, Lincoln, Nebraska, March 17, 1905

Newspapers favoring the plan outlined are requested to reproduce this editorial together with the primary pledge as it appears below. They may request their readers to sign this pledge and forward the same either to The Commoner or to the office of their local democratic paper. In the latter event these pledges may be then forwarded in bulk to The Commoner office where they will be duly recorded.

The Pledge Outlined

The Commoner of March 17:

"Mr. Bryan has been in receipt of a multitude of letters since the election urging organization for the campaign of 1908. The rank and file of the party are ready to begin the fight; they only await a plan of co-operation. This plan has been under consideration for some weeks and is herewith and is also attended by delegates the people dress of each person who enters into dre tion urging organization for the camsubmitted.

to attend all of the primaries of his as a rule, attended by delegates, and publish a limited number of brief letparty to be held between now and the these in turn represent hundreds of ters on this subject. Mr. Bryan is next democratic national convention, democrats. At the primary the voters encouraged by his correspondence to unless unavoidably prevented, and to speak for themselves; there democ-believe that there will be a prompt and use his influence to secure a clear, hon-racy has its citadel. est and straightforward declaration of "When the work of organization is tion."

upon which the voters of the party set for the meeting of the members desire to speak.

writing of a platform in advance of pledged to but one thing-namely, atthe primaries; it does not rest upon tendance upon the primaries-are the paramount importance of any one urged to co-operate among themselves issue. It recognizes the right of the for the support of every effort put democratic voters to control the policy forth to eliminate corruption in poliof the democratic party, and to deter- tics. No cause can prosper permamine its position upon public ques- nently that does not appeal to the tions. It also recognizes the import- moral sense of the country, and the ance of honesty and sincerity in poli- moral sense of the country is now be-

"This proposition will appeal to all who believe in the rule of the peopleto all who are willing that the ma- aiding every movement that has for jority shall govern in party manage- its object the ascertainment of the will mean that those who exert themselves forcement of that will. to secure a good platform will be bound to support a bad platform-that the information that it can upon the is a question which each must determine for himself-but it does mean to the end that its readers may be pre-The following editorial appeared in that the democratic platform shall give pared to render the maximum of asvoice to the prevailing sentiment of sistance to every worthy cause. the democratic party, and that the party shall take the country into its pledge? A record will be kept in The confidence. The pledge proposed is a Commoner office of the name and adand these represent thousands of dem- the blank which is printed below. "Let each democrat pledge himself ocrats. The county conventions are,

1 the party's position on every question sufficiently advanced, a time can be in their various localities. The mem-"This plan does not involve the bers of this organization, while ing awakened to the importance of purifying politics.

"The Commoner will do its part in ment and in the nation. It does not of the people and the scrupulous en-

"The Commoner will also furnish all questions which are before the public

"Who will be the first to make this

"The Commoner will be pleased to hearty response to the above proposi-

THE PRIMARY PLEDGE

I promise to attend all the primaries of my party to be held between now and the next democratic national convention, unless unavoidably prevented, and to use my influence to secure a clear, honest and straightforward declaration of the party's position on every question upon which the voters of the party desire to speak.

Signed
--------	--	--

Street...... Postoffice..... State..

County Voting precinct or ward.....

Fill out blanks and mail to Commoner Office, Lincoln, Neb.