asks that an Abraham Lincoln democrat be defined. That's as easy as twice two. The best definition of democracy was given by Lincoln in his Gettysburg speech, and a Lincoln democrat is one who believes in that sort of government and does all in his power to bring it about. We have never had it yet except in theory.

A. C. Clark, Blacksburg, Ga.—Find herewith primary pledge with sixty signatures. These are all staunch democrats and can be depended upon to work for democratic principles.

William Wren, Austin, Tex.—editor Epitomist Cotton Journal—I take pleasure in enclosing to you signed, my primary pledge. My attention has been called to it by hundreds of my readers in the Cotton Belt, on my trips after conditions of crops. My Journal is devoted almost entirely to the cotton crop, circulating among some 12,000 up to date. I am so favorably impressed with your idea I will republish it as it stands, asking readers to sign it and forward to your Lincoln office.

M. J. Warner, Whitehall, Wis.—please find enclosed primary pledge list containing the names of thirty-six good true democrats who believe in democratic principles and that The Commoner is doing good work in opening the eyes of the working and producing class to the fact that the G. O. P. is owned, body and soul, by the beneficiaries of special privileges, and that they need never expect a redress of their grievances except through a government run on the Jeffersonian principle of equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

John N. Davis, Argos, Ind.—Enclosed find signature to the primary pledge. I am sixty-two years old, and do not get from home much, but would like to see The Commoner read by every voter in the United States.

John M. Massey, Batesville, Ark.—Please add my name to your list of pledgers. I am in full sympathy with the work done by Mr. Bryan and The Commoner.

F. B. Garrett, Burns City, Ind.—Enclosed find primary pledge signed by twenty-three of those who believe in Bryan democracy and who believe in an honest distribution of the wealth that is created each year by those who labor. We would like to see Rockefeller, Rogers & Company have to talk and talk the truth. If I had the time I would like to do more for the cause.

L. J. Wall, Yuma, Tenn.—Find enclosed the primary pledge signed by L. J. Wall. I am a silver democrat.

The following have sent in primary pledges in number as follows: J. M. Gates, Palestine, W. Va., 35; Alvin L. Elkins, Hewett, W. Va., 35; Wilson Stalling, Yantus, W. Va., 35; S.
