President Roosevelt has removed from office John D. Oliphant, register; J. E. Trotter, receiver, and I. J. Chapman, clerk, of the land office at Mangum, Oklahoma, for irregularities in office.

An Associated Press dispatch from New York follows: "Indictments charging grand larceny in the first degree and forgery in the third degree by Frederick A. Burnham, president; George D. Eldredge, first vice-president, and George Burnham, Jr., second vice-president of the Mutual reserve Life Insurance company, were found by the grand jury today. In all five indictments were brought against each officer, two for grand larceny and three for forgery."

A battle took place between the American forces and Moros, near Jolo, Philippine islands. Fifteen enlisted men were killed and thirty-two were wounded. The Moros lost 600 men.

Charles Moyer, William D. Haywood and George A. Pettibone, of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with the murder of former Governor Steunenburg, were arraigned at Boise, Idaho.

H. H. Rogers and John R. Archbold of the Standard Oil company held a conference with President Roosevelt at the White House. The purpose of their visit is not publicly known.

A dispatch from Madisonville, Kentucky, to the Chicago Record-Herald, follows: "Garth Tompkins, a murderer, will be executed in the circuit court room here upon order of Judge Fleming M. Gordon. The date of Tompkins' execution is fixed for March 16, and it had been arranged to hang him on a vacant lot near the courthouse, but the people protested, saying it would bring disgrace to the town. Judge Gordon was appealed to and decided to have the execution take place inside the courtroom. The scaffold will be built over the judge's stand. This probably will be the only execution under such circumstances on record."

Secretary Bonaparte has sent in estimates for $120,000,000 for navy appropriations for 1906-7. Members of the house naval committee say they have cut these appropriations $20,000,000 and that more paring will be done.

The New York papers says that H. H. Rogers and other Standard Oil officials have promised to testify in the Missouri case if the attorney general of Missouri will agree not to call John D. Rockefeller to the stand.

The Iowa state senate has passed an anti-pass bill. This prohibits railroads, street railways, telegraph and telephone companies from issuing passes and franks to any public officials. It excepts the railroad commissioners and newspapers.

Miss Susan B. Anthony died March 13, at her home in Rochester, N. Y.

Chairman Shonts of the isthmian canal commission, appearing as a witness before the senate committee was asked whether he intended to continue to hold his office as president of the Clover Leaf railroad. He answered that he had talked with Mr. Roosevelt on the subject and that the president had said that there would be no objection to his holding the presidency of the railroad if he served without salary,—that is, if he was merely the nominal president. He said he would do whatever the president asked him to do. Mr. Shonts said that he now receives no pay as president of the Clover Leaf.

Mr. Hale of Maine addressed the senate in opposition to increasing the army in time of peace.

Speaking in the senate Mr. Hale of Maine declared that the general staff of the army had prepared plans for the invasion of China by the American army. He declared that if it was not for the fact that Elihu Root is sitting on the lid, war with China would be imminent.

Andrew Hamilton, the insurance lobbyist who has been "detained" by illness in Paris, surprised people generally by suddenly returning to New York. It is said that the family of the late John A. McCall want him to tell the whole truth concerning his disbursements of more than one million dollars of insurance funds. Mr. McCall's friends say that if he will make a clean breast of everything he will do much to clear McCall's memory.

The French cabinet has resigned, and their resignations have been accepted by President Fallieres. The resignations are due to the minister's defeat in the chamber of deputies over the church question.

The statehood bill met with material amendment in the senate. The measure as it has passed the senate provides for the admission of a new state to be called Oklahoma and to be composed of the territories of Oklahoma and Indian territory. All the provisions relating to Arizona and New Mexico were stricken out. Senator Burrows made the motion to strike, and it was carried by a vote of thirty-seven to thirty-five.

The fight in the republican party between Governor Cummins and Editor Perkins, both candidates for governor, is growing extremely bitter.

President Roosevelt has removed from office Horace Speed, United States district attorney for Oklahoma, as a result of charges preferred against him.

The New Jersey state senate has defeated the proposition to investigate state banking departments. Thirty of the forty-nine senators present voted against the investigation.

President Roosevelt has approved the joint resolution instructing the interstate commerce commission to examine into the subject of railroad rate discriminations, and monopolies of coal and oil. In giving his approval to the measure the president said that he had signed it with hesitation because he thinks it will accomplish little. He said that if the

I CURE RUPTURE.

When I say cure, I do not mean simply hold, but a Cure that is a cure in every sense of the word,—a Cure that stays cured and does away with the use of all trusses or supports forever.
