A dispatch from Pittsburg to the Chicago Record-Herald follows: "According to a cablegram received here today from Porto Rico, the resignation of Federal Judge Charles F. McKenna was caused by a report that Judge McKenna had borrowed $800 from one of the litigants in his court. Judge McKenna left San Juan yesterday, and on the same steamer was a committee from the bar association of the island, bound for Washington, to lay the facts before the president. Judge McKenna, in an interview, admitted that he had borrowed the money, but declared that there was nothing wrong about his act. He will defend his action before the president, with his opponents there to hear it. Pittsburg friends of Judge McKenna expressed the greatest surprise at his act."
