IOWA DEMOCRATS

The third annual banquet of the Iowa Democratic club will be given at the Savery hotel, Des Moines, April 6, 1907, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. It will be noted the date has been changed from the 2d to the 6th. This change was necessary to accommodate the speakers.

This banquet will not be a formal invitation affair but will be open to all, and Iowa democrats are cordially invited to attend.

Those who will be present are expected to notify the president, the treasurer, or the secretary not later than March 20 and to remit the price of plate, $1.50, at that time, this to insure a seat at the banquet.

W. J. Bryan; Hoke Smith, governor of Georgia; Tom L. Johnson, mayor of Cleveland, and probably Mayor Dunne, of Chicago, will be present and make addresses. If Mr. Dunne is unable to attend, Governor Johnson of Minnesota may be secured in his stead.

Endeavor to be present and help to make this meeting a big success. And tell your friends about it.

H. C. Evans, Des Moines, president; J. S. Cunningham, Knoxville, treasurer; A. R. McCook, Elma, secretary.

IDENTIFYING HIMSELF

The game warden of Colorado was walking out in the mountains when he met a hunter with his gun. The official suggested that that ought to be a good country for hunting. "It certainly is," said the hunter proudly. "I killed one of the finest bucks yesterday I ever saw and he weighed over two hundred." It was the season when deer may not be shot without subjecting the hunter to a heavy fine. "Well, that is a fine one," said the warden, "and do you know who you are talking to?" Being assured that he did not, the official said: "Why, I am the chief game warden of Colorado." The hunter was only taken aback for a moment, when he asked: "And do you know who you are talking to?" The warden didn't know. "Well, sir," said the hunter, apparently much relieved, "you are talking to the biggest liar in the whole state of Colorado."—Exchange.

HAS 1 CENT FOR MORGAN

If Mr. John Pierpont Morgan, of Broad and Wall streets, will acknowledge the letter sent him by State Treasurer Hauser recently he can make one cent.

Mr. Morgan recently sent his check for $122.23 to the state comptroller in payment of taxes on land he owns in the Adirondacks. The routine of checking up his obligation brought to light the fact that Mr. Morgan only owed $122.22.

The comptroller notified the state treasurer, and the latter sent Mr. Morgan a letter today advising him of the fact. As soon as Mr. Morgan replies the state treasurer will send him a check five inches long by two inches deep for the sum of 1 cent.—New York World.

THE COMMONER

This admirable weekly newspaper has just turned its seventh mile post, and is as bright and true to the people as when it first appeared in the firmament of newspaperdom.

The general tone and policy of The Commoner are commendable and consistent. The editor, Hon. William Jennings Bryan, has never failed to champion the cause of the wage man, and to encourage a more perfect union of their organization throughout the world.

We extend warmest greetings to our valued and esteemed contemporary of Nebraska; and invite the editor to visit Norfolk, especially this year of our greater-centennial of the first English settlement in this country. Long live The Commoner.—The Norfolk, Virginia, Unionist.

SMOKE IS COSTLY

Charles A. Stevens, a merchant of State street, Chicago, declares that the smoke nuisance costs Chicagoans more than $40,000,000 annually, and that the damage to the stock of the State street merchants caused by black smoke exceeds $2,000,000 annually. His address was part of a symposium on the "Smoke Nuisance," as a first step in the direction of the launching by clubwomen of a new crusade to bring about a strict enforcement of the anti-smoke nuisance ordinance. "I have made a careful investigation as to the amount of reductions made necessary in our house during last year because of goods being soiled," said Mr. Stevens, "and you may be surprised to know that the reductions that actually occurred in our house last year amounted to nearly $200,000, and I believe I would be perfectly safe in saying that the total reductions in prices made in State street annually because of black smoke would amount to close to $2,000,000." —Denver Republican.

"Letters to a Chinese Official"

Being a Reply to "LETTERS FROM A CHINESE OFFICIAL"

By William Jennings Bryan

"A superb vindication of Anglo-Saxon civilization and ideals, written by Mr. Bryan in answer to the famous 'LETTERS FROM A CHINESE OFFICIAL,' an inspiring and eloquent confession of faith in the standards and purposes of our race, and more particularly those of the American people, permeated with a wise and serene optimism. There are passages that no man can read without elevation of his moral nature."

FINE FARM LAND VERY CHEAP.

FOR SALE—A number of one-quarter, one-half and whole sections of farm land in Perkins county, Nebraska.

This land is all rich prairie land, every acre of which can be cultivated. The soil is black sandy loam and very productive.

The country is healthful, the land beautiful, and suited to diversified farming.

There are well improved farms, good neighbors, good schools, good churches, and a good town all in sight of this land.

This land is located from one to five miles from a thriving town on the Burlington railroad.

There are three other good towns in Perkins county.

45 BUSHELS OF CORN PER ACRE WAS RAISED LAST YEAR ON LAND ADJOINING THIS LAND.

50 BUSHELS OF WHEAT PER ACRE RAISED ON THE SAME KIND OF LAND IN THE SAME COUNTY IN 1906.

ALFALFA GROWS IN PROFUSION NEAR BY ON THE SAME KIND OF LAND.

For each year during the past three years the crops raised on land in Perkins county sold for more than the COST PRICE of the same land.

Farm this land one year and its present selling price would be doubled.

It is as productive as the best land in Iowa or Illinois. Sell 20 acres in those states and your money will buy a quarter section of the land I am offering for sale. Excellent water at a depth of 40 feet. No better country on earth for raising all kinds of stock.

Oats, barley, and rye are profitable crops. Do you want a farm while this land is within your reach? Cheap farm lands will soon be a thing of the past. A quarter section of this land will make a nice nest egg. I am offering this land for less than one-fourth what the same kind of soil is selling for 50 miles distant. I can verify every statement made above. If interested call on me or write for prices and detail descriptions. As an investment or for a home it will pay you to investigate. Co-operation with other agents solicited. Address
