

Texas Information Free

We are acquainted with all the land and all land propositions in Southern Texas (the irrigated section of the Lower Rio Grande Valley) and are prepared to furnish, free of charge, reliable information as to climate, soil, price and terms. If you are interested in any of the many bargains to be had in Texas lands, we will act as your agent and see that you buy land worth the money, and land that is adapted to what you want to use it for.

We can help you buy direct from the owner and thus save you the middleman's profit. We own and operate the Barber Plantation of 1,000 acres, and have no land for sale.

As locating agents and land appraisers we can be of service to prospective buyers. Correspondence solicited. Call on or address

A mutiny among the native constabularies in the Philippine Islands has been reported to Washington.

A Washington dispatch to the New York World says: "Rear Admiral Benjamin Peffer Lamberton, who served as chief of staff to Dewey at the battle of Manila Bay, has gone blind. The trouble started within a few months of the great fight, and the admiral's physician attributes the origin of the malady to the strain of that trying occasion. His sight is now irrecoverably gone but, surrounded by his family, he is rounding out his days in his pretty Washington home and interesting himself in church work, keeping up his cheerful attitude toward the world, beloved by everybody and, except for his one affliction, in perfect health and in possession of all his faculties."

Rabbi Wise of New York City addressed the conference of charities and corrections in session at Buffalo, N. Y. Without naming him, Rabbi Wise condemned Mr. Carnegie's libraries charity. "To call a man who has crushed his enemies singly and in groups a public benefactor is a lie," said he. "We need justice more than we need libraries."

An Associated Press dispatch from Des Moines, Iowa, says: "Corporal Lisle Crabtree this afternoon fatally shot Captain John C. Raymond, commanding officer of troop B, Second United States cavalry, at Fort Des Moines; then shot and seriously injured First Sergeant James H. Washburn and Corporal Elijah Such, who attempted to disarm him, and shot himself. Crabtree's injuries are not necessarily fatal, the bullet striking a rib above the heart and crushing it. Crabtree had been reprimanded by Captain Raymond because of his failure to report when his leave of absence had expired. He had spent the night in Des Moines, and was to have returned to his barracks at 7 a. m."

Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, was chosen president of the national conference of charities and corrections for 1910.

A quantity of rifles and ammunition, believed to be destined for Venezuelan revolutionists was discovered and seized by United States authorities at Franklin, Va. Two steamers upon which the goods were to be shipped have been taken charge of by the government.

Dr. Alfonso Morales Penna, president of Brazil, died after a two weeks illness.

A dispatch from Madison, Neb., to the Lincoln (Neb.) Journal says: "S. E. Sparks, a cousin of ex-Sheriff George W. Losey, has on exhibition here Nebraska Queen, reputed to be the largest horse in the world. It is 20 hands and one inch high; 11 feet 8 inches in length. The animal wears a 38-inch collar, and weighs 2,890 pounds."

General John F. Kountze, former national commander of the G. A. R. died at Toledo, Ohio. A Toledo, Ohio, dispatch carried by the Associated Press says: "General Kountze was widely known among G. A. R. men as the 'drummer boy of Mission Ridge.' General Kountze earned the title when, a drummer boy of fifteen, he seized a musket and joined in the charge at Missionary Ridge, losing his leg. While national commander in 1884, acting with General Rosecrantz, General Kountze obtained from the pope a decision freeing the G. A. R. from question as a secret society."

Francis E. Leupp, the Indian commissioner, has resigned on account of ill health. He will be succeeded by Robert G. Valentine.
