AMERICAN HOMESTEAD

Established 1883. Published Monthly at Lincoln, Nebraska. Fifty Cents Per Year

A National Farm Journal Devoted to Each and Every Interest of the American Farmer

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

I have purchased THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD of Omaha, Nebr., established in 1883, one of the oldest general farm papers in the United States. Hereafter it will be published monthly at Lincoln, Nebraska.

I am not content to have it called "one of the oldest"—it will also be made the best general farm paper in the whole country.

Is Just What a Farm Paper Should Be

THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD will be all that a farm paper should be, and it will be different from any other farm paper published. It will contain matter that farmers are interested in, written in plain every day English; written in bright, brief, crispy, interesting style. No long drawn-out technical articles—everything boiled down—no waste of words—just the meat in the cocoon for the busy farmer—just the things he wants to help him in his every day life and work.

THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD is a general farm paper, not sectional or provincial—not for corn raisers alone, nor for fruit raisers alone, nor for wheat raisers alone, nor to stock breeders alone, nor to poultry raisers alone—but to all of them, all together, all the time, everywhere that farmers do farming in the United States.

THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD will be devoted to the task of helping the American farmer, no matter where located, how to make more money, and to improve his condition in life. It will inform, suggest and instruct at every turn. It will contain bright, interesting departments, filled full of good, sensible, practical, profitable suggestions for the farmer, his wife and his children. It will teach better ways of doing things, latest methods, and how to improve farm life.

THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD will be on the lookout for everything for the farmer. It will act as his agent in gathering every bit of information that will be useful to him, help to interest and keep his children on the farm, help him to become intensely interested in

My Positive Guarantee

I hereby guarantee to refund the amount paid for a yearly subscription to The American Homestead to any subscriber who, after receiving three issues of the paper, is not satisfied that the information and suggestions contained in each and every issue are worth more than the amount paid for one year's subscription, and I will make no charge for the issues already received.

CHARLES W. BRYAN.

his work. It will select the best things from the agricultural press, covering every subject. It will give valuable information on every phase of practical and scientific farming.

Special Prizes to Farmers and Farmers' Wives

THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD will give special cash prizes every month to its subscribers for the best articles or suggestions on better ways of doing things, farm experiences, new devices, ways of making money and methods of doing it, etc. Prizes will also be given to the farmers' wives for household suggestions, favorite recipes, better ways of doing things in the farm-house and improving farm-home conditions.

THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD has made special arrangements with the Agricultural Colleges throughout the entire country whereby it will publish the results of the investigations and experiments at these colleges. It will publish the best articles and writings of their professors and experts on topics of every-day interest to you—just the information you want to find out and would willingly pay many dollars for. These colleges spend thousands of dollars finding out the best methods. You will save time and money by taking advantage of this educational work.

You Can Not Afford to Miss a Single Copy

THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD will surely interest you. It is just what you think a farm paper should be—just the kind of a paper you have always had in mind. Every month it will contain ideas and suggestions that will save money for you, make money for you, and show you how to get better results. You will be losing money by not sending in your subscription at once. We are so sure that it will benefit you, that we are willing to refund your money if, after receiving three issues, you are not satisfied that each and every issue contains matter that is worth more to you than the price of subscription. Read our binding guarantee.

THE AMERICAN HOMESTEAD will be sent to any address in the United States for 50 cents per year, or three years for $1. See special offer to Commoner readers.

CHARLES W. BRYAN, Proprietor.

The Commoner and The American Homestead, Both One Year for $1

By special arrangements with The American Homestead, we are able to include a year's subscription to that great farm paper, together with one year's subscription to The Commoner, for only $1, the regular yearly subscription price of The Commoner alone. If you already take The Commoner and want The American Homestead for one year, send us $1, and the date of your expiration will be extended one year.
