Eyeglasses Not Necessary

Eyesight Can Be Strengthened, and Most Forms of Diseased Eyes Successfully Treated Without Cutting or Drugging.

That the eyes can be strengthened so that eye glasses can be dispensed with in many cases has been proven beyond a doubt by the testimony of hundreds of people who publicly claim that their eyesight has been restored by that wonderful little instrument called "Actina."

"Actina" also relieves sore and granulated lids, iritis etc., and removes cataracts without cutting or drugging. Over 75,000 "Actinas" have been sold, therefore "Actina" is not an experiment, but a reliable method of treatment. "Actina" can be used by old and young with perfect safety. It is impossible to do harm with one. Every member of the family can use the one instrument for any form of disease of the Eye, Ear, Throat or Head. One will last for years, and is always ready for use. It will be sent on trial, postpaid. If you will send your name and address to the Actina Appliance Co., Dept. 351 N. 811 Walnut Str., Kansas City, Mo., you will receive, absolutely FREE a valuable book - Professor Wilson's Treatise on Disease.

At Eventide

Weary with play but with eyes aglow With love that the babies only know; Tired of roaming through room and hall;

Tired of answering each other's call—

So, when shadows of evening creep, And friends, the birdies, have gone to sleep,

Two tired kiddies come close to me, Perch each one on a favorite knee,

Nestle two heads on my willing breast,

Then sigh contented and sink to rest.

"From Widdleton to Waddleton is fourteen miles;

From Widdleton to Waddleton is fourteen miles.

From Widdleton to Waddleton, From Widdleton to Waddleton, From Widdleton to Waddleton is fourteen miles."

Shining brown eyes looking into mine,

Four loving arms that around me twine;

Two little hearts that are full of joy—

Goldenhaired girl and a sturdy boy— Of the giant days and the fairy times.

Thus does the eventide glide by Till the sandman closes each sleepy eye,

And sinking to sleep in my sheltering arm

I leave them to Him who will shield from harm.

"Rich man livin' in de city o' Jerusalem,

O, bless de Lam', O, bless de Lam',

Rich man livin' in de city o' Jerusalem,

O, bless de Lam'!"

Nestled in bed 'neath the covers warm,

Shielded from storms that would do them harm;

Two little kiddies are laid to rest When the sundown purple fades from the west.

And bending over their snow-white bed

I breathe a blessing upon each head. And answering shadow a message brings

That comes with rustle of angel's wings—

A message of love for my darlings there

Asleep and under the good Lord's care.

"Sleep, little babies, sleep, sleep, sleep;

God in His goodness keep, keep, keep. Dream happy dreams

While the starlight gleams, Sleep, little babies, sleep, sleep, sleep!"

The Good Fellows

One of the happiest Christmas ideas ever sprung was that of the "Good Fellows Club." It was given birth in a Chicago newspaper office and soon found response in numerous large cities. Simple enough, it brought joy and happiness to many a home on Christmas day—homes that but for the "Good Fellows" would have been cold and cheerless.

The Chicago newspaper—the Tribune, we believe—conceived the idea that there were a lot of "good fellows," men without family ties or homes, but with ample means, who would enjoy making children happy if only they knew where to find the children who were in need of Christmas cheer. The newspaper agreed to find the children if the "good fellows" would provide the Christmas cheer. The "good fellows" were not asked to send in any money; they were asked how many children each would undertake to make happy, and as fast as the responses came in the names of the children were furnished. It was each "good fellow's" duty to hunt up the children and see to it that they had a Merry Christmas.

And the "good fellows" were found in great numbers. They "fell for schem" in fine shape. All day Christmas well dressed "good fellows" with Christmas packs were circulating through the tenements of Chicago, Kansas City, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Louisville and other big cities, and they left behind them a trail of happiness that will never be erased from the memories of the "good fellows" or the little ones they made happy.

Huge touring automobiles piled full of Christmas "fixin's" rolled through the slums, while "good fellows" in costly raiment had more fun than they ever imagined could be crowded into one day. They learned a lesson that they will never forget—lessons of humanity—and they left behind them a legacy of happiness that will be stars in their crowns.

Here's to the "Good Fellows" everywhere. May their tribe increase, and may they have realized so much of joy in their Christmas day work that they will not wait for another Christmas.

And here's to the great newspaper that conceived the idea, and gave the "good fellows" an opportunity to enjoy themselves.

The Time Limit

When he swore off his habits bad He very little reckoned Resolves he made upon the first He'd break upon the second.

As Usual

"What did you get in your stocking Christmas morning?" "Nothing but my foot."
