

application was temporarily denied. As a resident of North Carolina, Senators Overman and Simmons and Representative Page of that state saw President Taft regarding it. The opinion was advanced at the interior department today that 'Mr. Shaw probably would be allowed to practice after a reasonable length of time.'

Here is a Washington dispatch carried by the Associated Press: "Patrick Peterson of Buxton, Ia., bored

Can't Do It

Heart affections will not get well of themselves; neither do they remain inactive. If the cause is not removed, they continue to grow in number and severity.

They are the outgrowth of exhausted nerve force, and the heart can not stop to rest, as do the other organs, and must continue to struggle until completely disabled, and—that's the end.

On the very first indications of heart trouble you can stop all progress and affect a cure by the use of the most effective heart remedy known. It builds up, feeds and strengthens the nerves and muscles of the heart, and restores it to perfect health.

"I had serious heart trouble, for two months my life seemed to hang by a thread, when my attention was called to Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I commenced taking the Heart Cure and Nervine, and in two months they restored me to comparatively good health."

REV. W. A. ROBINS, Port Elgin, Ont. The first bottle will benefit, if not, the druggist will return your money.

a hole in a new Lincoln penny, and was sorry about it after he realized that he had mutilated a 'coin of the realm' and wrote the following letter of apology to President Taft: 'President Taft, Washington, D. C.—Please find one cent which I bored a hole in and feel very sorry for it. Hoping you will forgive me. Yours truly, Patrick Peterson, Buxton, Iowa.'

In a speech delivered in the senate March 4, Senator Rayner of Maryland poked fun at Senator Burkett of Nebraska. Mr. Rayner read from Mr. Burkett's speech that he was not vain enough "to hope that I shall be able to do what Hamilton and Adams and Webster and the mighty Marshall could not do." Mr. Rayner paused for a moment after reading these lines. Then, glancing across the aisle where Mr. Burkett sat, he said: "Why not?" The senate burst into a roar of laughter.

A democratic proposition made March 3 to amend the tariff law threw the house in confusion and sent republican leaders scurrying about in order to control the situation. A bill exempting from the payment of tonnage vessels stopping at ports on the great lakes, having passed the senate, was taken up for consideration. Representative Hitchcock of Nebraska sought recognition from the chair with an amendment providing for a reduction of 25 per cent in the customs duties on Canadian goods. Chairman Payne of the committee on ways and means, taking alarm, proceeded down the aisle and to the chair of the speaker, where a hurried conference took place. Returning to the floor, Mr. Payne was recognized amid a noisy demand for recognition by Representative Hitchcock, who insisted he had a prior right to that claim. "From the standpoint of leadership," said the speaker, "the gentleman from New York seems to be the most conspicuous gentleman opposed to this bill on this side." Then, in order to head off further activity on the part of the democrats, Mr. Payne moved to recommit the measure and voted with his party to defeat his own motion, which was done, 110 to 160. The parliamentary status of the bill was then so advanced that under the rules there was nothing further to do except to put it upon its final passage and it was passed.

THE BABY IN COURT

Washington, February 26.—The millennium for woman has arrived; one of the fair sex has "sat on the bench" of the supreme court of the United States, while that august tribunal was engaged in the solemn performance of its duty under the constitution.

The honor fell to little Miss Wells, of Boston, granddaughter of Justice

Brewer. When she and her mother came to the court yesterday afternoon the grandfather left his place on the bench to join them on the seats reserved for the families of members. The three-year-old lassie is very fond of her grandfather and followed him as he started to go to the bench.

Finding the child beside him as he took his seat the associate justice took her on his knee. Probably such a spectacle had never been seen before in the 120 years' history of the court.

The other justices were interested. Justice Harlan hunted for some plaything to give the little visitor, but after a futile search of his pockets the best he could produce was a rubber band. The little New Englander snapped her august grandfather in the face with it, but he did not mind.
