Free Trip Around World

ON POST CARDS—100 FINE NEW VIEWS JUST OUT—COPYRIGHTED SERIES

Here are 100 new and distinct views on Colored Post Cards (no two alike) reproduced from original photographs, taken in all parts of the world by noted travelers.

These reproductions are not only wonderful from a mechanical and printer's art viewpoint, but are entertaining and instructive to each member of the family. The trip in this form is the most complete of any ever offered, and shows accurately, only points of interest and prominence at each place. We guarantee each and every view to be a true reproduction of genuine photographs, taken at each of the places listed below, and not a lot of pictures from any or no place with fictitious names or misleading titles.

To make this tour by rail, steamer, etc. would cost thousands of dollars and many months of hard travel.

We start on the journey at New York City, and after touching the most interesting points in this country, jump from San Francisco to the Hawaiian Islands, thence to Japan, and after traveling over the entire Eastern Continent, find ourselves at a point in Italy, from where we finally leave for New York City, the terminus of our delightful journey.
