NEW BOOK

A New, Complete Edition of Mr. Bryan's Speeches

Containing All of His Important Public Utterances

In two handy volumes. You can follow Mr. Bryan practically through his entire career, from his valedictory oration at Illinois College in 1881, through his early public life, his presidential campaigns, his world tours, his platform experiences, and his participation in meetings of organizations devoted to national progress, as well as international congresses for the promotion of the world's peace.

The subject matter of these speeches covers a wide range of topics, from the fundamental and vital problems of national and world life to the highest ideals of human endeavor. A handy means of reference to the student of social problems of the present and future.

A Brief Outline of Contents

In these volumes you will find all his important political speeches on the Tariff, Banking, Currency, Bimetallism, Income Tax, Money, the Silver Question, Imperialism, Colonialism, Government Ownership, The Trust Question, Guaranteed Deposits, Election of Senators by Direct Vote, Initiative and Referendum, Labor, 1908 Tariff Speech, State and Nation, etc., etc. Here you will find all his speeches in foreign lands, before the World's Peace Congress in London, in Cuba, Japan, England, etc., etc. These books contain his educational and religious lectures—The Price of a Soul, The Value of an Ideal, The Prince of Peace, Man, Missions, Faith, etc., etc.; his miscellaneous speeches—Character, Gray's Elegy, Memorial Day at Arlington, Receptions in Lincoln, his home city, at the White House Conference, on Commerce at the Taft-Bryan banquet, to His Neighbors, Tributes to Jefferson, Lincoln, etc., etc.

The Only Complete Collection

While Mr. Bryan's speeches, lectures and public addresses have appeared from time to time in different editions of his works, or have been issued in separate form, these two volumes contain the only authentic, complete and authoritative collection of all of his speeches ever issued. This is the first publication in book form of a complete collection of Mr. Bryan's speeches from his first entry in public life up to the present time.

This complete collection of speeches comes in two handsome volumes, cloth bound, 12m., gilt top, and printed in large clear type. Frontispieces showing Mr. Bryan at various stages, with biographical introduction by his wife, Mary Baird Bryan. Price per set, $2.00, in cloth binding, prepaid. Vice President Elias Fernandez Albano, acting president of Chile, died at Santiago from an attack of heart failure.

A Saratoga, N. Y., dispatch to the New York World says: "The current issue of postage stamps was condemned because of the colors by the National Association of Post-office Clerks at tonight's session of its eleventh annual convention. The colors were said to be hard on the eyes. A resolution was adopted favoring stamps with radically varying colors for different denominations in order to facilitate work at all offices."

W. C. Oatis, former governor of Alabama is dead.

Charles K. Hamilton, aviator, was seriously injured at the state fair grounds near Sacramento, Cal., by falling from his bi-plane.

Thirty lives were lost when a car ferry sank in Lake Michigan, near Ludington.

A Tulsa, Okla., dispatch carried by the Associated Press says: "Official recognition of the anti-race suicide tendencies of the people of Tulsa county, where the birth rate since statehood was established overwhelmingly exceeded the death rate, was taken when the county commissioners adopted the stork as the emblematic bird of the county. A heroic statute of the well known Rooseveltian bird will adorn the new court house, which is to be built at once."

Lloyd W. Bowers, solicitor general, is dead.

Governor Shallenberger of Nebraska has announced that he will not be a candidate for governor on the populist ticket. He says that if the recount now going on shows that Mr. Dahlman defeated him for the democratic nomination he will retire from the race. This will necessitate the nomination by the populist committee of a populist candidate for governor.

The Connecticut democrats have nominated the following state ticket: For governor—Simon E. Baldwin of New Haven; for lieutenant governor, Andrew J. Broughel, Jr., of Hartford. For secretary of state—Zalmon Goodsell, Bridgeport. For attorney general—Talcot H. Russell, New Haven.

A Montreal dispatch carried by the Associated Press says: "A religious pageant as rich in devotional emotion as in sacred imagery, and as orderly in behavior as it was diverse in nationality and huge in size, closed the twenty-first international eucharistic congress held this year for the first time in the Dominion of Canada. Visitors from the United States were especially impressed with the magnitude, splendor and reverence of the procession, which marched four miles through the city streets, the host at its head, to Mt. Royal, above the city. A modest estimate is that there were 100,000 in line and that 500,000 viewed it from where best they could. The city is so crowded that 200,000 are sleeping on the slopes of Mt. Royal, in Dominion Square and in other city parks. It took the long and brilliant file four and a half hours to pass the city hall, and though it began to move at noon from Notre Dame it was 7 o'clock when the papal delegate, Cardinal Vincent Vannutelli, placed the host, housed in a golden monstrance, on the altar of the repository built for it at the foot of the mountain."

Gold bullion valued at $57,500 was stolen from the steamship Humboldt while on the way from Alaska to Seattle.

Governor Haskell of Oklahoma, announced that the prohibition question will be submitted to popular vote.
