Los Angeles. The next meeting place may be chosen by the executive council.

Frank A. Munsey has purchased the New York Press, a morning newspaper, and it will support Theodore Roosevelt.

A Greensboro, N. C., dispatch says: Whether or not a newspaper incorporated under the state laws "for the purpose of promoting republican doctrine and espousing the candidates of that party," has a right to lend its editorial support and influence to the Roosevelt and Johnson ticket is to be determined in the North Carolina courts. The first step in the litigation will be taken when a minority of the stockholders of the State Dispatch of Burlington, N. C., will petition Judge Whedbee to restrain the majority stockholders and the editor of the paper from publishing editorials or articles supporting the national progressive cause.

Aviator Howard W. Gill of Baltimore, Md., was killed on the aviation grounds at Chicago. His monoplane collided with another seventy-five feet in the air.

An Associated Press dispatch from Denver says: William J. Bryan opened his campaign in the west in behalf of Woodrow Wilson and the democratic national ticket. Arriving in Denver early in the evening for a brief vacation at Grand Lake, Colo., he denounced both William T. Taft and Theodore Roosevelt as unworthy of election to the presidency. Mr. Bryan spoke vigorously against the third term.

"It would open a door which no man might be able to close," he declared.

Mr. Bryan's argument against Taft was that he is not in harmony with the progressive spirit of the day. "He already has been repudiated by a majority of his own party," he said, "so that he can not hope to poll more than one-third of the vote of the country, if that large a proportion."

The speaker disputed Roosevelt's right to the leadership of the progressive movement.

"The democratic party was fighting for all the national reform measures when Mr. Roosevelt was opposing them," he declared. "Roosevelt's position on the trust question and on the third term are dangerous to the country."

He dwelt at length on Roosevelt's attitude on the trusts and his relations to George W. Perkins and the United States Steel corporation.

In advocating the election of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Bryan commended the democratic platform as representing all the reforms for which the people are ready. He urged the support of Wilson as the man prepared to put these reforms into execution.

Washington News

President Taft celebrated his fifty-fifth birthday with his aunt, Miss Delia Torrey, at Millbury, Mass.

Robert G. Valentine, commissioner of Indian affairs, has resigned his office and announces that he will support Roosevelt.

A meeting of the republican national committee will be held for the purpose of disciplining or expelling those members that are not loyal to Taft.

An Associated Press dispatch says: The Southern Pacific Railroad company has asked the state department at Washington to protect its interests in Mexico it was announced at the office of the chairman of the executive committee of the railroad. It was a formal statement issued telling of telegrams received by the company declaring that bodies of rebels varying from 100 to 3,000 were pillaging the country, cutting telegraph wires and burning railroad bridges.

More than two miles of bridges have been burned during the past ten days, according to these telegrams. In one instance, according to the dispatches, the rebels captured a passenger train, loaded the passengers into one coach, carried it to within seven miles of Naco and dropped it into Naco by gravity. The locomotive was then disabled.

The telegrams, five in number, have been placed before the state department at Washington by the Washington attorneys of the railroad, it was stated at the office of the chairman of the executive committee and a formal demand for protection, based upon them, had been made.

A United Press dispatch says: One immediate result of the resignation of Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine to join the progressives is expected to be the publication of the report of Secretary of the Interior Fisher on the religious garb controversy. Valentine denied to Catholic teachers on the Indian reservations the right to wear their costumes, but soon afterward President Taft revoked the order and directed Fisher to investigate. His report has been in the hands of the president several months and it is now expected it will be made public.

An Associated Press dispatch says: Presidential candidates in the pre-convention fight of last spring have furnished to Chairman Clapp, of the senate campaign expenditures committee, names of the men who handled their campaign funds. The financial managers have agreed to appear before the committee when its hearings begin September 30. Senator Bankhead will appear for Oscar W. Underwood; Former Sena-

FLORIDA FARMS
 That Produce Twenty Profitable Crops

There are few parts of the world which offer the agricultural opportunities that we are offering on our ARTESIAN FARMS, situated in Clay County, Florida. Of all Florida this is the locality which will increase in value the quickest. Here is a place to come with your family and establish a home, and if you will put forth the same effort that you are now doing where you are located, you can quickly grow wealthy for you can select one of twenty or more profitable crops that will make you money every year without a failure. This is not a new and wild country, but is in the heart of population, education and refinement. Land values are naturally growing rapidly, and these farms that we are now offering you for $35.00 an acre will bring $100.00 an acre before you realize it. We make this statement regarding this territory because we are convinced of its coming greatness.

DO NOT COMPARE THIS LAND WITH EXPLOITERS' PROPOSITIONS

The rainfall in this section is ample. The climate is all that could be desired. In fact, here everything that tends to success seems to be pretty well blended. Please do not compare our region in Florida with the numerous localities now being exploited in the public press. We are not a drainage proposition but our land is ready for you to move on and we are glad for you to come as soon as possible. You can immediately begin to grow crops from which you in a very short time can realize large profit. Our soil is a dark sandy loam and is underlaid with a clay sub-soil. We have water and rail transportation. We are within ten to twenty miles of the growing city of Jacksonville. We want agents for this land and we want buyers.
