Office of the Chairman

FARGO, N. D.,

Sept. 23, '12

Dear Sir:

The proposition made by the management of Bryan's Commoner to send that paper to the voters from now until election for the sum of fifteen cents to each subscriber, is one of the best that has come to our notice in this campaign.

This is a proposition that ought to be eagerly accepted by every democratic organization in North Dakota.

A good way is to go out and take subscriptions, and whenever you find a citizen whose heart is in the cause, get him to pay for six or a dozen subscriptions to his friends. You could also appropriate a small sum out of your organization fund to supply Commoners to those who can not be reached in any other way.

We can win North Dakota for democracy this time if we can only work up the proper amount of enthusiasm.

If you have any democrats in your bunch that are suffering from sleepiness, indifference or inertia, get after them with a sharp stick and chase them out after Commoner subscriptions. And tell them not to show their faces at headquarters until they have at least fifty each. Give it as an order, not as a request. It is a patriotic duty.

Yours very truly,

CARL NELSON,
DEMOCRATIC PRESS BUREAU.

N. B. J. B. Fried of Jamestown sent out 700 copies of the Commoner in Stutsman County. That's going some.

A rate of 12½ cents for single subscriptions (from now until the campaign closes) will be made to all democratic organizations sending in clubs of 10 or more to The Commoner.

BOOSTING THE COMMONER CIRCULATION

J. Adamson, Pilot Mound, Ia.—Find enclosed list of 42 campaign subscribers to The Commoner and draft to pay for the same. I have been a reader of The Commoner from its first issue and have always taken pleasure in securing new subscribers for the paper—I shall continue to do so as long as the paper fights the people's battle. Mr. Bryan's work at the Baltimore convention is a crowning event in his battle in the interest of common humanity. Long life to The Commoner.

Jno. Mahon, Chairman Democratic County Committee, Cavalier Co., N. D.—Herewith find check for $31.00 to pay for the enclosed club of campaign subscribers. In this we feel that we are doing missionary work for the democratic party. Please send The Commoner to each address at once and then regularly each week until after the election. We hope to increase this subscription list in all parts of the county through the committeemen. We expect to carry the state for Wilson next November.

Dr. T. C. Harter, Bloomsburg, Pa.—Enclosed find the balance of a club of 125 campaign subscribers to The Commoner from old Columbia county. I have good hopes that Pennsylvania will go for Wilson. Taft will not be in it.

J. M. Frame, Valdez, Alaska—Herewith find draft to pay for the enclosed club of 35 yearly subscriptions to The Commoner.

Fred Denham—I hand you herewith my check for the enclosed club of subscribers, which includes each committeeman from my ward in Chicago. If possible send them a few numbers of The Commoner containing the article analyzing the progressive party movement, its platform and candidates; deduction in this article is so clear and precise and yet unbiased, recommending all that is good of the new party and denouncing the unwholesome features of the same, as I believe that it will be of educational value with the democratic committeemen in their daily talks with voters of the district.

Clyde Clovis, Secretary Democratic Organization of Lewis County, Idaho—I hand you herewith names of 300 subscribers, who are voters in Lewis county, Idaho, to whom send The Commoner until the close of the campaign.

C. O. Dill, Secretary County Committee, Spokane, Wash.—Enclosed find names of 33 campaign subscribers with draft to pay for the same. Other names will follow as rapidly as we get them.
