A New York dispatch, carried by the Associated Press, says: Edward F. Mylius, the English journalist, convicted of libeling King George of England and detained by the immigration authorities at Ellis island, received permission from Federal Judge Cox to enter the United States. Judge Noyes sustained a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Noyes in his decision held that Mylius was not convicted "of a crime involving moral turpitude." "It is proper to emphasize," he said, "that no conclusion which I may reach in interpreting these immigration statutes can be regarded as in the slightest degree minimizing the serious character of the petitioner's acts as disclosed, nor reflecting in any way upon the fairness and regularity of his trial. If the petitioner be discharged it will be solely because I regard the offense of criminal libel as not involving in its inherent nature moral 'turpitude.'"

Mylius left Ellis island, declaring that he was ready for a new start in life.

"The action of the court in freeing me is a slap at the aristocracy of England and at all forms of monarchy," he said. "No one can regard the action as a means of upholding the aristocracy. For me it amounts to a vindication."

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bed-ridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. If, after you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today. Mark H. Jackson, No. 300, Alhambra Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y.
