The Alaska legislature passed a bill granting votes to women. The bill exempts women from jury duty.

Chief of Police Fred Kohler of Cleveland, O., has been found guilty of immorality and has been dismissed from the police force.

A Montreal dispatch, carried by the United Press says: What the French Canadian residents of this city are already calling the "new miracle" was given its first demonstration when Marie DuBois, twenty years old, one of Dr. Friedmann's first tuberculosis patients treated here eight days ago, was pronounced on the road to permanent recovery by her own regular physician, Dr. Ethler.

Miss DuBois was a sufferer from tuberculosis glands. So far advanced was the disease at the time of her treatment by Dr. Friedmann that she lay helpless in bed, unable to move, or to open her mouth for food without assistance. Now she is walking around her house with the swelling of the glands and all pain gone. Dr. Ethler was amazed, but after careful examination declared that the cure would be permanent.

A United Press dispatch from New York says: Dr. F. F. Friedmann treated twenty more cases of bone tuberculosis at Mount Sinai hospital before a clinic of government and practicing physicians. He chose those cases whose record he had been studying for several days. After the demonstration he went to the hospital for deformities and studied the charts of additional cases for his clinic.

The German scientist expressed himself as pleased, but in no way surprised at the reports brought him of the progress of the earlier cases he treated. He said he was so used to such results in Germany that he could not be expected to be excited about them.

Three physicians, who said they represented the health board of Philadelphia, called on Dr. Sturm, Friedmann's assistant and said that Governor Tener was ready to sign a special license for Dr. Friedmann if he would come to Philadelphia. With such a license he could treat any number of cases and not be bound by the restrictions imposed on him in New York. Dr. Sturm replied that Dr. Friedmann could not afford to leave New York until he was through with the test cases he had undertaken, but that the proposition would be considered later.

An Associated Press cablegram says: King George I. of Greece was assassinated as he walked a street of Salonica accompanied by his aide. The murderer was captured and said simply he was against governments. The ruler lived but a few minutes after the fatal shot was fired. The death of the king threw many European courts into mourning. King Constantine, his son, succeeds to the throne.

A London cablegram to the Louisville Courier-Journal says: In the house of commons one of the unionist members declared "it is a disgrace to a civilized country that women be allowed to boast that they are criminally conspiring to break the law."

An Associated Press dispatch under date of March 18th says: Secretary of State Bryan, in his address here last night at the St. Patrick's day banquet of the Irish Fellowship club, reiterated his words of Saturday at the St. Patrick's banquet in Washington.

"Two years from now Ireland will be celebrating home rule," he said. "There is every reason to believe that the house of commons in London will pass the bill again and make it law."

Mr. Bryan declared the victory for Ireland would be a victory for the world and would mark the end of aristocratic rule.

"When the house of lords is compelled to bow to the people," said Mr. Bryan, "it will mean the beginning of home rule for the whole earth. It will be a tremendous triumph for Ireland, and her part in the great struggle will be gratefully remembered by every country that is struggling for freedom.

"The victory of this great principle will not be acceptable at first, perhaps to Great Britain and Scotland, but they will in the end find that it is immensely to their benefit."

Mr. Bryan confined his address to congratulations on the prospect of home rule. He did not refer at any
