of the two per centum bonds so tendered: Provided, That at the time of ity of such one-year notes, an amount or in both, at the option of the mem- in reserve banks due to member equal to those delivered in exchange ber bank. for such bonds, if so requested by the Federal reserve bank, to purchase from the United States such an amount of one-year notes as the Secretary may tender to such bank, not lows: to exceed the amount issued to such gold bonds; said obligation to purchase at maturity such notes shall exceed thirty years.

For the purpose of making the exchange herein provided for the Seccoupon or registered form as he may amount permanently required. prescribe in denominations of one thereof, bearing interest at the rate of three per centum per annum, payfrom the date of their issue in gold coin of the present standard value, and to be exempt as to principal and interest from the payment of all taxes and duties of the United States exunder State, municipal, or local authorities. And for the same purpose, bank. the Secretary is authorized and emfrom date of issue, such bonds to be of the same general tenor and effect and to be issued under the same general terms and conditions as the United States three per centum of. bonds without the circulation privilege now issued and outstanding.

Upon application of any Federal reserve bank, approved by the Federal Reserve Board, the Secretary Federal reserve bank, at its option. Federal Reserve Board may authormay issue at par such three per

BANK RESERVES

Sec. 19. Demand deposits within the meaning of this Act shall comprise all deposits payable within thirty days, and all savings accounts subject to not less than thirty days' notice before payment.

When the Secretary of the Treasury shall have officially announced, in such manner as he may elect, the establishment of a Federal reserve bank in any district, every subscribing member shall establish and maintain reserves as follows:

mand deposits and five per centum of its time deposits, as follows:

six months after said date fivethereafter four-twelfths.

district, for a period of twelve sion of the Federal Reserve Board. months after said date, two-twelfths which shall be the amount permanently required.

natonal banks in reserve or central pay any dividends unless and until of the lines of credit which are being clation to meet its obligations, or

After said thirty-six months' fully restored. such exchange the Federal reserve period said reserves, other than those with the Secretary of the Treasury the Federal reserve bank, shall be shall be taken as the basis for ascerbinding itself to purchase from the held in the vaults of the member taining the deposits against which re-United States for gold at the matur-bank or in the Federal reserve bank, serves shall be determined. Balances

(b) A bank in a reserve city, as Secretary, and at each maturity of now or hereafter defined, shall hold one-year notes so purchased by such and maintain reserves equal to fifteen per centum of the aggregate amount States may remain nonmember banks. House thereof or by any committee of its demand deposits and five per and shall in that event maintain re- of Congress or of either House daily centum of its time deposits, as fol-

In its vaults for a period of thirtybank in the first instance, in exchange six months after said date six- Philippine Islands, may, with the for the two per centum United States lifteenths thereof, and permanently consent of the Reserve Board, bethereafter five-fifteenths.

continue in force for a period not to district for a period of twelve months event, take stock, maintain reserves, three-fifteenths, and for each suc- visions of this Act. ceeding six months an additional one-hundred dollars or any multiple after said date the balance of the reserves may be held in its own vaults, tional-bank currency, and for other or in the Federal reserve bank, or in purposes," as provides that the fund able quarterly, such Treasury notes national banks in reserve or central deposited by any national banking to be payable not more than one year reserve cities as now defined by law.

all of said reserves, except those its notes shall be counted as a part of hereinbefore required to be held per- its lawful reserve as provided in the manently in the vaults of the member Act aforesaid, is hereby repealed. bank and in the Federal reserve And from and after the passage of cept as provided by this Act, as well bank, shall be held in its vaults or this Act such fund of five per centum as from taxes in any form by or in the Federal reserve bank, or in shall in no case be counted by any both, at the option of the member national banking association as a

(c) A bank in a central reserve powered to issue United States gold city, as now or hereafter defined, bonds at par, bearing three per shall hold and maintain a reserve centum interest payable thirty years equal to eighteen per centum of the aggregate amount of its demand deposits and five per centum of its time deposits, as follows:

In its vaults six-eighteenths there-

In the Federal reserve bank seveneighteenths.

The balance of said reserves shall centum bonds in exchange for the ceive from the member banks as re- ties to be accepted in the case of one-year gold notes herein provided serves, not exceeding one-half of each installment, eligible paper as described in section fourteen properly indorsed and acceptable to the said reserve bank.

If a State bank or trust company thirty days and time deposits shall is required by the law of its State to comprise all deposits payable after keep its reserves either in its own vaults or with another State bank or and certificates of deposit which are trust company, such reserve deposits so kept in such State bank or trust company shall be construed, within the meaning of this section, as if they were reserve deposits in a national bank in a reserve or central reserve city for a period of three years after the Secretary of the Treasury shall have officially announced the establishment of a Federal reserve bank (a) A bank not in a reserve or in the district in which such State central reserve city as now or here- bank or trust company is situated after defined shall hold and maintain Except as thus provided, no member reserves equal to twelve per centum bank shall keep on deposit with any of the aggregate amount of its de- nonmember bank a sum in excess of ten per centum of its own paid-up capital and surplus. No member In its vaults for a period of thirty- bank shall act as the medium or agent of a nonmember bank in applytwelfths thereof and permanently ing for or receiving discounts from a Federal reserve bank under the pro-In the Federal reserve bank of its visions of this Act except by permis-

The reserve carried by a member and for each succeeding six months bank with a Federal reserve bank of the Federal reserve agent or the an additional one-twelfth, until five- may, under the regulations and subtwelfths have been so deposited, ject to such penalties as may be prescribed by the Federal Reserve Board be checked against and withdrawn by For a period of thirty-six months such member bank for the purpose the bank examined. Such examinaafter said date the balance of the re- of meeting existing liabilities. Pro- tions shall be so conducted as to inserves may be held in its own vaults, vided, however, That no bank shall form the Federal reserve bank of the or in the Federal reserve bank, or in at any time make new loans or shall condition of its member banks and the date of the failure of such asso-reserve cities as now defined by law. the total reserve required by law is banks shall, to the extent herein provided, be counted as reserves.

or outside the continental United rected by Congress, or by either serves and comply with all the condi- authorized. tions now provided by law regulating them; or said banks, except in the at least once each year, order an excome member banks of any one of the In the Federal reserve bank of its reserve districts, and shall, in that serve Board shall order a special exafter the date aforesaid at least and be subjected to all the other pro- tion of any Federal reserve bank.

Sec. 20. So much of sections two For a period of thirty-six months amount of United States notes, providing for a redistribution of the anassociation with the Treasurer of the After said thirty-six months' period United States for the redemption of part of its lawful reserve.

BANK EXAMINATIONS

Sec. 21. Section fifty-two hundred and forty, United States Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

The Comptroller of the Currency, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall appoint examiners who shall examine every member bank at least twice in each calendar year and oftener if considered necesbe held in its own vaults or in the sary: Provided, however, That the Any Federal reserve bank may re- ize examination by the State authori-State banks and trust companies and or employee, or attorney or a member. may at any time direct the holding bank shall be a beneficiary of or reof a special examination of State banks or trust companies that are stockholders in any Federal reserve bank. The examiner making the examination of any national bank, or of any other member bank, shall have power to make a thorough examination of all the affairs of the bank and in doing so he shall have power to administer oaths and to examine any of the officers and agents thereof under oath and shall make a full and detailed report of the condition of said bank to the Comptroller of the Currency.

The Federal Reserve Board, upon the recommendation of the Comptroller of the Currency, shall fix the salaries of all bank examiners and make report thereof to Congress. The expense of the examinations herein provided for shall be assessed by the Comptroller of the Currency upon the banks examined in proportion to assets or resources held by the banks upon the dates of examination of the various banks.

In addition to the examinations made and conducted by the Compreserve bank may, with the approval special examination of member banks within its district. The expense of such examinations shall be borne by extended by them. Every Federal reserve bank shall at all times fur-In estimating the reserves required nish to the Federal Reserve Board bank obtaining such one-year gold hereinbefore required to be held in by this Act, the net balance of such information as may be demandnotes shall enter into an obligation the vaults of the member bank and in amounts due to and from other banks ed concerning the condition of any member bank within the district of the said Federal reserve bank.

> No bank shall be subject to any visitatorial powers other than such as are authorized by law or vested in the courts of justice or such as shall National banks located in Alaska be or shall have been exercised or di-

The Federal Reserve Board shall, amination of each Federal reserve bank, and upon joint application of ten member banks the Federal Reamination and report of the condi-

Sec. 22. No member bank or any officer, director, or employee thereof retary of the Treasury is authorized fifteenth, until six-fifteenths have and three of the Act of June twen- shall hereafter make any loan or to issue at par Treasury notes in been so deposited, which shall be the tieth, eighteen hundred and seventy- grant any gratuity to any bank exfour, entitled "An Act fixing the aminer. Any bank officer, director, or employee violating this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be imprisoned not exceeding one year or fined not more than $5,000, or both; and may be fined a further sum equal to the money so loaned or gratuity given. Any examiner accepting a loan or gratuity from any bank examined by him or from an officer, director, or employee thereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be imprisoned not exceeding one year or fined not more than $5,000, or both; and may be fined a further sum equal to the money so loaned or gratuity given; and shall forever thereafter be disqualified from holding office as a national-bank examiner. No national-bank examiner shall perform any other service for compensation while holding such office for any bank or officer, dire tor. or employee thereof.

Other than the usual salary or director's fee paid to any officer, director, or employee of a member bank and other than a reasonable fee paid by said bank to such officer, director, or employee for services rendered to such bank, no officer, director, ceive, directly or indirectly, any fee, commission, gift, or other consideration for or in connection with any transaction or business of the bank. No examiner, public or private, shall disclose the names of borrowers or the collateral for loans of a member bank to other than the proper officers of such bank without first having obtained the express permission in writing from the Comptroller of the Currency, or from the board of directors of such bank, except when ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by direction of the Congress of the United States, or of either House thereof, or any committee of Congress or of either House duly authorized. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $5,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

Except as provided in existing laws, this provision shall not take effect until sixty days after the passage of this Act.

Sec. 23. The stockholders of every national banking association shall be troller of the Currency, every Federal held individually responsible for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such association, each to the amount Federal Reserve Board, provide for of his stock therein, at the par value thereof in addition to the amount invested in such stock. The stockholders in any national banking association who shall have transferred their shares or registered the transfer theeof within sixty days next before