

producing documentary evidence before the commission or in obedience to the subpoena of the commission on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise required of him may tend to criminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture. But no natural person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he may testify, or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, before the commission in obedience to a subpoena issued by it: Provided, That no natural person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Sec. 10. That any person who shall neglect or refuse to attend and testify, or to answer any lawful inquiry, or to produce documentary evidence, if in his power to do so, in obedience to the subpoena or lawful requirement of the commission, shall be guilty of an offense and upon conviction thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Any person who shall wilfully make, or cause to be made, any false entry or statement of fact in any report required to be made under this act, or who shall wilfully make, or cause to be made, any false entry in any account, record, or memorandum kept by any corporation subject to this act or who shall wilfully neglect or fail to make, or to cause to be made, full, true, and correct entries in such accounts, records, or memoranda of all facts and transactions appertaining to the business of such corporation or who shall wilfully remove out of the jurisdiction of the United States, or wilfully mutilate, alter, or by any other means falsify any documentary evidence of such corporation, or who shall wilfully refuse to submit to the commission or to any of its authorized agents, for the purpose of inspection and taking copies, any documentary evidence of such corporation in his possession or within his control, shall be deemed guilty of an offense against the United States, and shall be subject, upon conviction in any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction, to a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, or to imprisonment for a term of not more than three years, or both such fine and imprisonment.

If any corporation required by this act to file any annual or special report shall fail so to do within the time fixed by the commission for filing the same, and such failure shall continue for thirty days after notice of such default, the corporation shall forfeit to the United States the sum of $100 for each and every day of the continuance of such failure which forfeiture shall be payable into the treasury of the United States, and shall be recoverable in a civil suit in the name of the United States brought in the district where the corporation has its principal office or in any district in which it shall do business. It shall be the duty of the various district attorneys, under the direction of the attorney general of the United States, to prosecute for the recovery of forfeitures. The costs and expenses of such prosecution shall be paid out of the appropriation for the expenses of the courts of the United States.

Any officer or employee of the commission who shall make public any information obtained by the commission without its authority, unless directed by a court, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 11. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to prevent or interfere with the enforcement of the provisions of the anti-trust acts or the acts to regulate commerce, nor shall anything contained in the act be construed to alter, modify, or repeal the said antitrust acts or the acts to regulate commerce or any part or parts thereof.

PRAISE FOR WILSON AND BRYAN

A correspondent writing in the Chicago Tribune pays tribute to President Wilson and Mr. Bryan, as follows:

"It has been quite the fashion to attack Mr. Bryan ever since 1906. Few men have been allotted as much newspaper space, and a good share of it unfavorable mention, in an effort to break him down. Mr. Bryan, however, has gone steadily forward, his influence probably growing instead of diminishing, until in the Baltimore convention he accomplished a feat which is likely unprecedented in history, in forcing the nomination of Wilson. Secretary Bryan is without doubt the most potent individual force in the world today, with as great a personal following as any man, and these men are all loyal to him without any expectation of reward or recognition. Time and space will not permit of the naming of political leaders, traducers of Mr. Bryan, who have during the last seventeen years fallen by the political wayside.

"Many of these same people who have been assailing Mr. Bryan are now attacking Mr. Wilson, notwithstanding his great service to the country in having brought about so much remedial legislation, prevented a war with Mexico, having handled the difficult problems willed to him from former administrations and conditions resulting from the war in Europe and Asia in most admirable fashion. The legislation accomplished by this administration has not been brought about by the so-called dictatorial policy of President Wilson, nor is the solidarity of the democratic party accounted for in this way. President Wilson is able to accomplish results because he is leading in a course approved by the people, whom he has taken into his confidence. Wilson and Bryan stand out stronger than ever as peace advocates at the present time because they have been earnest, consistent advocates of international peace for years."

WILSONGRAMS

Liberty does not consist, my fellow citizens, in mere general declarations of the rights of men. It consists in the translation of those declarations into definite action.

The way to be patriotic in America is not only to love America but to love the duty that lies nearest to our hand and know that in performing it we are serving our country.

It is patriotic to learn what the facts of our national life are and to face them with candor.

We set a nation up—at any rate, we professed to set it up—to vindicate the rights of men.

I would be ashamed of this flag (Stars and Stripes) if it ever did anything outside America that we would not permit it to do inside of America.

M'KINLEY'S COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY PREDICTS PROSPERITY

Charles G. Dawes of Chicago, comptroller of the currency under President McKinley and for many years a leading banker in the central district, says we're now on a period of great prosperity. He bases his prediction upon the banking situation, which promises to furnish needed elasticity to the currency; upon the good crops which must command a high price on account of the war; and upon general conditions which are undoubtedly favorable for a general revival of industry and commerce. The word of Mr. Dawes will command wide attention, especially in Nebraska where he is so well known as a safe financier and a sane observer of current events. There is ample reason for believing that his is a sound diagnosis of the situation. Business has been thrown into confusion by the sudden stoppage of foreign trade and the necessity of making an immediate re-arrangement of our financial relations with the old world. But foreign commerce has been by no means destroyed. Arrangements are virtually perfected for caring for our international obligations on terms that will yield us without doubt substantial and permanent profit. Money will be plentiful for all legitimate business enterprises in the immediate future. The outlook is so favorable that a general business advance is now justified. Several years of brisk trade seems to be assured, regardless of the outcome of the struggle abroad. —Nebraska State Journal (Rep.).

"Let it be now recalled that republican administrations for the last 20 years have licensed by law these monopoly privileges which now democrats and patriotic men of all parties alike condemn and seek refuge from in behalf of their oppressed countrymen." —Senator James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois.
