

CHRISTIAN MARTYRS GIVEN TO THE LIONS

CHRISTIANITY is the greatest fact in history. The early Christians endured martyrdom rather than forsake Principle. The picture shown herewith, from Ridpath's History, depicts 87,000 people assembled in the Coliseum at Rome to witness the Christians given to the lions. In such a scene may be read the inevitable doom of the Empire that ruled the world. The blood of the Martyrs is the seed from which Christian civilization sprang. If you would know the history of mankind—every sacrifice for principle, every struggle for liberty, every conflict and every achievement, from the dawn of civilization down to the present time—then embrace this splendid opportunity to place in your home the world-famed publication.

Ridpath's History of the World

Dr. John Clark Ridpath is universally recognized as the world's greatest historian. He was the friend and advocate of the masses of the common people. In 1896 he was the democratic nominee for congress in his home district and received the warm support of the Leader of the Party. Hundreds have already availed themselves of this remarkable opportunity to secure the greatest History of the World ever written. We have only a few sets of the last edition remaining, which we offer at a low price and on easy terms.

COMMONER READERS have shown wonderful appreciation of our remarkable offer. Ridpath's History of the World has been purchased and strongly endorsed by General Stephen D. Lee, Excommander Confederate Veterans; and by the Presidents of Brown, Bates, Amherst, Smith and practically all other American colleges and universities. Hundreds who read this have decided to buy Ridpath some day; now is the time. No need for us to tell you about Ridpath. The English-speaking world has pronounced this the only history of the world worth having. To read this history of the world will add to your store of knowledge, and to the richness of your life.

EVERY AMERICAN CITIZEN should know the history of his own country and of the world to intelligently perform his full duty as a citizen in the Government of This Nation. How else are we to judge of the great national questions that crowd upon us for decision except by some knowledge of the past. Our Foreign Policy, the Question of the Trusts, the respective rights of labor and capital—these and hundreds of other important questions press upon us as a nation for intelligent discussion and decision. How have such questions been met in the past? For the answer read the history of ancient civilizations which flourished, decayed and died. Read the history of mighty Babylon, or of imperial Rome, and familiarize yourself with her growth, development and decay. Read the history of the French Revolution, the establishment of the republic, out of which came the empire dominated by Napoleon. Then when you know the cause of the rise and downfall of empires and nations, and not until then, will you be able to intelligently discuss and decide the great questions that are pressing now everywhere for attention.
