Professor Ridpath's Graphic Style

Ridpath's style is clear and simple, yet glows with the fervency of the orator. He puts life in the dry bones of the past. When he writes the departed great are as real to you as your own neighbors. The great events of history pass before you in a series of living pictures. The great names of history—Alexander, Ceasar, Bismark, Washington—are names no longer; they are men, moving, breathing, pulsating with life and high purpose.

Six Thousand Years of History

Ridpath takes the reader back to the beginning of history, 400 years before the time of Christ, when man was little more than a savage; without clothes save the skins of beasts; without shelter save in caves and overhanging rocks, and traces his career down the highway of time, through the rise and fall of empires until he reaches the present civilization, harnessing the powers of earth and air to be his servants, whispering messages across continents and under oceans, crowning all with the glorious achievements of the nineteenth century. It is an inspiring story and Dr. Ridpath has told it better than it has ever been told before. Ridpath should be in your home. It is a work you will value as long as you live, and read over and over again. It will increase your fund of knowledge, and improve your power of conversation and ennoble your character.
