

ment," he began. "I can not tell you how shocked I was. I was positively chagrined. My fiancée was chagrined. We were all chagrined. How much for fifty copies of the paper?"—Argonaut.

Dainty Touch

"And her mean husband think's she's extravagant."

"Why?"

"Just because she insists on having Fido's monogram stamped on his dog biscuits."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Inside Information

Tommy—Mamma, have gooseberries got legs?

Mom—Of course not, Tommy.

Tommy—Then I've swallowed a caterpillar.—U. of V. Punch Bowl.

The Reason

"But why did you break off the match at the last moment?"

"Oh, the color of his hair clashed with everything in my trousseau."—London Answers.

Pointed Paragraphs

Some people think anything tiresome that is a duty.

It's easy for a man to get married if he doesn't want to.

Some women have a mania for collecting marriage certificates.

A woman can believe only half she hears when she chooses.

We imagine there are a lot of halos in heaven that won't be called for.

Instead of speaking his own mind many a man echoes his wife's.

It's a good thing to have a temper if you know how to handle it.

Good resolutions are now marked down to make room for spring styles.

Good looks may catch a man, but it takes good housekeeping to hold him.

A woman can adjust her figure to show up best at the point she wants it to.

If our neighbors would mind their own business we would be more apt to mind ours.

When a woman tries to describe a lecture it sounds as if she had been consulting her dressmaker.—Chicago News.

Tips from Texas

One reason why some people doubt if Shakespeare wrote Shakespeare is because he didn't have a diploma.

Our idea of a genius was the person who invented a way to sell gimcracks by calling them bric-a-brac.

It takes all sorts of people to make a world, including the town man who thinks he needs a bulldog.

Furthermore, if Fortune ever knocks at our door we are going to grab her around the neck, even if we get spattered with talcum powder.

The old-fashioned woman who never minded the weather so the wind didn't blow, now has a granddaughter who doesn't mind the wind if her skirt is short enough.—Dallas News.

Quaker Quips

There's nothing that will make troubles grow like telling them.

Many a man's downfall is caused by tripping over his good resolutions.

At any rate, the actress who is late in dressing can always make up for lost time.

Heredity is a curious thing. Lots of people have sunny natures in spite of shady ancestors.

One half of the world is probably just as well pleased that the other half doesn't know how it lives.

The honeymoon sometimes demonstrates that marriage is a failure almost as early in the season as the peach crop.—Philadelphia Record.

The Panama - California International Exposition

At SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

The EXPOSITION at San Diego in 1915 was considered a GEM OF BEAUTY, and was visited by more than 2,000,000 people. To this has now been added the foreign exhibits of:

CANADA

RUSSIA

FRANCE

SPAIN

HAWAII

ITALY

HOLLAND
SWITZERLAND
BRAZIL
GERMANY
PERSIA
INDIA
TURKEY
and EGYPT

as well as the large and instructive exhibit of the UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, which was located at the San Francisco Exposition during 1915.

This beautiful and imposing EXPOSITION was opened on March 18th, 1916, by the pressing of a button by PRESIDENT WILSON, in Washington, D. C. The electric spark was conveyed to an immense gong in the Exposition grounds, and at a few seconds before twelve, noon, the gong pealed forth the announcement that THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES had officially declared the INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION open to the public.

FORTY-FIVE THOUSAND PEOPLE were gathered in the Plaza de Panama, located in the center of the Exposition grounds, and were listening to Secretary of the Interior FRANKLIN K. LANE, the personal representative of PRESIDENT WILSON, when the gong pealed forth the glad tidings. A mighty shout arose; bells were clanging, and whistles were blowing, and the deep undertone of the cannons of Fort Rosecrans and the warships anchored in the harbor, joined in celebrating the opening of the SECOND YEAR of SAN DIEGO'S EXPOSITION. Among the speakers were, GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON, of California, and COUNT DEL VALLE SALAZAR, representative of THE KING OF SPAIN.

REMEMBER, this Exposition will be open until December 31, 1916, and plan your trip to California so you can remain in SAN DIEGO at least two weeks, to see the EXPOSITION CITY and surrounding country. And if you wish to inquire about opportunities for business or investment in SAN DIEGO, the COMING CITY OF THE PACIFIC COAST, or to see the orange groves and alfalfa fields in our back country, call on us and we shall be pleased to show you around.

Colonel Fred Jewell, the President of this company, will be remembered by many of the older residents of Nebraska, he having acted as Private Secretary to Governor Poynter, of Nebraska, in 1898 and 1899. He removed to San Diego in 1900, and having been located in San Diego during the last sixteen years, and actively engaged in the banking, loaning, and real estate business, he is eminently qualified to furnish desired valuable information relating to Southern California, the Exposition, and SAN DIEGO in particular, and extends to all Nebraskans, and Lincolnites especially, a very cordial invitation to call and renew acquaintances.

Our office is located at No. 212 AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK BUILDING.

Phone: Main 2826.

JEWELL INVESTMENT COMPANY