Send telegrams, letters and petitions to the President, to your Senators and to your Congressmen, giving your views on the question of going to war. If opposed to entering this war on either side, say so at once. If you favor a referendum on a declaration of war, tell your representatives so and tell them immediately.

President Wilson's Address to Congress

A Washington dispatch, dated Feb. 3, says: The Bresident in his address to congress announcing the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany said:

"Gentlemen of the Congress:

"The imperial German government on the 31st of January announced to this government and to the governments of the other neutral nations that on and after the 1st day of February, the present month, it would adopt a policy with regard to the use of submarines against all shipping seeking to pass through certain designated areas of the high seas, to which it is clearly my duty to call your attention.

"Let me remind the congress, on the 18th of April last, in view of the sinking on the 24th of March of the cross-channel passenger steamer Sussex by a German submarine, without summons or warning, and the consequent loss of the lives of several citizens of the United States, who were passengers aboard her, this government addressed a note to the imperial German government in which it made the following declaration:

"'If it is still the purpose of the imperial government to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare against vessels of commerce by the use of submarines, without regard to what the government of the United States must consider the sacred and indisputable rules of international law and the universally recognized dictates of humanity, the government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue.

"'Unless the imperial government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight-carrying vessels, the government of the United States can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the German empire altogether.'

"In reply to the declaration the imperial German government gave this government the following assurances:

"The German government is, prepared to do its utmost to confine the operations of war for the rest of its duration to the fighting forces of the belligerents, thereby also insuring the freedom of the seas. a principle upon which the German government believes now, as before, to be in agreement with the government of the United States.

"'The German government, guided by this idea, notifies the government of the United States that the German naval forces have received the following orders: In accordance with
