

Warren Alfson named on INS All-American

Latest addition to the lists of Cornhuskers to be named on All-American teams is Warren Alfson, the Wisner guard. Alfson was selected on the International News Service eleven.

Herman Rohrig and Forrest

Courtesy Lincoln Journal and Star.

Warren Alfson ... All-American.

Behm have previously been picked on mythical teams. On this eleven, two members of Minnesota's Golden Gophers were listed, while Tommy Harmon of Michigan and John Kimbrough of Texas A. & M. were unanimous choices.

Missouri's Paul Christman was selected in the second team backfield and was given considerable mention in the first team secondary. Urban Odson of Minnesota

Palladian

(Continued from page 1.)

such as boys or girls lying about their age in order to get into a show for less money, and actual dishonesty—stealing money. She advocated that all were cheating, and divided them into three classes: Never taking the blame; breaking laws; and material dishonesty.

Presides at meeting

Marguerite M. Harvey, last year's first prize oratorical winner, presided over the meeting. Besides the lectures, a welcome to the Gavel club by Palladian vice-president Helen Elizabeth Claybaugh; a response by Mrs. V. R. Seymour, secretary-treasurer of the Gavel club; and recognition of winners of 1940 essay, verse, and short story contest by Victor R. Seymour, chairman of the literary contests committee were included in the program.

Judges in the contest were Dr. Carl E. Rosenquist, '24; Mr. Milton Wittman, '27; and Miss Gertrude F. Leavitt, '38.

Six Palladians were entered in the contest, including, besides the winners, June F. Weigel who spoke on "John Deere, His Life"; Bill J. Stuart who talked on "How Long Can We Stay Out?"; and Jeanet M. Swenson on "Why Child Welfare Legislation?"

and Frankie Albert of Stanford were the only juniors. The first team:

Ends—Ed Frutig, Michigan, and Gene Gooddreault, Boston College. Tackles—Urban Odson, Minnesota, and Nick Drahos, Cornell.

Guards—WARREN ALFSON, NEBRASKA, and Bob Suffridge, Tennessee.

Center—Ray Frick, Pennsylvania.

Quarterback—Frank Albert, Stanford.

Halfbacks—George Franck, Minnesota, and Tom Harmon, Michigan.

Fullback—John Kimbrough, Texas A. & M.

Wrestling team looks forward to fine year, 4 lettermen back

With four lettermen returning to the Nebraska wrestling team, Coach Jerry Adam looks forward to having one of the best mat mauler squads in many a moon.

Three members of last year's lettering crew have graduated. They are Ray Tones, 155 pounds, Lee Clare, 136 pounds, and George Seemann, heavyweight.

Lettermen returning are Ed McConnell, 128 pounder of Lincoln, George Cogle, 136 pounder of Omaha, and Newton Copple, 145 pounder of Lincoln. Milton Kuska, 121 pounder, is not in school this semester but will be back for action second semester.

All-university meet

First activity on the wrestling chart this year will be the all-university medal meet for wrestlers on December 12 and 13. It is for all non-varsity performers.

The first competitive meet for the Huskers this season will be on February 4 when Kent State of Kent, Ohio, plays host. On the following night, Temple will wrestle against the Huskers at Philadelphia.

Franklin and Marshall of Lancaster, Pa., will also be a host to Nebraska on the same trip on February 6. Coming back, tentative wrestling dates are with the University of Iowa and Chicago university.

Carried on the squad last year and back for competition this season are Ray Crawford, 145 pounder; Harold Walkup, 155 pounder; Al Mulliken, 175 pounder; and Bill Rumbolz and Royal Kahler, heavyweights.

Promising among newcomers to the team are Hank Knight, 121 pounder and brother of Jim, former Husker ace in the mat sport; Dick Terry, also 121 pounder.

In the 128 pound class, Sammy Salerno of Omaha is the brightest newcomer. There is a possibility of his being called for National Guard duty, however.

Good newcomers

Leading 136 pounders are Marvin Burger, Donn Curtright, and Roy Shaw, former Omaha Tech state champion. Standing out in the 145 pound class are Jim Howell and Kenny Miller.

In the 155 pound level, leaders are Salster Smit, Jack Debusk and Hub Rodman. Only two 165 pounders have shown possibilities so far. They are Floyd Ring and Miles Cadwallader.

Jake Ferguson of Lincoln is a standout in the 175 pound class. Heavyweights who have shown promise are Footballers Vic Schleich and Bob Burruss, Herb Jackman, a 260 pounder, Dick Carre, Stan Leidke, and Dick Peters.

Stanford finds Rose Bowl way after 13-7 win

BERKELEY, Calif.—Stanford completed its regular season untied and unbeaten and gained a clear cut entrance to the Rose Bowl by virtue of a 13-7 win over the University of California here, Saturday afternoon.

The Indians got all of their points in the second quarter. However, the first touchdown was set up by a drive started late in the first period. The quarter ended with the ball on the Bear 1-yard line.

On the first play in the second canto, Tailback Pete Kmetovic drove over and Quarterback Frankie Albert converted the extra point from placement.

One Bear drive ended on the Indian 1-yard line just when it had a first down and goal only four previous plays. The Indians held, however, but the Bears crashed over in the last minute for the lone California score. The lineup:

Pos.	CALIFORNIA	STANFORD
L.E.	Lewis	Graff
L.T.	Cox	Warneke
L.G.	Hongola	Taylor
C.	Gough	Kindskog
R.G.	Oonohoe	Palmer
R.T.	Herrero	Banducci
R.E.	Mathewson	Meyer
Q.B.	Elmore	Albert
L.H.	Hatcher	Kmetovic
R.H.	Jurkovich	Gallarsau
F.B.	McQuary	Standee

Professors and students have gathered for the University of California library some 200,000 pages of valuable source material relating to the history of California.

Sparkle! Be Gay... at the Ball!

PARTY SANDALS

By Connie and Le Laine 4<sup>95</sup>

- A. GENUINE SILVER KID "pleated vamp" sandal, cuban heel. Also of White (tintable*) Satin, high or cuban heel.
- B. GENUINE GOLD KID, open back sandal with "knot vamp." Also cuban or college heel.
- C. TINTABLE* WHITE SATIN college-heel sandal, Also of Silver Kid

*tinted without charge.

Ben Simon & Sons

Nebraska's Fashion Center

The Howland-Swanson
Coed
attends the Military Ball

She is the glowing star of the Ball with sophisticated assurance and poise—knowing her gown, wrap and accessories are perfectly correlated into a lovely picture of fashion.

We pride ourselves in knowing how to dress you correctly, inexpensively even to the last minute accessory detail. May we help you Monday?

Shown for the first time
Monday—a new collection of Formals

Selected by our staff in New York last week—arriving in ample time for last minute shoppers.

16<sup>95</sup> 19<sup>95</sup> 22<sup>95</sup>

Wraps—12.95-16.95

HOVLAND-SWANSON