

Nebraska cagers blast Missouri, 40-29

Minnesota Mentionables

Hockey histories.
MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 22.—Although slightly behind his scoring pace of the past two seasons, Harold (Babe) Paulsen, captain and right wing of the University of Minnesota's Big Ten and national amateur hockey champions, still maintains better than a goal a game average to rank with the best collegiate goal-getters of all time.

The most consistent scorer in 20 seasons of collegiate hockey at Minnesota, Paulsen has a total of 53 goals and 32 assists to his credit in 46 games. He has been held scoreless without a goal or an assist in less than 10 games during this period, but dislikes the fact that this has occurred three times in the current season.

Standing only five feet, seven inches and weighing just over 160 pounds, the Minnesota captain has counter-balanced his lack of size with speed and stick-handling dexterity. He has performed the hockey "hat trick" of scoring three goals in a game four times.

Paulsen's defensive record is also unusual. In 46 games he has been assessed only five penalties and one of these was a technical violation caused by Minnesota's having an extra man on the ice. Together with Fred Junger at left wing and Bob Arnold at center ice, Paulsen heads a Gopher "pony" forward line that averages 158 pounds.

About football.
MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 22.—When the University of Minnesota gains permanent possession of the Knute Rockne Memorial Football Trophy after the formal presentation ceremony on Feb. 8 it will mark the second time in five years that Minnesota football teams have retired a national football trophy. The first occasion was in 1936 when the university was given permanent possession of the Toledo cup for placing first in the national ratings in 1934-35-36.

1943 schedule.
MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 22.—Announcement this week that the University of Minnesota football team will meet Missouri two years hence on Sept. 25, 1943 marks the first instance of a football game being scheduled between these two state universities, altho the Gophers have met several other members of the Big Six conference, including Nebraska, Iowa State and Kansas. The Gopher 1943 slate now includes Missouri, Nebraska, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, Michigan, Northwestern, Purdue, Iowa and Wisconsin.

Huskers win from foul line

By Jim Evinger.

Nebraska finally cashed in on gift tosses.

In all previous games thus far this season, Huskers cagers have shown a decidedly inability to hit free throws. However, for the present, the Cornhuskers have found their gratis flipping eye.

As a result of the free throws, the Huskers stepped on the Missouri Tigers, 40 to 29, Monday night in the coliseum. From the field, the Scarlet caged 13 baskets and potted 14 from the foul line. The Bengals slipped in a dozen fielders and but five free throws.

In the other Big Six game played Monday night, Kansas downed Kansas State 46 to 41 to elevate itself into the conference lead. A game behind the Jayhawkers is Oklahoma, while Nebraska is in a three-way tie for third with the Wildcats and Iowa State. Missouri trails with no wins in three starts.

Slow start.
 After a slow first half, the Huskers turned on their defensive power and held the Tigers at bay after the intermission. Leading 20 to 17 at the half, the Huskers made an additional 20 points during the final canto and limited the Show Me boys to 12 in the last 20 minutes.

Leading the assault on the Tigers was Don Fitz, senior forward, with 11 counters, six coming in the final half. John Fitzgibbon, Al Randall, and Sid Held all scored 8 points apiece to tie for second high honors.

The Huskers were slow in getting started, allowing the Tigers to hold an 11 to 8 advantage at one time in the first half. Fitz, Held and Randall began sharp-shooting at this point and the Huskers slipped into a lead at the intermission.

Fast finish.
 Gaining momentum after the half, the Huskers went into a 25 to 19 lead and held the 6-point margin with 8 minutes to play with the score at 33 to 27.

Then, Fitz sailed thru the air with a layup and a setup, Held also with a setup and Fitzgibbon countered on a free throw to put the game on ice.

In the first stanza, the Huskers counted 8 out of 9 free throws while the Tigers were missing 2 out of 7. In the last half, both teams fell down. The Missourians connected for nil in four chances while the Nebraskans counted 6 out of 11.

Iowa State next.
 Little Herbert Gregg, diminutive Tiger forward, was held down in his scoring surge by a bad leg. At that, he sank the first shot of the game.

High man for the cagers from Columbia was Arch Watson with 7. Three other Tigers scored four points apiece to come next in the point-making column. Playing a bangup floor game for the losers were Capt. Martin Nash and Loren Mills.

Jayhawker Cage Notes

LAWRENCE, Kas., Jan. 22.—Two scorers, who between them average 30 points a game, ought to be enough for a team, but Dr. F. C. Allen is looking high and low for another for his University of Kansas basketball team.

Forward Howard Engleman boasts an average of 19 points a game in Big Six play and center Bob Allen is averaging 11.7 points a contest. In spite of this the Kansas team has been a far cry from the aggregation which went to the finals of the N. C. A. A. tournament last year.

The Jayhawks lost their opening conference game to Oklahoma 42-31 at Norman. Two home games followed and altho Kansas won, defeating Iowa State and Missouri, the team was anything but impressive.

Trouble on road
 In the case of both Iowa State and Missouri, it appeared that those teams will beat the Jayhawks on their home floors unless Dr. Allen's team improves considerably.

Main trouble is that Engelman and Allen have been carrying the scoring load practically alone. In the victory over Missouri, this pair accounted for 41 of Kansas' 48 points.

Main possibilities for help in the scoring line seem to lie with two sophomores, Vance Hall and John Buescher. Altho Hall has not yet scored in games as he does in practice, he shows considerable promise. Against Iowa State he scored eight points.

Outlooks bright
 Buescher missed the Iowa State and Missouri games due to a carbuncle on his knee and an attack of the flu. It was doubtful that he will be able to play against Kansas State Monday, but the smooth passing sophomore should help plenty during the second semester.

An encouraging note for Coach Allen came in the Missouri game with the play of T. P. Hunter, rangy junior. With Hunter working the backboards, Kansas got some offensive rebounds for the first time this season.

Along with the fact that their scoring is so concentrated, the Jayhawks have a good deal of trouble due to their lack of height. In the game with Iowa State, Kansas had the ball only about one-third of the time, as a result of Schneider, 6 foot 6 inch Iowa State star, getting virtually all of the rebounds. Hunter may help materially in this department.

Angels, TKB lead league 5 barb I-M basketball playing

Angels and TKB held the league 5 lead after Thursday night's play in barb basketball. TKB beat Heagy's Manor 15-10, with Roger Leafgreen netting six points to take the individual scoring lead with 22. Ak-Sar-Ben led the Angels 12-9 after the first half, but lost 17-12 when the "first team" entered the game in the second half in a vain attempt to clinch the game.

Norm Boyle and Walt Morrison scored all their team's points as the Termites nosed out Tappa Nu Kegg 22-19, while the Mad Russians swarmed over the Rusty Roustabouts 20-2, with all members pointing in the scoring. Scoring 16 points Dean Pressley led Brown Palace to a 27-12 win over the Casino Club as Davis Hall nudged the Gellinging Ghosts 18-17.

In other games Stratford beat the Omega Club 15-9, Barbed Points licked the Boomerangs

22-9, and Husker Inn, led by Ed Bopp, beat YMCA 22-9. The Madmen won a 14-9 game from the Corn Crib Union Leaders in the final game.
