

An eye on Girls Sports

By Jeannette Mickey

The varsity bowling teams picked by Ruth Mathers, WAA executive secretary, following the tournament is as follows:

- Scarlet.
Eleanor Akln, DDD.
Lois Keller, KAT.
Ruth Fox, Pi Phi.
Marje Owen, Pi Phi.
Doris Patterson, DDD.
- Cream.
Georgia Swallow, Pi Phi.
Margaret Hooberough, KAT.
Virginia Stoddard, KAT.
Ruth Sloss, AYO.
Eleanor Veith, Phi Mu.
Honorable mention to: Ardis Lyman, KAT, and Betty McGenchin, Pi Phi.

These girls had the highest bowling averages for the tournament. The Ag College-Campus bowling game came out a win for Ag College 606-557 with Edith Boling hitting 158.

The gym is a different place these days, believe it or not. The type of music one hears there is enough to startle both students and teachers. Imagine one's surprise during a basketball lecture at hearing Artie Shaw's arrangement of "Frenesi" start up in the I. G. room!

Susan Shaw witnessed a marching class hepping to something like "Isn't That Just Like Love" the other day, and asked why she didn't get that in her gym classes. How about it? We also wonder if Bernice Askey's sisters know that most of the Alpha Xi Delta records are at the gym on Tuesday's and Thursday's?

Along with all this the new P. A. system has been getting a real workout by the majors. Our nomination for sports commentator: Barbara Flebbe.

The basketball tournament is in high swing by now. Monday, Howard Hall overtook the DGs in the first game by a score of 19-7. Tuesday night the Alpha Chis won a close one over the Towne club, 13-12. Lucille Maxwell was high scorer for Town club while Virginia Long put in 8 points for the Alpha Chis.

The game schedule has been somewhat changed for this week, so please notice. Thursday the AXIDs play Raymond Hall, and Friday the Tri Deltas play Howard Hall. The game previously in line for Friday will be played next week.

Farm House wins I-F cage title

Husker swim team departs for Colorado

Intent on keeping their season dual meet record of no losses in six meets unmarred, the Husker swimmers along with Coach Pete Hagelin will leave tonight for the University of Colorado.

The nine swimmers making the trip will complete a season that has been the best in the matter of dual meets for a long time, winning every meet they entered with the exception of the conference.

The Nebraska contingent leaves for Boulder at 5:45 p. m. and will arrive in Colorado Friday where they swim tomorrow afternoon.

Buffaloes lose one.

Colorado boasts a strong team but were beaten once by the Kansas State team earlier in the season. Nebraska drowned the boys from Manhattan when they met them in a dual earlier this season also.

Colorado State of Greeley, the team that the Huskers were scheduled to swim on Friday, cancelled the meet and so Coach Hagelin set the time of the Boulder meet up from Saturday to Friday.

An effort has been made to contact three other schools for a meet on Saturday but all three schools declined to accept so the swimmers will have but one meet on Friday and will return home on Saturday night.

This will be the last meet of the year. Squad personnel includes Bill Edwards, Les Oldfield, Ralph Worden, Ky Rohman, Tom Woods, Bill Hull, Cliff Lambert, Don Hilgert and LeRoy Foster.

Drub Delta Upsilon by 36-16 score

By Jim Evinger.

Farm House is still king of interfraternity basketball.

Towering Fred Preston led his mates to 36-16 win over Delta Upsilon in the frat finals, last night in the coliseum.

The former Fairbury high cage star and Husker football end poured 16 points thru the hops as Farm House successfully defended its court crown it won last year.

Blistering rally.

A last half scoring splurge featured the Farm House victory. Ahead 16-12 at the intermission, the Ag boys hurried 20 points thru the nets and limited the DU's to only 4.

Also starring in the Farm House triumph were Louie Knoflicek and Guard Holland. The former scored 8 counters, while the latter potted 7 markers. Husker Forward John Fitzgibbon brain-stormed the victors to the win.

Top scorer for Delta Upsilon was Leonard Dunker with 9 markers. Porky Neurenberger and Dean Callan tallied the remainder of the DU points with 4 and 3 counters, respectively. Box score:

Farm H.	fg	ft	f	Delta U.	fg	ft	f
Knoflicek	2	4	2	Callan	0	3	1
D. Godding	0	0	2	Neuren	1	2	1

impose a higher levy, graded according to the value of the land. Thus the larger farm operator would be charged a higher tax.

The bill's objective, according to the introducer, "is to re-establish in a permanent way the family sized farm." Senator Jeppesen also added that with this bill and our present taxes we might postpone a sales tax in the state. After all this explaining, he sorrowfully expressed his doubts as to the possibility of the bill's passing.

Edith Jeppesen, daughter of the senator, is a sophomore in the university. She is in teacher's college.

meetings, a square dance team was chosen thru selective tryouts; this team is directed by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Danielson, the former, an alumnus of the ag college, the latter, instructor of women's physical education on ag campus.

Members of the team have costumed themselves in fine cowboy style—the men, in ranch trappings; the women, in period skirts. They demonstrate and help to teach the dances to all new students.

Team gives demonstrations.

This group has been called upon for many demonstrations and programs to help introduce square dancing the city and to groups from all parts of the state.

Team members are: Ruth Ann Foster, Florence Hamer, Melva Meterhenry, Lois Mae Peterson, Lois Riggs, Betty Jeanne Spalding, Jenn Voigt, Winifred White, Jane Sheburn, Dorothy Sic, Mary Louise Ballance, Roxana Brown, Donna Krutzfeld, Marianna Stewart, Ray Huston, Elizabeth Krueger, Leona Krueger, Joe Claybaugh, John Cope, Ray Crawford, Wallace Fauch, Harold Hansen, Winton Jensen, Erwin Klein, Willis Skrdla, Stanley Jensen, Raymond Barker, Nyei Moss, George Remmenza, Don Warner, and David Ward.

Shaw contends that cowboy dances are much closer to American temperament and soil than is jazz. Men particularly enjoy the cowboy dances. With their arms swinging and their feet flying, warming up to the fun, they grow red in the face, slap their hands, and have such a wonderful time that it does not even bother them to be laughed at.

Harvards . . . Jones splits gridders into two outfits

. . . vs. Yales

Nebraska's own Ivy league will be functioning this spring as Coach "Biff" Jones divided the squad into the Harvard and Yale teams for practice.

With eight new candidates reporting the coaching staff was working with 76 football aspirants Wednesday. Those who just reported are Wayne Stranahan, Warren Rounds, Newton Copple, Leo Fisher, V. Preuss, Jim Cleavenger, Chet Bowers and Kenneth Moore.

Missing from drill are Henry Rohn, fullback, and Ralph Whitehead, guard, in addition to Allen Zikmund, whose leg was broken at the Rose Bowl tiff, has not fully mended.

Gymnasts host to Minnesota on Saturday

In a meet that promises to be the best of the year for Coach Charley Miller's gymnastic team, the University of Minnesota will invade Nebraska on Saturday afternoon at 2 on the coliseum stage.

The Minnesotans are nationally recognized as one of the leaders in the gymnastic sport. They are the team that took second in last week's Northwest Championships at Minneapolis.

This meet was very interesting in the fact that the University of Illinois ranked first with 334 points while Minnesota took second place although scoring 333½ points. Ten points difference indicates a close meet so that the one-half point difference between Illinois and Minnesota can not prove that one team is superior to another.

U. S. champ in 1940.

The Minnesota team was national champion last year also and did not lose many of its individual stars via the graduation route.

Minnesota has won three duals and lost one this season in competition, with Nebraska winning three and losing one also. Nebraska was second in the A. A. U. meet of the Rocky Mountains last week and so the two teams match up well in wins and losses.

Wrestlers to leave for loop meet Friday

Coach Jerry Adam with a squad of eight wrestlers will embark Friday morning for Manhattan, Kas., where his wrestlers will compete against the best in the Big Six conference meet on Friday night and Saturday morning and afternoon.

The team is not definitely decided yet since in some weight divisions there will be a try out to see who will make the trip. Also there have been injuries that have hampered the wrestlers and it is not known whether several will make the trip.

In general the lineup should be the same with Milt Kuska in the 121 group, Ed McConnell or Roy Shay in the 128 division, George Cockle, 136, Jack Debusk, 145, Kenny Husemoller or Don Shellberg, 155, Foster Smith, 165, Bill Rumbolz or Hub Rodman, 175, and Herb Jackman, heavy eight.

The Iowa State team appears to have the best chance to dethrone defending Kansas State in this meet. The Cyclones have enjoyed seven dual triumphs so far this year.

Herb Jackman, Nebraska's mountain, has the best chance to be seeded for the preliminaries by virtue of his win over his Iowa State opponent.
