Largest library file contains over two million index cards

From Aa to Zzyzkin—that's the alphabetical range of the university library's largest single file, which contains nearly 2,557,000 reference cards filed in over fifteen hundred drawers.

The file, located in the basement of the library, is known as a "depository catalogue," and lists the names of all the authors having books in the Library of Congress in Washington.

Listed by author's name only,

LSU students have trust fund for fox terrier

BATON ROUGE, La. (ACP). "Oscar the Pooch" is living in the lap of luxury from proceeds of a trust fund set up by Louisiana State university students.

The pup, mostly fox terrier, was run over by a motorist. It was found by Maureen Lawrence, a student.

Miss Lawrence rushed the pup to a veterinarian and the injuries were diagnosed as not serious. Later the students set up a trust fund for Oscar until a good home is provided.

Dear Editor:

As co-signor of the memorial sent to Washington by members of the faculty of the University of Nebraska, I want to clarify, and clarify most emphatically, one point. I speak of course only for myself and do not know to what extent my Weeks.

Graduate students admitted to associate membership are: Elmer A. Anderson, Frank J. Dudek, Robert D. Babson, Charles A. Bartz, Thomas E. Brinegar, Paul Burkholder, Edward J. Cragge, James M. Crosbie, Eugene Dallimore, Gordon V. Anderson, Gordon S. Fisher, William Gray, Noel S. Hanson, Robert D. Lipscomb, Robert L. Luckhardt, John N. Mc-point of view is shared by the other signors of the memorial.

The charge is made by a number of students that "the professors are now willing to throw away our lives for vague objectives." Whether or not the objectives are vague is immaterial to my present statement. But I have never in my life expected anybody to do something that I was not willing to do myself; and I shall not change my attitude now. If I were not willing to make the supreme sacrifice myself—now or at any time in the future—I should regard my signature to the memorial as worse than hypocrisy and as devoid of all moral significance.

cards are also filed representing the author's works in the university libraries of Princeton, Harvard, Michigan, and Chicago. None of the authors listed by the congressional library are duplicated in the cards from these four universities, however.

Approximately 75,000 cards are added to the file each year, and cards are used in reference work by the librarians, faculty members and graduate students. Card number 1 in the file is that of author Abraham Jacob van der Aa, while card number 1504 lists author Mikhail Zzyzkin.

"White goes with everything!"

YOU'RE never stuck when you have an Arrow white shirt at your elbow, for whites are correct with every suit. We especially recommend these three extremely popular Arrow white shirts for college men:

Arrow Hitt: whose starchless collar is as crisp at night as it was when you put it on. $2.

Arrow Gordon: looks sporty for classes and dressy for dates. Fine oxford cloth. $2.

Arrow Trump: a fine broadcloth with a long wearing soft collar. $2.

Arrow shirts have the Mitoga, shaped to your torso, fit and every refinement of expert shirt making. Send a frosh out for these today.

We Feel Bad about Violets

POETS always call the violet the shrinking violet. We feel bad about anything that shrinks—but chiefly shirts.

So we've spent our life making the shirt that doesn't shrink, the ARROW shirt. It's Sanforized Shrink, which means fabric shrinkage less than 1%. Its Mitoga figure fit is superb and its collar is the world's finest. College men everywhere prefer Arrows. Try an Arrow Gordon today.
