Deb Has Coming Out Party

Lavish Reception in Daily Office

K, the most popular debutante of this season, made her formal debut in the home of the Daily Nebraskan, Saturday, Sept. 20. Guests were received from 2 until 6 p. m.

K was attractively dressed in a small black harness and carried a four foot leash. She had a spot of flea powder here and there on her coat of black and white. The afternoon was spent in chewing paper, playing follow the dog, question and bark, and sitting up games. Lovely refreshments of dog biscuits and water were served.

Socialites in Receiving Line

In the receiving line were Mary Kerrigan, Morton Margolin, Marjorie Bruning, Robert Schlater, Marjorie May, Alan Jacobs, Randall Pratt, Robert Miller, George Abbott, Mary Ellen Sim and Helen Kelley.

K has been a resident of Lincoln since Sept. 1. She spends her summer vacation in Kansas. For the rest of the school term K will serve as general nuisance of the Daily Nebraskan staff.

Footnote: K is the three months old wire-hair terrier, one-half of which belongs to "Hoppy" Hopkins. She was a present from Helen Kelley, who kept the other half.

Sassy Items

It All Came True.

It seemed like a fairy story when Gus Arnheim asked the Pi Phi trio to come out Saturday for an audition, and it all came true when they sang at the Turnpike Saturday night. The Pi Phis are only hoping they will stay in school and not go off cross country.

Their lucky dates Saturday were Betty Krause and Jim Bell, Beta, Beidora Cochran and Jim Weesner, SAE, and Janet Hemphill and Ed Calhoun, ATO.

Almost as Startling.

Almost as startling is the fact that Blaine Sloane, ex-president of the barb union, has fallen hard and fast for a certain sorority girl. The sorority girl may be in school this year as a transfer. She was called home from rush week here by an illness in the family and her sorority doesn't know whether or not she will be back.

Fi Ji Ray Treinen spent Friday evening trying to persuade Alpha Chi Frances Haberman to take his pin back. He had borrowed it for rush week. Frances does not have his pin and she says there are a few little things besides borrowing the pin which will have to be cleared up.

Hattie Costello, Theta, has been seeing an awful lot of Bill Nickel-son, senior Phi Psi pledge. They come from the same old home town.

In trouble.

The Sigma Nus managed to get themselves into trouble again. They had hour dances with the Chi Omegas and Pi Phis Saturday night. Both sororities solemnly promised to be "off" the Sig Nus forever if they didn't do something about it.

So—Friday night the Chi Os sang "White Star of Sigma Nu" and then hissed. Saturday morning they got roses from the fellows. So Saturday noon they sang the same song—without the hiss. In case you're wondering, the Sigma Nus hour danced with the Pi Phi Saturday night.

It's an old eternal triangle with Sayre Webster, Pi Phi, Bob Miller, Phi Gam, and Duke Eberhardt, another Phi Gam. Bob is affectionately known as "Honey" to his close readers of the sports.

The Funniest Things.

The funniest things happen. Helene Marcey, Kappa pledge, and Al Holmes, Sig Ep pledge, are from the same town. 'Tis said the Kappas don't want to settle down, so he arranged for her to have a date with a man from the Sig Ep house. That man was Al Holmes and the date was Saturday night.

Jerry Anderson, Theta pledge, has been stepping with Bud Thompson, Phi Gam, and former boy friend of Kay Hanley.

A new steady is Emma Frances Bodinson, Tri Delt, and Freddie Boight, Sigma Nu and national commander of Pershing Rifles.

Bette Rubelman from Carrie Bell Raymond went to Omaha this weekend to attend the AKK fall party with Richard Stottenbeck, last year's president of the fraternity.

Except in Name.

Jean Hazen, Tri Delt, and Duane Wolf, Phi Gam, are going steady in all but name. Eloise Rogers, Kappa pledge, and Buddy King, Phi Delt, pledge, are seeing so much of each other that we wonder if it will develop into a steady.

Some interesting dates of the week end were: Aline Hosman, Theta, and Al O'Connor, Fi Ji; Hazel Abel, Kappa pledge, and Wayne Southwick, Phi Psi pledge; Maxine Thomas, Theta pledge, and Jim Vanlandingham, ATO; Jo Duree, Chi O, and Lew Lehr, Kappa Sig, who went to the Turnpike Friday night.

Eva Vestal and Clarence Schmadeke, Farm House, won't admit they are going steady, but they do admit that they have seen each other on an average of about eight nights a week all summer and this fall.

Marcia Lehmer, Rosa Bouton, and Howard "Bubbles" Martig, Alpha Sig, have been going together pretty regularly, maybe something will come of it.

Roberta Burgess, Gamma Phi, and Dale Brockmeier, Farm House, were seen together Friday while Nancy Coe, of the same Gamma Phi house, and Harold Hansen, of the Farm House went out Saturday.

Trouble Again.

By the way, Dorothy Black, Chi O pledge, had a date with Kappa Sig Dick Miller Saturday instead of Jim Alexander, Sigma Nu. It was another case of the Sigma Nus having two dates on the same night.

YW Annual Membership Tea Today in Ellen Smith

The annual membership tea of the YWCA will be given in Ellen Smith hall Thursday, Sept. 25, from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m.

At this time sophomores and upperclassmen will be given an opportunity to join the YWCA and sign up for staffs for the coming semester.

The goal for the YWCA for this year has been set at $1,000 and the finance drive will start at the tea with the membership drive. Another finance drive among the faculty will be scheduled later.

Staffs for which students may sign are personnel and office work, Girl Reserve training, knitting and world events, vesper choir, Tiny Y, social work, vespers, personal relations, Estes cop, publicity, and art.

Doris Crittenden will be in charge of the music and serving at the tea tables will be members of the advisory board assisted by the freshman YWCA cabinet.

At this time leaders of the various staffs will meet all students and explain the purpose and working of their group. This will give a chance for the students to choose the work of most interest to them.

Following the membership tea there will be a dinner in Ellen Smith hall for workers in the finance drive. Over 60 are expected to attend the dinner. Shirley Kyhn and Sylvia Katzman are in charge of the finance drive. The dinner will be served at 6 p. m.

Mary Lockett, secretary of the YWCA, and Frances Keefe, president, will be introduced at the dinner.

Remember Roy Sides? He Resides in Combination Trailer-Bus, 'Whaddyacallit'

... Christened the Jeep

Remember Roy Sides, the fellow who brought his home to school with him last year? He's the one who lives in that man from Mar's looking affair, that combination trailer-bus "whaddyacallit" on 17th St.

This year the mobile-house has a name. It has been officially christened "The Jeep." Why the taker vice president to succeed Bob Ross who is not back in school, Delt pledges elected Bernie Weygint, president, Max Wilson, vice president, Jerry Kathol, secretary-treasurer, and Ed Nyden, sergeant of arms.

At the same Delt house the brothers are wondering who will take care of Janet Johnson, Tri Delt, now that Bob Ruby has gone to California to be with his parents.

NOTICE.

Sassy items is not a column where readers can spite their friends or enemies. Do not expect to find anonymous news items to be used in this column.

Three coeds at the University of Indiana couldn't go to New York for a singing contest; they solved their problem by making a record to send for judgment.

"Jeep?" Well, here's the explanation of the builder and owner.

Not Green Cheese.

Said Roy: "It doesn't look like a bus; it doesn't look like a trailer or a house or a box car or a piece of green cheese. In fact, it doesn't look like much of anything. Therefore it can only be a Jeep."

But Roy has made many changes in his '41 model. This year's edition has two bunks instead of only one. The "Jeep" is equipped with a tile sink, built in clothes closets and a new exterior finish.

Raised Turkeys.

To make these improvements some high financing was necessary. So Roy earned it raising turkeys—2,500 of them. Guess what the Sides will have for Thanksgiving?

You really ought to examine the "Jeep" someday. You'll never stop marvelling.

Chi Omega Holds Open House for Fraternities

Chi Omega held open house for all fraternity members Saturday from 4 to 6 p. m. Tea dancing was enjoyed in the living rooms of the chapter house.
