

The Sports Mill

By Bob Miller

Headaches resulting from grid results of the last weekend have just about subsided but their effects will be felt for a long time to come... First of all, Minnesota was forced all out to down a really great Husker team and had to depart from their famous ground attack to win... Minnesota sports writers fully appreciate the stand that the Husker's put up, giving credit to every Nebraska player that participated in the contest.

Upsets were the order of the day, it seems, as Pitt turned in the number one victory... Fordham, the team that Jack Guenther, Gotham sports scribe, stated could drive two touchdowns over on Minnesota before the Gophers could get their helmets adjusted, was outplayed in every phase of the game as the Panthers of Pitt roared to a 13-0 victory... Our prediction: Nebraska's stadia will be sold out for the battle next Saturday.

Texas U. dropped down the national ranking scale due to the tie game against Baylor... Previously Baylor has shown very little in the line of a football team but just as Nebraska did, the Bears rose up in fury to tie the Longhorns, 7-7 and gain a moral victory... Army at the same time dropped from the heights of undefeated teams as Harvard ducked the Cadets, 20-6.

Get ready for the game of the year as far as the Big Six is concerned when Missouri and Oklahoma mix on Saturday... Fresh after conquering Iowa State by a 55-0 score the Sooners are gunning for the conference tilt and Missouri, just as fresh after a 26-0 romp at the expense of the N. Y. U. Violets, is sure of a victory... Well, time will tell but until later developments hit the news lanes,

Frosh Practice Begins Tonight

Frosh basketballers will hold their initial meeting of the year tonight at 7:15 p. m. in the coliseum at which time there will be a physical examination and issuance of equipment.

From this time on, the frosh will practice between 3:30 and 5:30 in the afternoons on the freshman court. All interested in working for a numerau in basketball are urged to attend, Coach Ad Lewandowski stated.

We'll string along with Oklahoma.

Dad's Day—

It was Dad's day at Minnesota and during the half the Minnesota band maneuvered into a tricky formation that disclosed a profile of the typical dad, smoking a pipe... The Gophers also put on another show for the visitors as they sang songs in Swedish which translated (they tell me) are pep songs of the Gopher institution.

As far as the Huskers are concerned, there are two Minnesota players that just about top the list of All-American performers to face Nebraska this season... In the line was Dick Wildung which the linemen rated the best that they had played against this season... And in the backfield Big Bill Daley, junior halfback averaged five yards per try, blocked savagely and tackled like a demon to assume the title of best back for the Gophers.

They were Ironmen—

We doubt very much if the game will be forgotten for some years to come with ironman performances on the part of ten of the starting eleven... Zikmund was forced out due to injury but all of the rest played 58 minutes or better in a game that set Nebraska back up where they were in the estimation of Husker fans.

First Team Unchanged With M. Athey Due Start

The notice posted on the bulletin board was the point of interest in the Husker dressing room yesterday afternoon as teh team went thru a slight work-out in the light of the Pitt game scheduled for Saturday.

The notice was the weekly one announcing squad personnel and changes in individual standings on the three teams that compose the complete squad.

First Team Intact.

The first team with Preston and Thompson at the ends; Schleich and Herndon at tackle;

GEORGE ABEL ROY LONG Lincoln Journal.

F. Meier and Abel at guard; Kelly at center and with a backfield composed of Metheny, Athey, Blue and Bradley showed no divergence from Monday's practice.

On the seconds there were several changes made however. Roy Long, sophomore safety from Blair, saw his name on the second team behind Bradley. His place on the thirds was taken by Howard Debus, who held down the berth previously.

Wayne Sindt, Napponee, moved up behind Athey at halfback and Randall Salisbury climbed right up behind Wayne Blue at full. Bobby Cooper remained at the second string quarter's position behind Metheny. Bill Bryant was also on the seconds following the announcement that he would take Bob Deviney's spot at guard while the latter moved to third string fullback.

Intent upon winning the Pitt struggle, the team went out to brush up on fundamentals upon the regular field, the cover having been removed, and the entire squad showed that they liked to get back on the sod that they have been away from for nearly a month.

George Abel, game captain for the contest, had this to say about it. "It's about time that we're winning one, don't you think? Anyway, we're going to make our own breaks Saturday."

Five Changes Slated Appear In Conference

Barring ties, five of the Big Six teams will see their conference standings changed by results of the games on schedule this Saturday, when Missouri's Tigers travel to Norman to meet Oklahoma and Kansas State keeps it a purely local affair by journeying to Lawrence to do battle with KU's Jayhawks.

Winner of the Missouri-Oklahoma affair will claim first place honors since both teams now have three wins to their credit, while conference-idle Nebraska will have to be content to share the third place position with the winner of the Jayhawk-Wildcat tussle.

Oklahoma Climbs.

By virtue of last week's results, Oklahoma moved up a notch to claim first place honors with Missouri in the only conference game played last week.

Conference standings:

	won	lost
Oklahoma	3	0
Missouri	3	0
Nebraska	2	2
Kansas	1	2
Kansas State	1	2
Iowa State	0	4

Pitt Rooters Show Spirit In Parade

Bowser Wears Worried Expression After Scouts Give Report on Huskers

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 11—Followers of Pittsburgh's scrappy Panthers trekked through the downtown streets here today, joyously celebrating Saturday's victory over hitherto mighty Fordham.

Coach Charley Bowser hustled his grid squad directly into drill. A notice on the Pitt blackboard illustrated Bowser's hurry to whip his squad into shape: "Pitt 0, Minnesota 39; Nebraska 0, Minnesota 0."

Scouts Laud Huskers.

Scouts Arnold Greene and Doc Hartwig, who watched the Minnesota-Nebraska tussle, had words of praise for Biff Jones' Cornhuskers. Hartwig pointed out that the Husker defense ranks with the country's best. Greene emphasized the fire and spirit of the Jones boys.

Mentor Bowser withheld the varsity gridmen from active scrimmage during the rehearsal. The huskies confined their activity to running plays during the drill, lengthened by the Armistice holiday. Pitt's passing attack, notably weak in previous games, was the object of considerable attention. Edgar "Special Delivery" Jones, who passes for the Panthers, was the center of the passing drill.

Jim Crowley, coach of the Fordham Rams, had only praise for the Pitt team that downed his touted club. Crowley explained the defeat to the New York Reporters club.

"It wasn't overconfidence. Pitt scored early and that seemed to rattle our club—which was odd, because against Southern Methodist when we won in last minute, and against North Carolina, when we trailed 6-7 at the end of the half, they showed they could come from behind. For some reason the team didn't click, and Pitt played as good ball as we've been up against all season."

"Edgar Jones is the best back I've seen all season. Ralph Fife's tremendous line-backing job also looked great. He must have a set of our plays. That's how good he diagnosed them," concluded Coach Crowley.
